Modern Movements In European Philosophy Phenomenology Critical Theory Structuralism:

Modern Movements in European Philosophy Richard Kearney, 1996 Modern Movements in European Philosophy Richard Kearney, 1986 Modern Movements in European Philosophy Richard Kearney, 1995-01-15 In this now classic textbook Richard Kearney surveys the work of nineteen of this century's most influential European thinkers The second edition has a new chapter devoted to Julia Kristeva whose work in the fields of semiotics and psychoanalytic theory has made a significant contribution to recent continental thought Transforming Practice Elaine Graham, 2002-03-21 This book is an attempt to address the relationship between the contemporary crisis of Western culture and the future of Christian theology from the vantage point of pastoral practical theology In an age of uncertainty the authority and status of the sources and norms of Christian pastoral care and social action can no longer be taken for granted The traditional models of human nature value and community drawn from Scripture and tradition appear anachronistic especially in the light of postmodern insights into identity power and knowledge The purpose of this book is therefore to reconstruct the values by which Christian practice may be guided in a pluralist and fragmented society and to identify a model of pastoral theology for a postmodern age Can a reconstructed pastoral theology regulate the relationship between theory and practice and construct a relevant but authentic practical wisdom It is possible to maintain the boundaries of coherent community with binding truth claims whilst remaining open to the horizons of diversity and provisionality Pages 2 3 Inseminations Juhani Pallasmaa, Matteo Zambelli, 2020-04-09 A collection of the writing of the highly influential architect Juhani Pallasmaa presented in short easily accessible and condensed ideas ideal for students Juhani Pallasmaa is one of Finland's most distinguished architects and architectural thinkers publishing around 60 books and several hundred essays and shorter pieces over his career His influential works have inspired undergraduate and postgraduate students of architecture and related disciplines for decades In this compilation of excerpts of his writing readers can discover his key concepts and thoughts in one easily accessible comprehensive volume Inseminations Seeds for Architectural Thought is a delightful collection of thoughtful ideas and compositions that float between academic essay and philosophical reflection Wide in scope it offers entries covering atmospheres biophilic beauty embodied understanding imperfection light and shadow newness and nowness nostalgia phenomenology of architecture sensory thought silence time and eternity uncertainty and much more Makes the wider work of Pallasmaa accessible to students across the globe introducing them to his key concepts and thoughts Exposes students to a broad range of issues on which Pallasmaa has a view Features an alphabetized structure that makes serendipitous discovery or linking of concepts more likely Presents material in short condensed manner that can be easily digested by students Inseminations Seeds for Architectural Thought will appeal to undergraduate students in architecture design urban studies and related disciplines worldwide Concentrated Creation Rhona Lewis, 2023-01-26 This book widens the understanding of salvation from a narrow focus on the crucifixion of Jesus Christ to one which is inseparable from creation theology In this analysis of the Thomist and Irenaean sources of Edward Schillebeeckx's creation faith God's absolute saving presence to humanity is found to be intrinsic to his creative action This becomes most explicit in God's humanity in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ Lewis argues that Jesus is both God's invitation to humanity and is himself the perfect human response to God Because of this Jesus followers are called to be engaged in God's saving action by working to remove suffering from people and to build a better world in which all may flourish Schillebeeckx's theology is sometimes thought to divide into two disconnected halves a pre and post Vatican II version The way in which Schillebeeckx's Christological soteriology has developed over his theological career before and after Vatican II is here examined using the Annales model of continuity and change This book finds that Schillebeeckx both breaks with the language of Chalcedon while remaining adamantly faithful to the truth which it expresses The final chapters discover how Schillebeeckx's ideas and methods are crucially relevant in an analysis of contemporary social suffering in Ciudad Ju rez by Nancy Pineda Madrid and in the project of the Catholic Dialogue School in Flanders by Lieven Boeve theoretical introduction to the many languages of visual discourse It will be essential reading for graduate students and scholars in visual studies the sociology of visual culture cultural and media studies philosophy art history and theory design film and communication studies Architecture, Ethics, and the Personhood of Place Gregory Caicco, 2007 Architecture and environmental design are among the last professional fields to develop a sustained and nuanced discussion concerning ethics Hemmed in by politics and powerful clients on one side and the often unscrupulous practices of the construction industry on the other environmental designers have been traditionally reluctant to address ethical issues head on And yet the rapid urbanization of the world's population continues to swell into new megacities each less healthy welcoming secure or environmentally sustainable than the next Green carbon reduced and sustainable building practices are important ways architects have recently responded to the symptoms of the crisis but are these efforts really addressing the core issues Taking the Dine Navajo Hogan Song a song used to protect and nourish the personhood of newly constructed dwellings as their inspiration the architects philosophers poets and other contemporary scholars contributing to this volume demonstrate that a deeper more radical change in our relationship to the built world needs to occur While offering a careful critique of modernist corporate or techno enthralled design practices these essays investigate an alternative relational ecology whose wisdom draws from ancient and often marginalized voices if not the whisperings of the earth itself Contributors include Richard Kearney Alberto Perez Gomez Juhani Pallasmaa Karsten Harries Edward Casey Susan Stewart David Abram Stacy Alaimo Jace and Laura Weaver Philip Sheldrake and Sebnem Yucel Young Digital Overwhelm Craig E. Mattson, 2024-07-30 Why does doing your job feel so flooded and so pointless at the same time Nobody knows better than millennial and Gen Z professionals how rapid technological development has inundated post pandemic work Organizational researcher Craig Mattson listens to their stories and builds a framework for coping with digital overwhelm at work This book won't tell you to declutter your digital life or to end capitalism now But what you can do suggests Professor Mattson is change how you attend to zones where technological disruption meets emotional pressure Calling these zones modes of communication this book urges you to practice mode switching Addressed to millennial and Gen Z professionals Digital Overwhelm draws on biblical wisdom literature to offer a primer on organizational communication Each chapter is followed by a short Mode Switch Workshop addressing questions such as how to survive the Zoom room how to write an email that sounds like you how to get unstuck when tools break down and how to get people to do things so you can too Even technologically disrupted organizations are more navigable than they feel if you know how to switch up your modes of communication Captivating Technology Ruha Benjamin, 2019-06-07 The contributors to Captivating Technology examine how carceral technologies such as electronic ankle monitors and predictive policing algorithms are being deployed to classify and coerce specific populations and whether these innovations can be appropriated and reimagined for more liberatory ends Contemporary Continental Philosophy Stuart Sim, 2017-08-03 This title was first published in 2000 Contemporary continental philosophy is a widely used but in many ways a highly problematic term and its exact frame of reference is not always clear In its more recent French manifestations in particular it continues to arouse considerable controversy and create bitter divisions with particularly hostile reactions to the work of Derrida and others Much work in the recent continental tradition can be fitted into a longer running philosophical tradition of scepticism and scepticism has always had the power to provoke and unsettle the philosophical establishment Presenting an overview of the philosophical landscape of the continental tradition since the 1940s this book traces the establishment of the new super scepticism as an intellectual paradigm with the power to threaten and disorientate existing world views and more traditional styles of philosophical discourse marking the continental divide Exploring how contemporary continental philosophy from existentialism to postmodernism can be characterised as this new more resistant form of scepticism Sim identifies a clutch of key themes including difference the subject antifoundationalism dialectics which have been obsessively worked over by key thinkers in the Existentialist Postmodernist period and demonstrates how these have contributed to the development of a super sceptical outlook Presenting a new theme led approach to provide an entry into current debates in continental philosophy Stuart Sim reintegrates the work of Sartre into the more recent continental tradition and suggests that something qualitatively different is now occurring in French philosophy

Words Made Flesh Elaine Graham,2013-01-25 Words Made Flesh draws together a number of Elaine Graham s shorter writings and essays and thereby maps out the work of a pioneer theological thinker and the development of pastoral and practical theology in the last twenty years Elaine Graham considers the theological significance of topics as diverse as nativity plays science fiction gender consumerism cyberspace and urban regeneration They all share a concern with the way the sources and norms of the Christian tradition can enter into a creative and critical conversation with contemporary experience in order to generate the practical wisdom by which the life of the Church can be directed They reflect Elaine Graham s fundamental conviction that theology as talk about God in the world is always practical and public and that it begins and ends in the complexities of the human condition where words become flesh

Color Protocols Carolyn L. Kane,Lida Zeitlin-Wu,2025-09-30 An edited volume that explores how color intersects with problematic histories of racial encoding in linguistic visual and algorithmic media What is at stake when categories like color race and ethnicity are transformed into a common language lexicon or industry standard And more critically how can we avoid the epistemic and ontological violence that seems inevitable in organizing color into a series of grammars syntaxes indexes and protocols Color Protocols offers a series of responses to these questions and others It begins with the premise that color is central to the history of systemic racism and in turn that the encoding of race vis vis color is an intrinsic aspect of chromatic technologies The book s eighteen curated essays edited by Carolyn Kane and Lida Zeitlin Wu are written by scholars from across the arts social sciences and humanities Each section contains both original essays and republished excerpts fundamental to understanding how the history of color technology and its racialized double valences have played out across multiple fields and media platforms over the last century and a half Contributors Ruha Benjamin Jianqing Chen Anne Anlin Cheng Frederick Douglass W E B Du Bois Richard Dyer Ali Feser Nicholas Gaskill Quran M Karriem Michael Keevak Lisa Nakamura Tina Post Aileen Robinson Michael Rossi Lorna Roth Amber Sweat Genevieve Yue

Averting Global Extinction Louis S. Berger,2009 The extensive literature about averting ecological disasters nuclear catastrophe and unsupportable overpopulation typically describes dangers analyzes their implications and presses for remedial action It seems that what is taken as too obvious and well understood to mention let alone to address seriously is humanity s failure to give global and human survival top priority More careful consideration of this irrational self destructive sociocultural negligence shows that it is complex puzzling and ensconced and perpetuated by pathological societal defenses This paradox is Averting Global Extinction s subject Berger argues that if these psychological defenses were reduced so would be society s indifference to necessary action The book s clinically informed approach conceptualizes society s self destructiveness as an analogue to the self destructive psychopathologies of individuals identifies society s ubiquitous and destructive psychological defenses denial projection and avoidance as the chief element in that sociocultural psychopathology and devises a sociocultural therapy This therapy is accomplished by translating a carefully selected individual psychotherapy framework a subtype of the so called analysis of defense into a corresponding societal therapeutic methodology society becomes the patient This intervention is intended to complement and facilitate not replace the usual recommended approaches to rescuing the globe Thus three analogies are deployed between individual and societal pathology defenses and psychotherapy The book s new and valuable principal contributions are the identification of sociocultural psychopathology as the underlying cause of our near indifference to the threat of global extinction the recognition of societal defenses as key elements in that pathology the conceptualization of a therapeutic analogue applicable at the societal level to counter that indifference and the construction of an exemplar of that analogue

Information Ages Michael E. Hobart,Zachary S. Schiffman,2000-05-26 A grand intellectual history from clay tablets to Bill Gates Selected by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title The late twentieth century is trumpeted as the Information Age by pundits and politicians alike and on the face of it the claim requires no justification But in Information Ages Michael E Hobart and Zachary S Schiffman challenge this widespread assumption In a sweeping and captivating history of information technology from the ancient Sumerians to the world of Alan Turing and John von Neumann the authors show how revolutions in the technology of information storage from the invention of writing approximately 5 000 years ago to the mathematical models for describing physical reality in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries to the introduction of computers profoundly transformed ways of thinking

The Dialectics of Creation Martin G. Poulson, 2014-03-13 This book investigates the philosophical components of Christian faith in creation by analyzing the distinction and the relation between creation and its Creator The writings of Edward Schillebeeckx and David Burrell supply a terminology of distinction and relation that shapes the discourse following in the footsteps of Aquinas Poulson elucidates the relational dialectic in the thought of Schillebeeckx as a way of thinking about the Creation and offers a helpful comparison with the thought of David Burrell Relational dialectic is an organizing principle not only of Schillebeeckx s account of creation but of his philosophical theology more generally It can operate as a hermeneutic for his material on praxis and humanism in a way that resolves some problems noted by other Schillebeeckx scholars Poulson s interpretation of Schillebeeckx enriches current approaches to this thinker and offers a significant contribution to thinking on the doctrine of Creation and issues surrounding the ontological distinction which is of major concern in philosophical theology today

Secularization in Contemporary Religious Radicalism Corneliu Simut, 2019-05-21 The concept of secularization has grown to become one of the most important features of contemporary religious thought This book introduces and examines the thinking of sixteen key theologians philosophers and historians of religion to explain a why by the late nineteenth century the traditional concept of God as an ontologically real being came to be considered no longer necessary and b how the new perspective on God which accepts him only as an idea turned into the preferred approach of today s religion and philosophy namely religious radicalism
