Basilio Gaztambide, 2025-06-13 This book sheds light on an as yet unstudied aspect of The Museum of Modern Art s MoMA preeminent role in establishing the definition of the problematic term Latin American art in the United States from the 1930s to the present through its collection displays In examining the shifting categorization of Latin American works according to stylistic and geographic taxonomies we gain a greater understanding of the organization of the Museum s collections as a whole during the 1940s and 1950s This book is the first to document these institutional precedents crucial for the understanding of the articulation of a Modernist canon and its contested legacy today The MoMA is widely recognized as the preeminent institution that defined 20th century art through its collection shaping our understandings of the history of art with its hierarchies and exclusions as they sediment over time MoMA s holdings of art from Latin America shed light on a key period when the stylistic categories that have since come to be accepted by many today as the Modernist canon developed MoMA s collection displays suggest ways in which artists from areas of the world formerly excluded can be incorporated within today s increasingly global museums MoMA s approach may be compared to initiatives adopted by several museums since the 2000s creating geographically defined curatorial positions as a way to redress gaps in collecting art from Latin America and other areas of the world In this book author Miriam M Basilio Gaztambide offers a closer study of the history of collection displays as a means to understand canon formation in modern art museums This work will be of interest to those researching Latin American American modern and contemporary art and curatorial and museum studies Architecture and Narrative Sophia Psarra, 2009-01-06 Architecture is often seen as the art of a thinking mind that arranges organizes and establishes relationships between the parts and the whole It is also seen as the art of designing spaces which we experience through movement and use

Conceptual ordering spatial and social narrative are fundamental to the ways in which buildings are shaped used and perceived Examining and exploring the ways in which these three dimensions interact in the design and life of buildings this intriguing book will be of use to anyone with an interest in the theory of architecture and architecture s relationship to the cultural human environment

What Is Contemporary Art? Terry Smith,2012-08-10 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today s multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going

The Museum's Borders Simon Knell, 2020-10-07 The Museum's Borders demonstrates that museum practices are deeply entangled in border making patrol mitigation and erasure and that the border lens offers a new tool for deconstructing and reconfiguring such practices Arguing that the museum is a critical institution for the operation of knowledge based democracies Knell investigates how they have been used by scientists art historians and historians to construct our bordered world Examining the role of museums in the Windrush scandal in Britain the exclusion of Black artists in America ideological and propaganda discourses in Europe and China and the remembering of contested pasts in the Balkans Knell argues for the importance of museums in countering unethical nationalistic post fact political discourse Using the principles of Knell's Contemporary Museology The Museum's Borders considers the significance of the museum for societies that wish to know and remember in ways that empower citizens and build cohesive societies The book will be of great interest to students and academics engaged in the study of museums and heritage art history science studies cultural studies anthropology memory studies and history It is required reading for museum professionals seeking to adopt non discriminatory practices

The History of Modern Painting Richard Muther, 1907

The Contemporary Museum Simon Knell, 2018-10-11 The Contemporary Museum issues a challenge to those who view the museum as an artefact of history constrained in its outlook as much by professional institutional and disciplinary creed as by the collections it accumulated in the distant past Denying that the museum can locate its purpose in the pursuit of tradition or in idealistic speculation about the future the book asserts that this can only be found through an ongoing and proactive negotiation with the present the contemporary This volume is not concerned with any present but with the peculiar circumstances of what it refers to as the global contemporary the sense of living in a globally connected world that is preoccupied with the contemporary To situate the museum in this world of real and immediate need and action beyond the reach of history the book argues is to empower it to challenge existing dogmas and inequalities and sweep aside old hierarchies As a result fundamental questions need to be asked about such things as the museum's relationship to global time and space to systems and technologies of knowing to the life well lived to the movement and rights of people and to the psychology permanence and organisation of culture Incorporating diverse viewpoints from around the world The Contemporary Museum is a follow up volume to Museum Revolutions and as such should be essential reading for students in the fields of museum and heritage studies cultural studies communication and media studies art history and social policy Academics and museum professionals will also find this book a source of inspiration

The Art of Critical Making Rosanne Somerson, Mara Hermano, 2013-09-11 Describes the world's leading approach to art and design taught at Rhode Island School of Design At Rhode Island School of Design students are immersed in a culture where making questions ideas and objects using and inventing materials and activating experience all serve to define a form of critical thinking albeit with one s hands i e critical making The Art of Critical Making by RISD faculty and staff describes fundamental aspects of RISD s approach to critical making and how this can lead to innovation The process of making taught at RISD is deeply introspective passionate and often provocative This book illuminates how RISD nurtures the creative process from brief or prompt to outcome along with guidance on the critical questions and research that enable making great works of art and design Explores the conceptual process idea research critical questions and iteration that RISD faculty employ to educate students to generate thoughtful work Authors are from the faculty and staff of the Rhode Island School of Design which consistently ranks as the number one fine arts and design college in the United States The Art of Critical Making shows you how context materials thought processes and self evaluation are applied in this educational environment to prepare creative individuals to produce dynamic memorable and meaningful works

Picasso in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Pablo Picasso,Magdalena Dabrowski,Christel Hollevoet,2010 This publication presents a comprehensive catalogue of the works by Pablo Picasso in the Metropolitan Museum Comprising 34 paintings 59 drawings 12 sculptures and ceramics and more than 400 prints the collection reflects the full breadth of the artist s multi sided genius as it asserted itself over the course of his long career

National Galleries Simon Knell,2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism

Luc Tuymans Eva Meyer-Hermann,2017-01-01 Belgian painter Luc Tuymans b 1958 has over the course of his remarkable career created a distinctive vernacular and is widely credited with having contributed to the revival of painting in the 1990s This second volume in a planned three volume catalogue raisonné of Tuymans s paintings surveys nearly two hundred works featuring some of his most iconic canvases including from his seminal exhibition Mwana Kitoko Beautiful White Man 2000 derived from the fraught history of Belgian colonial rule of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and The Secretary of State 2005 a portrayal of Condoleezza Rice which conjures the history of racial and sexual prejudice in the United States Brilliant color reproductions of each painting from this period are accompanied by an illustrated chronology with archival images and installation views of the works in the volume This catalogue raisonné is a testament to Tuymans's persistent assertion of the relevance and importance of painting a conviction that he maintains even in today's digital world American Modern: Hopper to O'Keeffe Esther Adler, Kathy Curry, 2013-08-11 The Museum of Modern Art is known for its prescient focus on the avant garde art of Europe but in the first half of the twentieth century it was also acquiring work by Stuart Davis Georgia O'Keeffe Charles Sheeler Alfred Stieglitz and other less well known American artists whose work sometimes fits awkwardly under the avant garde umbrella American Modern presents a fresh look at MoMA's holdings of American art from that period The still lifes portraits and urban rural and industrial landscapes vary in style approach and medium melancholy images by Edward Hopper and Andrew Wyeth bump against the eccentric landscapes of Charles Burchfield and the Jazz Age sculpture of Elie Nadelman Yet a distinct sensibility emerges revealing a side of the Museum that may surprise a good part of its audience and throwing light on the cultural preoccupations of the rapidly changing American society of the day The Anthropologist as Writer Helena Wulff, 2016-03-01 Writing is crucial to anthropology but which genres are anthropologists expected to master in the 21st century This book explores how anthropological writing shapes the intellectual content of the discipline and academic careers First chapters identify the different writing genres and contexts anthropologists actually engage with Second this book argues for the usefulness and necessity of taking seriously the idea of writing as a craft and of writing across and within genres in new ways Although academic writing is an anthropologist's primary genre they also write in many others from drafting administrative texts and filing reports to composing ethnographically inspired journalism and fiction Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt Alice Stevenson, 2025-01-16 Artistic interventions are now a popular means of delivering fresh perspectives on museum displays including in galleries devoted to ancient Egypt Installations are commonly said to put the past and present into dialogue with each other offering external critical voices on the work of decolonisation Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt argues that the contemporary and the ancient do not necessarily inform each other Instead they are mediated by and mediations of the museum that produces them Rather than explore how contemporary artists have been inspired by Egypt this book examines how they have shaped the language and discourse around study of the Egyptian past by looking at the wider field of public display in which both have been historically situated Building on this critical history of practice the book draws from experiments in bringing contemporary artistic sculptures conceptual pieces multimedia films sounds smells and performances into galleries at the British Museum in London the Egyptian Museum in Turin and the State Museum of Egyptian Art in Munich These are used to explore what contemporary art does in these spaces the motivations for inviting artists in and the legacies of those interventions It ends with a reflection on how academics and curators can be involved in the creative process and how artists contribute to academic research Praise for Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt This is an important and innovative study on the recent history of incorporating art installations in galleries of Egyptian antiquities Offering a thoughtful critical analysis of the ways in which contemporary art and ancient artefacts are juxtaposed in museum settings the book calls for a more nuanced and politically engaged practice of collaboration between artists and Egyptologists Stephanie Moser University of Southampton Archaeologist Alice Stevenson provides a thoughtful consideration of the goals and intent behind contemporary art interventions in exhibitions of ancient Egyptian art She challenges the curators scholars and museum professionals who design these exhibitions to move beyond the simplistic ancient art contemporary art juxtaposition and instead use contemporary art interventions to create spaces for both artistic and academic insight and inspiration I look forward to such dialogue Kara Cooney UCLA      The Publishers Weekly ,2004      Pegi by Herself Laura Brandon,2023-03-24 One of the most vibrant artists of her generation Pegi Nicol MacLeod was a charismatic bohemian whose expressive images of the contemporary world were an essential component of Canadian modernism during the 1930s and 1940s In Pegi by Herself the first full length biography of Nicol MacLeod Laura Brandon draws on the artist s remarkable autobiographical paintings and extraordinarily vivid letters Remembered as much for her colourful life love affairs and significant friendships with Vincent Massey Norman Bethune Frank Scott and Graham Spry as for her artistic achievement Nicol MacLeod exhibited successfully and received significant commissions from the National Gallery of Canada to paint the wartime women s services She was honoured there with a memorial exhibition following her early death in 1949 Lavishly illustrated Pegi by Herself accompanies Pegi Nicol MacLeod A Life in Art a touring retrospective exhibition of the artist s work that opens at the Carleton University Art Gallery in February 2005 and the premiere of an NFB film biography
