Modern Architecture in America Richard Guy Wilson, Sidney K. Robinson, 1991
the United States, 1840-1917 Jon A. Peterson, 2003-09-10 Publisher Description Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries
Henry Hobson Richardson and the Small Public Library in America Kenneth A. Breisch, 1997 An examination of Richardson's small public libraries that places them in the design cultural political and economic contexts of their times
Albert Kahn Inc. Claire Zimmerman, 2025-08-12 A study of Albert Kahn Incorporated the architecture firm closely associated with the Ford Motor Company and other auto companies that explores capitalism and political economy through the built environment of industry and culture In Albert Kahn Inc Claire Zimmerman provides a history of second wave industrialization associated with the growth and development of the United States auto industry and its global footprint A forensic analysis of the architects of Ford the book theorizes how building and capitalism intersected in the case of twentieth century industrial buildings but also in other kinds of architecture and in the built environment writ large Generally a marginal subject in histories of architecture industrialism here exposes the expansionist modern project in Western architecture and culture which was based on natural resource extraction and labor exploitation With more than 140 full color illustrations the book combines an analysis of industrial architecture with compelling photographic evidence drawn from assorted archives Zimmerman offers a political economy of architecture reconceptualizes the design process within a high volume firm in dialogue with fast paced industrial capitalism tracks the feedback loops that industrialization introduced into architecture and maps the unequal effects of these industrial environments on the workers who labored within them Ultimately Zimmerman shows how the coalition of US private capital and state power built industrial installations as imperialist projects and how its practices survive to the present day
Women and the Making of the Modern House Alice T. Friedman, 2006-01-01 Investigates how women patrons of architecture were essential catalysts for innovation in domestic architectural design This book explores the challenges that unconventional attitudes and ways of life presented to architectural thinking and to the architects themselves
Frank Lloyd Wright--the Lost Years, 1910-1922 Anthony Alofsin, 1993 New definition to the little known work Wright produced during this period which he describes as Wright's primitivist phase He traces this influence in his art through Wright's explorations of primitivist sources innovations in sculpture and an intensification of the architect's use of ornament

Less tangible but as important was Wright's view of himself, his art and society and Alofsin uncovers the European impact on the architect's image of himself as a Historic Residential Suburbs David L. Ames, Linda Flint McClelland, 2002

Buyways Catherine Gudis, 2004 Zoning and the road to federal legislation Losers and winners Conclusion the road ahead
City and Campus John W. Stamper, 2024-04-01 City and Campus tells the rich history of a Midwest industrial town and its two academic institutions through the buildings that helped bring these places to life John W Stamper paints a narrative portrait of South Bend and the campuses of the University of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's College from their founding and earliest settlement in the 1830s through the boom of the Roaring Twenties Industrialist giants such as the Studebaker Brothers Manufacturing Company and Oliver Chilled Plow Works invested their wealth into creating some of the city's most important and historically significant buildings Famous architects including Frank Lloyd Wright brought the latest trends in architecture to the heart of South Bend Stamper also illuminates how Notre Dame's founder and long time president Father Edward Sorin C S C recruited other successful architects to craft in stone the foundations of the university and the college at the same time as he built the scholarship City and Campus provides an engaging and definitive history of how this urban and academic environment emerged on the shores of the St Joseph River
