Seven Keys to Modern Art Simon Morley, 2019-03-19 A liberating approach to interpreting modern and contemporary art focusing on twenty major artworks from around the world and representing a diversity of styles mediums and artists With modern art's proclivity for self expression originality and the abstract great works can often seem indecipherable This book provides the tools to help interpret the seemingly bizarre and often intimidating aspects of modern and contemporary art by exploring twenty works in terms of seven key perspectives history biography aesthetics experience theory criticism and the market Author artist and art historian Simon Morley shows how twenty well known but little understood works of art can serve as useful gateways not only for understanding each other but also for appreciating works by the same artists and the wider world of art in general Morley points to visual and theoretical dimensions of art that are not immediately obvious reconstructing the perspectives of artists and the context within which works were made Seven Keys to Modern Art is a liberating approach offering a highly practical and universally applicable method of art interpretation and appreciation

Writing Back to Modern Art Jonathan P. Harris, 2005 Studying the art writing and critique of the three leading art writers of the latter 20th century with focus on canonical modern artists Harris brings us this study which assesses the development of modern art writing UNESCO Art Collection Selected works UNESCO, 2021-11-19 Investigating Modern Art Liz Dawtrey, Elizabeth Dawtrey, Toby Jackson, Mary Masterton, Pam Meecham, Paul Wood, 1996-01-01 Modern art sometimes seems difficult or even impossible to understand In this appealing book modern art becomes accessible through clear and informative discussions about modern artists art movements and art works Charting the development of modern art from the nineteenth century through the present day each chapter focuses on particular artists and works of art placing them in their artistic contexts and discussing them from a variety of viewpoints Issues of gender and ethnicity criticisms of the accepted canon of modern art and important social and political influences on the institutions of art are woven into the discussion of key artists such as Picasso Matisse Pollock and Warhol and movements such as Cubism Surrealism Abstract Impressionism and Minimal Art Movement, Time, Technology, and Art Christina Chau, 2017-06-12 This book explores the ways in which artists use technology to create different perceptions of time in art in order to reflect on contemporary relationships to technology By considering the links between technology movement and contemporary art the book explores changing relationship between temporality in art art history media art theory modernity contemporary art and digital art This book challenges the dominant view that kinetic art is an antiquated artistic experiment and considers the changing perception of kinetic art by focusing on exhibitions and institutions that have recently challenged the notion of kinetic art as a marginalised and forgotten artistic experiment with mechanical media This is achieved by deconstructing Frank Popper's argument that kinetic art is a precursor to subsequent explorations in the intersections between art science and technology Rather than pandering to the prevailing art historical assumption that kinetic sculpture is merely a precursor to art in a digital culture the book proposes that perhaps kineticism succeeded too well where movement has become a ubiquitous element of the aesthetic of contemporary art If as Boris Groys has recently suggested installation has become the dominant mode of art in the contemporary age then movement in real time with the viewer is used to aestheticise and explore the facets of our peculiar time
