Modern Canadian Architecture:

Canadian Modern Architecture Elsa Lam, Graham Livesey, 2019-11-19 Royal Architectural Institute of Canada RAIC President's Medal Award multi media representation of architecture Canada's most distinguished architectural critics and scholars offer fresh insights into the country's unique modern and contemporary architecture Beginning with the nation's centennial and Expo 67 in Montreal this fifty year retrospective covers the defining of national institutions and movements How Canadian architects interpreted major external trends Regional and indigenous architectural tendencies The influence of architects in Canada's three largest cities Toronto Montreal and Vancouver Co published with Canadian Architect this comprehensive reference book is extensively illustrated and includes fifteen specially commissioned essays Canada Michelangelo Sabatino, Rhodri Windsor Liscombe, 2016-11-15 Canada is a country of massive size of diverse geographical features and an equally diverse population all features that are magnificently reflected in its architecture In this book Rhodri Windsor Liscombe and Michelangelo Sabatino offer a richly informative history of Canadian architecture that celebrates and explores the country's many contributions to the spread of architectural modernity in the Americas A distinct Canadian design attitude coalesced during the twentieth century one informed by a liberal hybrid and pragmatic mindset intent less upon the dogma of architectural language and more on thinking about the formation of inclusive spaces and places Taking a fresh perspective on design production they map the unfolding of architectural modernity across the country from the completion of the transcontinental railway in the late 1880s through to the present Along the way they discuss architecture within the broader contexts of political industrial and sociocultural evolution the urban suburban expansion and new building technologies Examining the works of architects and firms such as ARCOP Eric Arthur Ernest Cormier Brigitte Shim and Howard Sutcliffe this book brings Canadian architecture chronologically and thematically to life Modern Canadian Architecture Leon Whiteson, 1983 The New Spirit R. W. Liscombe, 1997 The first comprehensive study of the acclaimed Modernist architecture of Vancouver The Modernist architecture of the two post war decades established Vancouver's reputation as a center for progressive design and culture a city where architects pursued their desire to make of architecture a great humanistic experience With an introduction by Adele Freedman discussing Modernism in Canadian architecture as a whole Rhodri Windsor Liscombe's The New Spirit is the first comprehensive study of the acclaimed Modernist architecture of Vancouver Modernism in Vancouver had many facets it was a synthesis of expressions driven by a sense of social responsibility it emphasized concerns such as economy of form human uses relation to site affordability and the effective employment of new technology The author explores 25 years of sophisticated and distinctive architectural innovation examining both the conditions that brought this movement about and the forces that led to its decline Given the eventual debasement of Modernism and the demolition of many of these Vancouver buildings this account of the ambition of Modernist Canadian architects to enhance the physical environment for human well being in homes community centers libraries and universities churches office towers and apartment buildings serves as a reminder of how high ideals and a lively architectural culture can shape a better city A Perspective of Modern Canadian Architecture ,1978 Twelve Modern Houses, 1945-1985 Graham Livesey,University of Calgary. Canadian Architectural Archives,Michael McMordie,Geoffrey Simmins,1995 This publication part of the ongoing mandate of the Canadian Architectural Archives to examine the characteristics of Canadian architecture as reflected in the collections of the University of Calgary Library examines twelve architect created houses designed between the 1940s and the 1980s for several distinct regions of Canada The architects chosen number among the most prolific and best known in Canada who were working during this period including Raymond T Affleck Raymond Moriyama Arthur Erickson Douglas Cardinal John B Parkin Associates and Patkau Architects Other architects with perhaps a more regional reputation have also been included such as the Vancouver based firm of McCarter Nairne Calgary s Jack Long and Edmonton s Peter Hemingway Apart from the documentation of the twelve houses drawings and photos there are interpretative essays on each A co authored introductory essay explores several related themes modernity the contemporary house approaches to landscape and the role of drawings in contemporary practice A History of Canadian Architecture Harold D. Kalman,Harold Kalman,1994 Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner,Mary F. Williamson,1991-01-01 Identifies and summarizes thousands of books article exhibition catalogues government publications and theses published in many countries and in several languages from the early nineteenth century to 1981

A Concise History of Canadian Architecture Harold Kalman,2000 In this monumental two volume set the first comprehensive study of Canadian architecture Harold Kalman presents a rich panorama treating the vast range of Canadian building from the native peoples and first settlers to the recent past to the present day He describes the country s architectural history in a lucid and engaging narrative placing the buildings firmly in a social and cultural context to illuminate distinct characteristics of Canadian architects and architecture Lavishly illustrated with over eight hundred black and white drawings and photographs this work will be an essential reference for anyone interested in architectural history

Architecture, Town Planning and Community Cecil Scott Burgess,2005 Cecil Burgess was professor of architecture and resident architect at the University of Alberta between 1913 and 1940 This title collects Burgess public talks and writings offering a fresh insight into the social and intellectual dimensions of architecture and town planning during the first half of the twentieth century Modern North Julie Decker,2010-03-31 The Geographic Region Around the North Pole is a Raw and Exotic Area of Untouched Nature and Inescapable Beauty Building in this extremely cold climate requires an advanced degree of ingenuity and resolve Ecological conditions including high winds snowdrifts and permafrost combined with periods of little sunlight present seemingly impossible logistical hurdles for architects Vernacular buildings have emerged but like most indigenous structures they do little more than simply enclose and protect Recent years have witnessed an explosion of exceptional new architecture and a new definition of a Northern building one that is both extraordinarily responsive to place and aesthetically provocative In Modern North Architecture on the Frozen Edge author Julie Decker presents thirty four of the most compelling and far ranging possibilities of contemporary architecture in the North These buildings located in northern Canada Scandinavia and Alaska are united in the way they embrace extreme conditions and provide visual stimulation in places that sometimes offer little more than a whitescape The book contains innovative structures by both established and up and coming architects including David Chipperfield Architects Studio Granda and Shim Sutcliffe Architects as well as essays by Brian Carter Juhani Pallasmaa Edwin Crittenden and Lisa Rochon that place the projects in the context of a new architectural response to the North BOOK JACKET Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers

Modern Movement Heritage Allen Cunningham, 2013-10-18 An introduction to the subject and the specific problems related to the conservation of modern structures Celebrating the first five years of DoCoMoMo's role and influence this collection covers policy planning and construction Toronto Architecture Patricia McHugh, Alex Bozickovic, 2017-06-27 Toronto has been hailed as a city in the making and the city that works It's an ongoing project in recent years Canada's largest city has experienced transformative exciting change But just what does contemporary Toronto look like This authoritative architectural guide newly updated and expanded leads readers on 26 walking tours revealing the evolution of the place from a quiet Georgian town to a dynamic global city More than 1 000 designs are featured from modest Victorian houses to shimmering downtown towers and cultural landmarks Over 300 photographs 29 maps a description of architectural styles a glossary of architectural terms and indexes of architects and buildings pilot readers through Toronto's diverse cityscape New sections illustrate the swiftly changing face of Toronto's waterfront and design highlights across the region Originally written by architectural journalist Patricia McHugh and enhanced with new material and insights by Globe and Mail architecture critic Alex Bozickovic this definitive guide offers a revealing exploration of Toronto's past and future for the city's visitors and locals alike Suburban Modern Robert M. Stamp, 2004 While avant garde modernism disrupted the art salons architecture schools and design studios of the world's more sophisticated urban centres in the 20th century Calgary slept through the cultural upheavals as a provincial backwater Calgary's initiation to modernism might be dated to February 13 1947 when Imperial Oil blew in its famous well at Leduc Or the 1948 football season when Tom Brooks and Les Lear wrapped the Calgary Stampeders football team around an innovative and modernist looking T formation backfield to win the Grey Cup Calgarians embraced the modern age after the Second World War taking modernism into the streets and into the suburbs They went beyond art architecture and design and redefined modernism to include homes furniture appliances and cars In the process Calgarians democratized feminized and suburbanized modernism Suburban Modern examines controversies over coloured margarine and mixed drinking in post war Calgary It shows how new petro office buildings transformed the downtown skyline during the 1950s and 1960s and how new bus lines roads and bridges changed the city's transportation network As the city sprawled horizontally to engulf its ever expanding suburbs shoppers deserted downtown for suburban malls The book follows young couples into their post war dream homes with modern furnishings and barbecue appointed patios Suburban Modern argues that the suburbs rather than the downtown defined Calgary's approach to modernism Hidden in Plain Sight Cora J. Voyageur, David Newhouse, Dan Beavon, 2011-10-08 The acclaimed and accessible Hidden in Plain Sight series showcases the extraordinary contributions made by Aboriginal peoples to Canadian identity and culture This collection features new accounts of Aboriginal peoples working hard to improve their lives and those of other Canadians and serves as a powerful contrast to narratives that emphasize themes of victimhood displacement and cultural disruption In this second volume of the series leading scholars and other experts pay tribute to the enduring influence of Aboriginal peoples on Canadian economic and community development environmental initiatives education politics and arts and culture Interspersed are profiles of many significant Aboriginal figures including singer songwriter and educator Buffy Sainte Marie politician Elijah Harper entrepreneur Dave Tuccaro and musician Robbie Robertson Hidden in Plain Sight continues to enrich and broaden our understandings of Aboriginal and Canadian history while providing inspiration for a new generation of leaders and luminaries Conserving the Modern in Canada Susan Algie, 2007

Changing Ideals in Modern Architecture, 1750-1950 Peter Collins, 1998 Changing Ideals in Modern Architecture revolutionized the understanding of modernism in architecture pushing back the sense of its origin from the early twentieth century to the 1750s and thus placing architectural thought within the a broader context of Architecture and Town Planning in Colonial North America James D. Kornwolf, Georgiana Wallis Kornwolf, 2002 Incorporating more than 3 000 illustrations Kornwolf's work conveys the full range of the colonial encounter with the continent's geography from the high forms of architecture through formal landscape design and town planning From these pages emerge the fine arts of environmental design an understanding of the political and economic events that helped to determine settlement in North America an appreciation of the various architectural and landscape forms that the settlers created and an awareness of the diversity of the continent's geography and its peoples. Considering the humblest buildings along with the mansions of the wealthy and powerful public buildings, forts and churches, Kornwolf captures the true dynamism and diversity of colonial communities, their rivalries and frictions, their outlooks and attitudes as they extended their hold on the land. The Voyager Modern Canadian Literature 5-Book Bundle Hugh Garner, James Reaney, Robin Skelton, Germaine Warkentin, Scott Symons, 2014-03-14. Voyager Classics is a series of special versions of Canadian classics with added material and new introductions. In this bundle we find five classic works of twentieth-century fiction, drama, and poetry, a period when Canada's literary identity was shaped. Originally published in 1962, The Silence on the Shore is considered by many critics to be renowned Hugh Garner's best, most ambitious novel. Originally published in 1967, Combat Journal for Place d'Armes was initially met with shock and anger by most reviewers but has become a literary touchstone. The Donnelly's tells the tale of a secret society and a massacre that shocked the Canadian public, a story overlooked by the artistic community until Reaney's 1975 play elevated the events to the level of legend. In This Poem I Am presents the best of poet Robin Skelton's adventurous poetry. And Exploration Literature is a groundbreaking collection of early writing inspired by the opening of a continent, an entry point into the beginnings of a literate response to the awe and wonder inspired by an unfolding geography. Includes Canadian Exploration Literature, Combat Journal for Place d'Armes, The Donnelly's, In This Poem I Am, The Silence on the Shore.
