Modern Christian Thought: The Enlightenment and the nineteenth century James C. Livingston, 1997 The First of a 2 Volume work covering 19th Century Christian thought Modern Christian Thought, 2006 The Great War and the Death of God Charles A. O'Connor, 2014-04-07 A compelling analysis of how World War I spurred the rise of atheism and the subsequent effect on Western theology philosophy literature and art The catastrophic Great War left humanity in a world no longer trustworthy and reassuring but seemingly meaningless and indifferent Instead of redressing humanity's cosmic alienation postwar Western culture abandoned its concern for cosmic meaning lost its confidence in human reason and enabled the scientific worldview of neo Darwinian materialism to emerge and eventually dominate the Western mind According to the proponents of that worldview science is the only source of genuine truth nature is the product of a blind evolutionary process and reality at bottom is just physics and chemistry Thus God is dead and continued belief in a transcendently purposeful universe is intellectually indefensible and either disingenuous or delusional By turning away from the eternal questions about the nature of reality Western culture effectively ceded unwarranted credibility and prominence to neo Darwinian materialism including its recently strident New Atheism O'Connor revisits the 20th century's journey from Nietzsche's declaration of the death of God to the rise of materialism as the dominant worldview of western intelligentsia We live in a world that has largely expelled both mind and meaning from the citadels of serious intellectual pursuit and O'Connor's book is a fascinating and scholarly expedition into the how and why of that troubling development Carter Phipps author of Evolutionaries I found this topic to be top rate The book is well researched and conceived nicely narrated and analyzed and an original body of inquiry into a challenging fascinating intellectual tradition Ronald M Johnson Professor Emeritus of American History Georgetown University The Blackwell Companion to Nineteenth-Century Theology David Fergusson, 2010-03-18 Bringing together a collection of essays by prominent scholars The Blackwell Companion to Nineteenth Century Theology presents a comprehensive account of the most significant theological figures movements and developments of thought that emerged in Europe and America during the nineteenth century Representing the most up to date theological research this new reference work offers an engaging and illuminating overview of a period whose forceful ideas continue to live on in contemporary theology A new reference work providing a comprehensive account of the most significant theological figures and developments of thought that emerged in Europe and America during the nineteenth century Brings together newly commissioned research from prominent international Biblical scholars historians and theologians covering the key thinkers confessional traditions and major religious movements of the period Ensures a balanced ecumenical viewpoint with essays covering Catholic Russian and Protestant theologies Includes analysis of such prominent thinkers as Kant and Kierkegaard the influence and authority of Darwin and the natural sciences on theology and debates the role and enduring influence of the nineteenth century anti theologians The Writer and the Cross Darren J.N.

Middleton, 2022-06-27 Spiritually engaged readers commonly look toward fiction to better understand the depth of a faithful life and Christians are no exception Many followers of Jesus value beautifully written deftly characterized and pulse quickening literary art that seems more satisfying than dry tedious doctrinal textbooks This book surveys 12 pieces of historical fiction that feature notable Christian thinkers They include an illustrated children s book about St Irenaeus of Lyons a novel about Martin Luther s Reformation a screenplay focusing on Dietrich Bonhoeffer and even a story about Pope Francis narrated in popular manga style Rather than arcane literary analyses this book provides thoughtful and sometimes painful interviews with the authors of the covered works Most interviewees are little known or emerging writers Some have published their work with a church or denominational press others with a major publishing empire or popular print on demand platforms Storytellers reflect on their literary choices and the contexts of their writing sharing what modern Christians can learn from historical religious fiction

Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology Echol Lee Nix, 2010 Ernst Troeltsch and Comparative Theology examines the methodological attempts of Ernst Troeltsch and Robert Neville for discerning Christian normativity The investigation of Troeltsch focuses on his treatment of the absoluteness of Christianity and highlights the crisis brought upon absolute religious claims by the study of the history of religions By rejecting both the supernatural exclusive apologetic of orthodox Protestantism and the evolutionary apologetic of liberal Protestantism Troeltsch insists that theology s method should be the history of religions method die religionsgeschichtliche Methode Like Troeltsch Neville agrees with historical inquiries but contrary to Troeltsch Neville advances an axiological hypothesis to thinking which is founded in valuation Neville explains the role of valuation at the imaginative level of thinking and relates it to his theory of normative truth in religious symbols This study shows that Neville begins with Troeltsch s methodological presuppositions but achieves more normative theology than Troeltsch especially on ways in which God is engaged in symbolically shaped thinking and practice Both thinkers offer creative insights for theology that make possible a critical comparison of truth claims regarding the validity of Christianity in and for a historically conscious age

and the Problem of Religious Rivalry Hugh Nicholson, 2011-04-08 A model of interreligious theology that seeks to reconcile the ideal of religious tolerance with an acknowledgement of the extent to which religious communities construct identity on the basis of religious differences      A Theology for the Church Akin, Daniel L. Akin, 2014-06 Leading Baptist thinkers Daniel L. Akin R. Albert Mohler Jr. Paige Patterson Mark Dever et al. address four major issues in regard to eight Christian doctrines: revelation, God, humanity, Christ, the Holy Spirit, salvation, the Church, and last things. Revised edition      The Synod of Pistoia and Vatican II Shaun Blanchard, 2020 In this book Shaun Blanchard uses a close study of the Synod of Pistoia 1786 to argue that the roots of the Vatican II reforms must be pushed back beyond the widely acknowledged twentieth-century forerunners of the Council beyond Newman and the Tübingen School in the nineteenth century to the eighteenth century in which a variety of reform movements attempted ressourcement and aggiornamento      Imagining God Garrett Green, 1998 Garrett Green examines the point at which divine revelation and human experience meet where the priority of grace is acknowledged while allowing its dynamics to be described in analytical and comparative terms as a religious phenomenon      Theologies of the 21st Century David L. Smith, 2014-10-02 What theologies are popular and formative of Christian thinking in the present day? How should they be assessed by those Christians who want to be in the world without being of the world? Theologies of the 21st Century begins with an overview of the historical roots from which current theological thinking has developed and then moves on to a detailed evaluation of the chief doctrinal and practical emphases taking an evangelical biblical perspective that seeks to be at once both critical and irenic      Redescribing the Gospel of Mark Barry S. Crawford, Merrill P. Miller, 2017-06-16 A collaborative project with a variety of critical essays. This final volume of studies by members of the Society of Biblical Literature's consultation and later seminar on Ancient Myths and Modern Theories of Christian Origins focuses on Mark. As with previous volumes, the provocative proposals on Christian origins offered by Burton L. Mack are tested by applying Jonathan Z. Smith's distinctive social theorizing and comparative method. Essays examine Mark as an author's writing in a book culture, a writing that responded to situations arising out of the first Roman Judean war after the destruction of the Jerusalem temple in 70 CE. Contributors: William E. Arnal, Barry S. Crawford, Burton L. Mack, Christopher R. Matthews, Merrill P. Miller, Jonathan Z. Smith, and Robyn Faith Walsh explore the southern Levant as a plausible provenance of the Gospel of Mark and provide a detailed analysis of the construction of Mark as a narrative composed without access to prior narrative sources about Jesus. A concluding retrospective follows the work of the seminar, its developing discourse and debates, and the continuing work of successor groups in the field. Features: A thorough examination of the relation between structure and event in social and anthropological theory that provides conceptual tools for representing the project of the author of Mark. An exploration of the southern Levant as a plausible provenance of the Gospel, a permanent site of successive imperial regimes and culturally related peoples. A detailed analysis of the construction of Mark as a narrative composed without access to prior narrative sources about Jesus      Will Humanity Survive Religion? W. Royce Clark, 2020-06-22

When the human sciences in the West followed the physical sciences in the 18th and 19th centuries with new measurements methods and language the metaphysics of infinity lost its credibility The response of Western religions was to retrench in a stronger authoritarianism especially by the last half of the 19th century While the new human sciences were being extended even to study the history and philosophy of religions those religions themselves placed more emphasis on their understanding of the Absolute or Unquestionable That split became a burden both to those who were religious and to those who were not Here W Royce Clark argues that humanity s survival may depend on the development of a universal or inclusive ethic in which religions move beyond their Absolutes Clark poses the sharp challenge Are religious communities ready to abandon the foundations that until now they have insisted were the only adequate foundation for ethics

Trinitarian Interpretation in Light of the Identity of YHWH as the Triune God Alias K. Eldhose, 2024-01-10 Have you ever wondered how to maintain an understanding of monotheism in light of the Christian understanding of the triune Godhead Have you ever wondered about the identity of YHWH in the Old Testament Have you identified YHWH as the first person of the Trinity as many in the Christian tradition have If so this book is for you Many of the early Trinitarian heresies stemmed from a misunderstanding of YHWH in the Old Testament especially identifying YHWH as one person and not multiple persons This book addresses issues relating to the identity of YHWH in the Old Testament and makes the bold claim that YHWH is multiple persons in the OT and therefore Father is YHWH Jesus is YHWH and the Holy Spirit is YHWH This conclusion is based on sound exegesis of OT NT passages the early Christian understanding of God in the Old Testament and the New Testament s identification of Jesus in the identity of YHWH If identified thus a Christian reading of the entirety of Scripture will take on new meaning resulting in a robust Trinitarian interpretation of Scripture

We Hold These Truths to Be Self-Evident: The National Guard and the Categorical Imperative Anne C. Armstrong, 2021-09-07 In this monograph Dr Armstrong argues that a nation founded in Enlightenment theory can rely on Kant s categorical imperative as a rationale for voluntary service in one s local National Guard Since the 19th century a Utilitarian argument has been the favored rationale but in We Hold These Truths to be Self Evident The National Guard and the Categorical Imperative Dr Armstrong contends that there is also a normative rationale

The author traces Guard history from its inception in 1636 to the present day and applies Kant's unchanging categorical imperative to volunteer service in the militias. She highlights that this is an ideal that is not always met by frail human beings but that the categorical imperative is always there lurking in the historical record. With a thorough analysis of Kant's reasoning the theory is chronologically applied to volunteer service in the National Guard through the perspective of the leadership of each particular era. This book is ideal for the study of American history, Enlightenment philosophy and political science. It will appeal to scholars and academics as well as officers in Professional Military Education, PME service academies and War Colleges and the National Defense University. The World Come of Age Lilian Calles Barger, 2018-07-02

On November 16, 2017, Pope Francis tweeted: "Poverty is not an accident. It has causes that must be recognized and removed for the good of so many of our brothers and sisters." With this statement and others like it, the first Latin American pope was associated in the minds of many with a stream of theology that swept the Western hemisphere in the 1960s and 70s: the movement known as liberation theology. Born of chaotic cultural crises in Latin America and the United States, liberation theology was a trans-American intellectual movement that sought to speak for those parts of society marginalized by modern politics and religion by virtue of race, class or sex. Led by such revolutionaries as the Peruvian Catholic priest Gustavo Gutiérrez, the African American theologian James Cone or the feminists Mary Daly and Rosemary Radford Ruether, the liberation theology movement sought to bridge the gulf between the religious values of justice and equality and political pragmatism. It combined theology with strands of radical politics, social theory and the history and experience of subordinated groups to challenge the ideas that underwrite the hierarchical structures of an unjust society. Praised by some as a radical return to early Christian ethics and decried by others as a Marxist takeover, liberation theology has a wide-ranging cross-sectional history that has previously gone undocumented. In The World Come of Age, Lilian Calles Barger offers for the first time a systematic retelling of the history of liberation theology, demonstrating how a group of theologians set the stage for a torrent of new religious activism that challenged the religious and political status quo. A Theology of the Presence and Absence of God Anthony J. Godzieba, 2018-05-02

In a consumer-driven and technologized world, can we still experience the mystery of God? This book answers yes by exploring the rich resources of the Christian tradition of thinking and speaking about God. Focusing on God's dialectical character—divine availability, presence and divine excess, absence and the belief that God is love—1 John 4:16, professor Anthony J. Godzieba tracks how God became a problem in Western culture, then responds by showing how human experience is open to divine transcendence and how that openness encounters the revelation of God as Trinity. The book's contemporary edge comes from its insistence that belief as embodied performance is the most authentic way to participate in the mystery of God's love, which is the answer to the mystery of the world and human beings. Walter Kasper
