What the laws seek to do

- Introduce changes dealing with offences of terrorism and acts against the State
- Allow the registration of e-FIRs
- Factor in corruption in the election processes
- Make electronic evidence a form of primary proof
- Separately define crimes like mob lynching for the first time
- Include detailed provisions and enhanced punishment for crimes against women and children

"The new laws have been framed keeping in mind three basic principles -- civil liberty of citizens, human rights and equality. Some are unable to visualise this. The current (British) laws have no scope for justice — punishment is seen as justice." —
