Supplement to Ninth Editions, Modern Criminal Procedure Yale Kamisar, Wayne R. LaFare, Jerold H. Israel, Nancy J. King, 1999 Modern Criminal Procedure 2004 Yale Kamisar, 2002 When Law Fails Charles J. Ogletree, Jr., Austin Sarat, 2009-01-01 Since 1989 there have been over 200 post conviction DNA exonerations in the United States On the surface the release of innocent people from prison could be seen as a victory for the criminal justice system the wrong person went to jail but the mistake was fixed and the accused set free A closer look at miscarriages of justice however reveals that such errors are not aberrations but deeply revealing common features of our legal system The ten original essays in When Law Fails view wrongful convictions not as random mistakes but as organic outcomes of a misshaped larger system that is rife with faulty eyewitness identifications false confessions biased juries and racial discrimination Distinguished legal thinkers Charles J Ogletree Jr and Austin Sarat have assembled a stellar group of contributors who try to make sense of justice gone wrong and to answer urgent questions Are miscarriages of justice systemic or symptomatic or are they mostly idiosyncratic What are the broader implications of justice gone awry for the ways we think about law Are there ways of reconceptualizing legal missteps that are particularly useful or illuminating These instructive essays both address the questions and point the way toward further discussion When Law Fails reveals the dramatic consequences as well as the daily realities of breakdowns in the law s ability to deliver justice swiftly and fairly and calls on us to look beyond headline grabbing exonerations to see how failure is embedded in the legal system itself Once we are able to recognize miscarriages of justice we will be able to begin to fix our broken legal system Contributors Douglas A Berman Markus D Dubber Mary L Dudziak Patricia Ewick Daniel Givelber Linda Ross Meyer Charles J Ogletree Jr Austin Sarat Jonathan Simon and Robert Weisberg

LaFare, Jerold H. Israel, Nancy J. King, 2007 Powers of the Prosecutor in Criminal Investigation Karolina Kremens, 2021-03-26 This comparative analysis examines the scope of prosecutorial powers at different phases of criminal investigation in four countries the United States Italy Poland and Germany Since in all four the number of criminal cases decided without trial is constantly increasing criminal investigation has become central in the criminal process The work asks who should be in charge of this stage of the process Prosecutors have gained tremendous powers to influence the outcome of the criminal cases including powers once reserved for judges In a system in which the role of the trial is diminishing and the significance of criminal investigation is growing this book questions whether the prosecutor s powers at the early stage of the process should be enhanced Using a problem oriented approach the book provides a parallel analysis of each country along five possible spheres of prosecutorial engagement commencing criminal investigation conducting criminal investigation undertaking initial charging decisions imposing coercive measures and discontinuing criminal investigation Using the competing adversarial inquisitorial models as a framework the focus is on the prosecutor as a crucial figure in the criminal process and investigation The insights of this book will be of interest and relevance to students and academics in criminal justice criminology law and public policy as well as policymakers government officials and others interested in legal reform
