Modern Economic Systems And Their Transformation:

Modern Economic Systems and their Transformation J. L. Porket, 1998 Modern Economic Systems and their Transformation J. Porket, 1998-07-13 Societies whether traditional or modern experience tension between spontaneity individual freedom and control regulation Consequently economies as a subsystem of society experience it too More specifically they experience a tension between economic individualism and economic collectivism which in modern economies revolves around the role of the state in the economy Since the collapse of communism this tension has manifested itself not as a tension between market capitalism and command socialism but as a tension between the free market and the interventionist variants of market capitalism Although currently economic and political liberalization is in evidence worldwide not only in post communist societies its outcome remains uncertain Liberal democracy in the sense of democratic politics and free market economics has not triumphed hitherto and also its future is far from assured The end of history is not in sight Consistency and Viability of Islamic Economic Systems and the Transition Process J. Marangos, 2013-08-27 Consistency and Viability of Islamic Economics Systems and the Transition Process outlines the transition problem for non market economies and creates an analytic framework for understanding the cause and effect of these economies

Consistency and Viability of Capitalist Economic Systems J. Marangos, 2013-05-08 Consistency and Viability of Capitalist Economic Systems develops an original analytical framework to understand the relationship between the economic political and ideological structures the external environment and the process of reform that give rise to certain economic systems by establishing consistency Industry 4.0: Industrial Revolution of the 21st Century Elena G. Popkova, Yulia V. Ragulina, Aleksei V. Bogoviz, 2018-07-21 This book addresses a wide range of issues relating to the theoretical substantiation of the necessity of Industry 4 0 the development of the methodological tools for its analysis and evaluation and practical solutions for effectively managing this process It particularly focuses on solving the problem of optimizing the development of Industry 4 0 in the context of knowledge economy formation The book presents the authors approach to studying the process of Industry 4 0 formation in connection with knowledge economy and approach that allows the process to be studied in connection with the existing socio economic and technological conditions As a result the conclusions and recommendations could be applied to modern economic systems and do not require any further elaboration The presented research is based on modern economic theory scientific and methodological tools including the tools of the theory of economic cycles the theory of games and the institutional economic theory Raising awareness of the problem of Industry 4 0 formation the book is of interest to a wide audience including not only specialists and experts with a detailed knowledge of the topic but also scholars lecturers and undergraduates of various fields of economics Alternative Political Economy Models of Transition Marangos, Alternative Political Economy Models of Transition John Marangos, 2017-07-05 The collapse of centrally administered socialism in Russia and Eastern Europe resulted in what is commonly referred to as the transition problem the transformation from a centrally administered socialist economic system to one that is market based Economic science has been faced with the challenge of developing an appropriate body of analysis advice and direction to help other nations that may be undergoing this process In this volume John Marangos adopts a political economy approach that yields alternative models of transition The volume develops transition models from what Marangos defines as the primary elements of six variables 1 economic analysis 2 definitions of the Good Society 3 speed of transition 4 political structure 5 ideological structure and 6 initial conditions The models developed include the shock therapy model the neoclassical gradualist model of transition the post Keynesian model the pluralistic market the socialist model and the non pluralistic market socialist model After identifying the primary elements of each transition model Marangos considers the elements of each model with respect to the desirable reforms An essential element of the transition process is not only to identify the necessary reforms but also a sequence in which the reforms should be introduced For each transition model developed in this book a set of primary and secondary elements were provided in conjunction with a sequence of reforms Analyzing the transition problem from a political economy perspective Marangos shows that it is possible to have inconsistencies within each transition model and between transition models yet be able to identify the potential for implementation and maintenance of necessary reforms each model recommends This volume contributes to the understanding of the process of transition with the objective of identifying an optimal model of transition Economics of the Tribes and their Transformation K.S. Singh, 2016-01-01 The present volume seeks to present probably for the first time an all India conspectus of the economies of the tribes through specific case studies from different parts of the country of various modes of production The diversities of regional situations and the multiple processes of transition are dealt with in similar case studies The focus is on change and transformation of the modes of production including the relations of production These papers also raise the larger issues of the relationship of the tribes economy with society The picture that emerges is a complex one calling for further research and vigorous action programme to make tribal s adjustment to the emerging situations less painful Research Developments in Sustainable Aviation T. Rationality, Nationalism and Post-Communist Market Transformations Andrew Savchenko, 2018-06-27 This title was first published in 2000 A comparative analysis of market transformation in Poland Belarus and the Baltic states with particular emphasis on cross national variations in speed and direction of post Communist economic reforms While many studies tend to concentrate on the economic aspects of market reforms analysis of the broader institutional framework is less common This book

therefore focuses on the influence of historical and cultural conditions on the formation of economic policy The findings presented indicate that far from being a purely rational process driven exclusively by considerations of economical efficiency post Communist market transformation is influenced by socio political and cultural factors which are able to account for cross national variations in speed and direction of reforms

The Mayan Calendar and the Transformation of Consciousness Carl Johan Calleman, 2004-03-25 Reveals the Mayan calendar to be a spiritual device that describes the evolution of human consciousness from ancient times into the future Shows the connection between cosmic evolution and actual human history Provides a new science of time that explains why time not only seems to be speeding up in the modern world but is actually getting faster Explains how the end of the Mayan calendar is not the end of the world but a path toward enlightenment The prophetic Mayan calendar is not keyed to the movement of planetary bodies Instead it functions as a metaphysical map of the evolution of consciousness and records how spiritual time flows providing a new science of time The calendar is associated with nine creation cycles which represent nine levels of consciousness or Underworlds on the Mayan cosmic pyramid Through empirical research Calleman shows how this pyramidal structure of the development of consciousness can explain things as disparate as the common origin of world religions and the modern complaint that time seems to be moving faster Time in fact is speeding up as we transition from the materialist Planetary Underworld of time that governs us today to a new and higher frequency of consciousness the Galactic Underworld in preparation for the final Universal level of conscious enlightenment Calleman reveals how the Mayan calendar is a spiritual device that enables a greater understanding of the nature of conscious evolution throughout human history and the concrete steps we can take to align ourselves with this growth toward enlightenment
