Modern Landscape:

Modern Landscape Architecture Jory Johnson, 1991 The American Lawn Georges Teyssot, 1999 The site of political demonstrations sporting events and barbecues and the object of loving if not obsessive care and attention the lawn is also symbolically tied to our notions of community and civic responsibility serving in the process as one of the foundations of democracy Contemporary Urban Landscapes of the Middle East Mohammad Gharipour, 2016-03-17 The Middle East is well known for its historic gardens that have developed over more than two millenniums The role of urban landscape projects in Middle Eastern cities has grown in prominence with a gradual shift in emphasis from gardens for the private sphere to an increasingly public function The contemporary landscape projects either designed as public plazas or public parks have played a significant role in transferring the modern Middle Eastern cities to a new era and also in transforming to a newly shaped social culture in which the public has a voice This book considers what ties these projects to their historical context and what regional and local elements and concepts have been used in their design Hybrid Modernity Mary Padua, 2020-07-26 This book provides a detailed historical and design analysis of the development of parks and modern landscape architecture in late 20th century China It questions whether the fusion of international influences with the local Chinese design vocabulary in late 20th century China has created a distinctive and novel approach to the design of public parks Hybrid Modernity proposes a new theory for examining the design of public parks built in post Mao China since the reforms and sets the various processes for China's late 20th century socio cultural context Drawing on modernization theory research on China's modernity local and global cultural trends it illustrates through a range of case studies ways hybrid modernity defines a new design genre and language for the spatial forms of parks that emerged in China's secondary cities Featured case studies include the Living Water Park in Chengdu Sichuan province Zhongshan Shipyard Park in Guangdong Province Jinji Lake Landscape Master Plan in Suzhou Jiangsu province and the West Lake Southern Scenic Area Master Plan in Hangzhou Zhejiang province This book argues that these forms represent a new stage in China's history of landscape architecture The work reveals that as a new profession landscape architecture has greatly contributed to China's massive urban experiment This book is an ideal read for students enrolled in landscape architecture architecture fine arts and urban planning programs who are engaged in learning the arts and international design education Site Matters Andrea Kahn, Carol J. Burns, 2020-12-21 In the era of the Anthropocene site matters are more pressing than ever Building on the concepts theories and multi disciplinary approaches raised in the first edition this publication strives to address the changes that have taken place over the last 15 years with new material to complement and re position the initial volume Reaching across design disciplines this highly illustrated anthology assembles essays from architects landscape architects urban designers planners historians and artists to explore ways to physically and conceptually engage site Thoughtful discourse and empirically grounded pieces combine to provide the language and theory to contextualize the meanings of site in the built environment The increasingly complex hybridity of constructed environments today demands new tools for thinking about and working with site Drawing contributions from outside and within the traditional design disciplines this edition will trace important developments in site thinking with new essays on topics such as climate change landscape as infrastructure shifts from global to planetary urbanization debates and the proliferation of participatory site transformation practices Edited by two leading practitioners and academics Site Matters juxtaposes timeless contributions from individuals including Elizabeth Meyer Robert Beauregard and Robin Dripps with original new writings from Peter Marcuse Jane Wolff Neil Brenner and Thaisa Way amongst others to recontextualize and reignite the debate around site An ideal text for students academics and researchers interested in site and design theory Contemporary Landscapes of Contemplation Rebecca Krinke,2005-11-14

Contemplative landscape and contemplative space are familiar terms in the areas of design landscape architecture and architecture Krinke and her highly regarded contributors set out to explore definitions theories and case studies of contemplative landscapes The contributors Marc Treib John Beardsley Michael Singer Lance Necker Heinrich Hermann and Rebecca Krinke have spent their careers researching critiquing and making landscapes Here they investigate the role of contemplative space in a post modern world and examine the impact of nature and culture on the design or interpretation of contemplative landscapes The essays drawn from both scholarship and personal experience explore the links between spaces designed to provide health benefits and contemplative space Garden History Tom Turner,2005-09 Highly illustrated to present and explain in a most appealing way the historic styles of gardens with particular emphasis on the philosophy of garden design This carefully structured overview makes the large subject of garden history accessible to a wide range of readers The sections on history and philosophy are written as succinct essays illustrated with photographs or perspective drawings The essays deal with the ideas and historical conditions which led to the making of particular types of gardens The section on styles will focus on plan analysis and will be illustrated Diagrams illu Proceedings of the 2015 International Conference on Sustainable Development Liandong Zhu,Ahmed Ouadha,2016 Since the emergence of climate and global warming onto the international agenda research in sustainability has been underpinned by the development in energy and environmental science Highlighted 30 years ago by the Brundtland Commission sustainable development was defined as meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs This has very much defined the scope and aims of this conference This conference proceedings book contains the selected papers presented in the 2015 International Conference on Sustainable Development ICSD2015 held in September 25 27 2015 in Wuhan Hubei China The conference positions itself as an international forum for researchers all over the world to come together to share and discuss their findings and contributions in all aspects of sustainability including theory methodology and applications covering a wide spectrum of topics and issues The conference proceedings put together a total of 119 papers in sustainable development covering issues in environmental energy and economical aspects of the subjects Provided

Landscapes of the Song of Songs Elaine T. James, 2017-06-01 In this masterful new study of the ancient poetry of the Song of Songs Elaine T. James explores the Song's underlying interest in the natural world Engaging with the fields of geography landscape architecture and literature James critiques the tendency of scholars to reify a perceived dichotomy between nature and culture and instead argues that the poetic attention to landscape indicates an awareness of a viewer Nature is here a poetic device that informs James's close readings of agrarianism gardens cities social control and feminism and the gaze in the Song With this two-fold emphasis on landscape and lyric Landscape of the Song of Songs shows how the Song persistently envisions a world in which human lovers are embedded in the natural world complexly enfolded in relationships of fragility and care

Writing and Victorianism J.B. Bullen, 2014-06-06 Writing and Victorianism asks the fundamental question what is Victorianism and offers a number of answers taken from methods and approaches which have been developed over the last ten years This collection of essays written by both new and established scholars from Britain and the U.S.A. develops many of the themes of nineteenth century studies which have lately come to the fore touching upon issues such as drugs class power and gender Some essays reflect the interaction of word and image in the nineteenth century and the notion of the city as spectacle others look at Victorian science finding a connection between writing and the growth of psychology and psychiatry on the one hand and with the power of scientific materialism on the other As well as key figures such as Dickens Tennyson and Wilde a host of new names are introduced including working class writers attempting to define themselves and writers in the Periodical press who once anonymous exercised a great influence over Victorian politics taste and social ideals From these observations there emerges a need for self definition in Victorian writing History ancestry and the past all play their part in figuring the present in the nineteenth century and many of these studies foreground the problem of literary social and psychological identity
