Champoux,2010-09-07 Presents an introduction to the field of organizational behavior This title follows a practical approach that shows the power of organizational behavior theory for understanding one s behavior and the behavior of others in any organization Management Principles P. J. Smit,2007 Book CD To improve on an award winning book poses a major challenge to its authors The authors of this book took the challenge head on by conducting a major research study to determine what exactly the outcomes are that managers at different levels must deliver in contemporary organisations in South Africa and the rest of Africa The findings of this study which dealt with current and near future management issues as well as classical and contemporary thinking about management were used as the blueprint for the updating of this book After placing management in context the authors deal with the knowledge skills and dispositions required of managers to perform the management functions of planning organising leading and controlling in a volatile business world Examples of how the functions are applied in practice are cited throughout the book These examples refer mainly to South African organisations and situations that managers in South Africa and Africa have to deal with to create and sustain a competitive advantage for their organisations The book endeavours to break down the silo effect of seeing the management functions as separate activities This is done by continuously placing the management function at hand in a bigger context This enables learners of management to assess the implications of management decisions on different people processes systems and so on that make up the organisation

Experiencing Modern Management Lee A. Graf, Samuel C. Certo, 1994 Enhancing Leadership Development in Kenyan MBA Programs Benson Katulwa, 2016-05 The purpose of this study is to investigate the extent to which MBA graduates perceived their MBA education experience to have contributed towards the development of global leadership competencies in their lives The collected data related to what the respondents perceived to have observed vis vis what they would have considered adequate for the development of global leadership competencies Stratified sampling technique was used to select the respondents using disproportionate allocation of respondents within strata Data relating to the key research objectives were analyzed using nonparametric tests specifically the Chi square goodness of fit test and Wilcoxon signed ranks test
