Comparative Criticism: Volume 9, Cultural Perceptions and Literary Values E. S. Shaffer,1987-10-29 The ninth volume of this annual journal continues the consideration of the relations of European with non European literatures begun in volume 8 It brings the series of special bibliographies on the history of comparative literary studies in the UK up to 1965 and contains the annual bibliography of comparative literature covering 1984 In the Doorway of All Worlds Robin M Bower,2024-05-01 The thirteenth century poet Gonzalo de Berceo is the first named author of Old Spanish letters and the most prolific contributor to the emergence of the body of learned vernacular verse known as the mester de clerec a In the Doorway of All Worlds focuses on the four hagiographies Berceo produced as a unified body of poetic expression and world building Robin M Bower traces the poet s intricate juxtaposition of contraries to shed light on a poetic world that will innovate a deceptively simple poetic vernacular and elevate its capacity to express nuance power and mystery The book examines the entanglements that bind formal and lexical choices the inscription of performance sites and audiences and problematic source authority It argues that Berceo s elaboration of a poetic vernacular was wholly enmeshed in the immediate human experiential world and the diverse cultural religious linguistic and literary contexts that framed it The book also highlights how Berceo invented a literary vernacular that befits the spoken idiom not only for the crafting of learned fictions but for giving linguistic shape to the ineffable In the Doorway of All Worlds ultimately reveals how Berceo freed the meanings trapped in relics shrines and the impenetrable texts from which he translated the saints to circulate in a new time

Miscellany Presented to Eugène Vinaver by Pupils, Colleagues and Friends Frederick Whitehead,2013 The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Nota Bene Jan M. Ziolkowski,2007 Nota Bene explores a little known juxtaposition of verbal text and musical notation in the Middle Ages This particular intersection deserves attention from those interested in music the reception of classical Latin literature the history of education and the development of punctuation Between the late tenth century and the late twelfth century the musical notation known as neumes was provided in dozens of manuscripts for

among other texts a number of Horace's Odes as well as for sections of epics by Lucan Statius and Vergil These materials constitute a paradoxical corpus of classical poems in plainchant that complicates our views of both how students learned Latin and what was being sung in an era most often associated with Gregorian chant The book wrestles first with the literary historical puzzle of why certain passages and not others were neumed and later with the ethnomusicological riddles of how where when and by whom the passages were sung

Troilus and Criseyde Barry A.
