Oradoursurglane The Tragedy Hour By Hour:

Oradour-Sur-Glane Robert Hébras,1994 Massacre at Oradour-sur-Glane Vincent dePaul Lupiano,2024-03-05 The massacre at Oradour sur Glane on June 10 1944 is recognized yearly throughout France with the same profundity as the attacks on Pearl Harbor and the Twin Towers in the United States The Oradour Massacre is taught in school in France and the anniversary is commemorated every year Today Oradour is a destination for people interested in one of the most horrific events in French history Each year the devastated village attracts over 300 000 visitors worldwide On June 8 1944 15 000 men and 209 tanks and self propelled guns of the Das Reich 2 Panzer Division rolled out of Montauban in southern France and began an ordered 450 mile march that ended at Normandy more than two weeks later While in Montauban a battalion from Das Reich surrounded Oradour sur Glane massacred 642 men women and children and razed the village to the ground Das Reich became one of the most dreadful legends in the history of France and World War II This is the story of the Oradour massacre and its real cause how two SS officers a general and a major acquired one million dollars worth of gold ingots while encamped at nearby Montauban and how that led to the massacre in 1944 Oradour-The Final Verdict Douglas W.

Hawes,2007-04-11 Relying on multiple eye witness accounts and thorough research in French American and Resistance archives the author describes in Part I hour by hour the massacre on June 10 1944 by the Waffen SS Division Das Reich of 642 men women and children in the village of Oradour sur Glane and the destruction of the village Who ordered the massacre Why The book puts the tragedy in the context of the D Day Landing and the period that precedes it Part II is devoted to the conduct of the trial nearly nine years later Of the 21 accused only 7 were Germans The others all French Alsations had mostly been forcibly inducted into the SS None were officers Were the Alsations victims or murderers And why were there no officers in the courtroom In Another World Tom Pow,2012-05-21 In one of the great defining moments in human history more people now live in cities than in rural areas and the effects of this depopulation and the plummeting birthrate are being felt keenly throughout Europe which has the fastest declining population in the world Tom Pow sets out to explore what this means in some of the most rapidly vanishing areas of Europe From Spain to Russia he uses the tools of his trade travelogue essay story and poem to make connections not only with what he encounters in numerous dying villages but to reflect on his own experiences of memory identity and loss In Another World is an open book not an argument but an invitation to remember to reflect and to engage with one of the most significant social issues affecting Europe today

Even Darkness Sings Thomas H Cook,2018-10-02 Thomas Cook has always been drawn to dark places for the powerful emotions they evoke and for what we can learn from them These lessons are often unexpected and sometimes profoundly intimate but they are never straightforward With his wife and daughter Cook travels across the globe in search of darkness from Lourdes to Ghana from San Francisco to Verdun from the monumental mechanized horror of Auschwitz to the intimate personal grief of a shrine to dead infants in Kamukura Japan Along the way he reflects on what these sites may teach us not only about human history but about our own personal histories During the course of a lifetime of traveling to some of earth s most tragic locals from the leper colony on Molokai to ground zero at Hiroshima he finds not only darkness but a light that can illuminate the darkness within each of us Written in vivid prose this is at once a personal memoir of exploration both external and internal and a strangely heartening look at the radiance and optimism that may be found at the very heart of darkness

She Landed By Moonlight Carole Seymour-Jones,2013-07-04 On the night of the 22 September 1943 Pearl Witherington a twenty nine year old British secretary and agent of the Special Operations Executive SOE was parachuted from a Halifax bomber into Occupied France Like Sebastian Faulks heroine Charlotte Gray Pearl had a dual mission to fight for her beloved broken France and to find her lost love Pearl s lover was a Parisian parfumer turned soldier Henri Cornioley who had been taken prisoner while serving in the French Logistics Corps and subsequently escaped from his German POW camp Agent Pearl Witherington s wartime record is unique and heroic As the only woman agent in the history of SOEs in France to have run a network she became a fearless and legendary guerrilla leader organising arming and training 3 800 Resistance fighters Probably the greatest female organiser of armed maquisards in France the woman whom her young troops called Ma M re Pearl lit the fires of Resistance in Central France so that Churchill s famous order to set Europe ablaze which had brought SOE into being finally came to pass Pearl s story takes us from her harsh impoverished childhood in Paris to the lonely forests and farmhouses of the Loir et Cher where she would become a true warrior queen Shortly before Pearl s death in 2008 the Queen presented her with a CBE in Paris While male agents and Special Force Jedburghs received the DSO or Military Cross an ungrateful country had forgotten Pearl She had been offered a civilian decoration in 1945 which she refused saying There was nothing civil about what I did But what pleased her most was to receive her Parachute Wings for which she had waited over 60 years Two RAF officers travelled to her old people s home and she was finally able to pin the coveted wings on her lapel Pearl died in February 2008 aged 93

Tragic Shores: A Memoir of Dark Travel Thomas Cook,2017-04-06 I have come to thank dark places for the light they bring to life Thomas Cook has always been drawn to dark places for the powerful emotions they evoke and for what we can learn from them These lessons are often unexpected and sometimes profoundly intimate but they are never straightforward With his wife and daughter Cook travels across the globe in search of darkness from Lourdes to Ghana from San Francisco to Verdun from the monumental mechanised horror of Auschwitz to the intimate personal grief of a shrine to dead infants in Kamukura Japan Along the way he reflects on what these sites may teach us not only about human history but about our own personal histories During the course of a lifetime of traveling to some of earth s most tragic shores from the leper colony on Molokai to ground zero at Hiroshima he finds not darkness alone but a light that can illuminate the darkness within each of us Written in vivid prose this is at once a personal memoir of exploration both external and internal and a strangely heartening look at the radiance that may be found at the very heart of darkness A fascinating troubling memoir from a fine writer Mick Herron

American Nightingale Bob

Welch,2008-06-30 The heart wrenching and inspirational WWII story of the first American nurse to die at the Normandy landings the true account of a woman whose courage and compassion led to what a national radio show host in 1945 called one of the most moving stories to come out of the war a story of an army nurse that surpassed anything Hollywood has ever dreamed of She was a Jewish girl growing up in World War I torn Poland At age seven she and her family immigrated to America with dreams of a brighter future But Frances Slinger could not lay her past to rest and she vowed to help make the world a better place by joining the military and becoming a nurse Frances one of the 350 000 American women in uniform during World War II was among the first nurses to arrive at Normandy beach in June 1944 She and the other nurses of the 45th Field Hospital would soon experience the hardships of combat from a storm whipped tent amid the anguish of wounded men and the thud of artillery shells Months later a letter that Frances wrote to the Stars and Stripes newspaper won her heartfelt praise from war weary GIs touched by her tribute to them But she never got to read the scores of soldiers letters that poured in She was killed by German troops the very next day American Nightingale is the unforgettable first ever full length account of the woman whose brave life stands as a testament to the American spirit Bitter Ashes John

Wilson,2010-01-01 World War Two was the greatest conflict in human history It gave birth to the Atomic Age the Cold War and the economic boom of the 1950s and 60s and planted the seeds of today s Middle East crises But it is not distant history Most Canadians have relatives who were part of this world wide tragedy Bitter Ashes puts these events in context for them This book in the illustrated historical series Stories of Canada is a companion to Desperate Glory The Story of WWI A clear and concise text leads the reader through the major military and political events and issues of the war Sidebars add detail and a personal element Every page is illustrated with either photographs or maps Teaching Global History Alan J.

Singer,2019-10-28 This updated edition of Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why This essential text explains how to organize curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes as well as student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters feature lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps This new edition includes connections to the C3 framework updates throughout to account for the many shifts in global politics and a new chapter connecting past to present through current events and historical studies in ways that engage students and propel civic activism Offering an alternative to pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate on what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it Annihilation Thomas Zeiler,2011 From 1937 to 1945 the world witnessed a succession of savage military policies innovations and actions on the field in the water and in the skies that resulted in the butchery of over fifty million people The military history of the Second World War involves heroism and evil effective and hopeless strategies bold and pointless operations calculation and luck politics and diplomacy and production and attrition This study incorporates recent scholarship on the military history of the Second World War to examine both chronologically and in a comprehensive geographic way the most destructive event in recorded human history Annihilation argues that World War II evolved into a war of annihilation a total war that engulfed militaries and civilians alike and spared no country either destruction or blame for the carnage The book questions the adopted intention of the good war thesis by wielding the strategy of annihilation on all sides as an architectural framework Readers will find global coverage linking together all theaters of the conflict in a narrative that advances from the beginning to end of the war This is the first study of the World War II that allows instructors to assign chapters of the book according to time periods or by place
