Antichrist R.B. Batson, 2023-10-03 Travis Marx was just like any other teenager He was experiencing angst caused by the fundamentalists in the community where he lived that was until one evening when a visiting alien promised him telepathy in exchange for what could be his doom or his deliverance In conflict with the values of his family he took an adult adventure across the nation and across religions He pursued Islam the New Age and Buddhism before the select Christians experiencing clairvoyance found themselves at cross purposes with him and determined he could be none other than the Antichrist Would he be delivered from them and all the heartache they had caused him or would he become yet another of their victims

Performance and the Middle English Romance Linda Marie Zaerr, 2012 An examination of if and how medieval romance was performed uniquely uniting the perspective of a scholar and practitioner Although English medieval minstrels performed gestes a genre closely related to romance often playing the harp or the fiddle the question of if and how Middle English romance was performed has been hotly debated Here the performance tradition is explored by combining textual historical and musicological scholarship with practical experience from a noted musician Using previously unrecognised evidence the author reconstructs a realistic model of minstrel performance showing how a simple melody can interact with the text and vice versa She argues that elements in Middle English romance which may seem simplistic or repetitive may in fact be incomplete as missing an integral musical dimension metrical irregularities for example may be relics of sophisticated rhythmic variation that make sense only with music Overall the study offers both a more accurate comprehension of minstrel performance and a deeper appreciation of the romances themselves Linda Marie Zaerr is Professor of Medieval Studies at Boise State University
