Radical Peoples Theatre:

Radical People's Theatre Eugène Van Erven, 1988 Radical People's Theatre Eugène Van Erven, 1988 Staging Resistance Jeanne Marie Colleran, Jenny S. Spencer, 1998 Fresh perspectives on political theater and its essential contribution to contemporary culture Focused studies of individual plays complement broad based discussions of the place of theater in a radically democratic society This consistently challenging collection describes the art of change confronting the actual processes of change 17 photos Community Theatre Eugene van Erven, 2002-09-11 Community theatre is an important device for communities to collectively share stories to participate in political dialogue and to break down the increasing exclusion of marginalised groups of citizens It is practised all over the world by growing numbers of people Published at the same time as a video of the same name this is a unique record of these theatre groups in action Based on van Erven's own travels and experiences working with community theatre groups in six very different countries this is the first study of their work and the methodological traditions which have developed around the world Transnational Chinese Theatres Rossella Ferrari, 2020-02-17 This is the first systematic study of networks of performance collaboration in the contemporary Chinese speaking world and of their interactions with the artistic communities of the wider East Asian region It investigates the aesthetics and politics of collaboration to propose a new transnational model for the analysis of Sinophone theatre cultures and to foreground the mobility and relationality of intercultural performance in East Asia The research draws on extensive fieldwork interviews with practitioners and direct observation of performances rehearsals and festivals in Asia and Europe It offers provocative close readings and discourse analysis of an extensive corpus of hitherto untapped sources including unreleased video materials and unpublished scripts production notes and archival documentation Asian City Crossings Rossella Ferrari, Ashley Thorpe, 2021-05-17 Asian City Crossings is the first volume to examine the relationship between the city and performance from an Asian perspective This collection introduces city as method as a new conceptual framework for the investigation of practices of city based performing arts collaboration and city to city performance networks across East and Southeast Asia and beyond The shared and yet divergent histories of the global cities of Hong Kong and Singapore as postcolonial multiethnic multicultural and multilingual sites are taken as points of departure to demonstrate how city as method facilitates a comparative analytical space that foregrounds in betweenness and fluid positionalities It situates inter Asian relationality and inter city referencing as centrally significant dynamics in the exploration of the material and ideological conditions of contemporary performance and performance exchange in Asia This study captures creative dialogue that travels city based pathways along the Hong Kong Singapore route as well as between Hong Kong and Singapore and other cities through scholarly analyses and practitioner reflections drawn from the fields of theatre performance and music This book combines essays by scholars of Asian studies theatre studies ethnomusicology and human geography with reflective accounts by Hong Kong and Singapore based performing arts practitioners to highlight the diversity vibrancy and complexity of creative projects that destabilise notions of identity belonging and nationhood through strategies of collaborative conviviality and transnational mobility across multi sited networks of cities in Asia In doing so this volume fills a considerable gap in global scholarly discourse on performance and the city and on the production and circulation of the performing arts in Asia The Continuum Companion to Twentieth Century Theatre Colin Chambers,2006-05-14 International in scope this book is designed to be the pre eminent reference work on the English speaking theatre in the twentieth century Arranged alphabetically it consists of some 2500 entries written by 280 contributors from 20 countries which include not only top level experts but uniquely leading professionals from the world of theatre A fascinating resource for anyone interested in theatre it includes Overviews of major concepts topics and issues Surveys of theatre institutions countries and genres Biographical entries on key performers playwrights directors designers choreographers and composers Articles by leading professionals on crafts skills and disciplines including acting design directing lighting sound and voice Theatre and Protest Lara Shalson,2017-08-25 How does protest engage with theatre What does theatre have to gain from protest Theatre and protest are often closely interlinked in the contemporary cultural and political landscape and the line between protest and performance is often difficult to draw Yet this relationship is also beset with doubts about theatre s capacity to intervene in the social world This fresh and insightful text thinks through the intersections and tensions between theatre and protest Exploring the cross fertilization of international theatre and protest across the 12th and 21st centuries Lara Shalson illuminates how and why these two are mutually influencing and enriching forms Theatres of Independence Aparna Bhargava Dharwadker,2009-11 Theatres of Independence is the first comprehensive study of drama theatre and urban performance in post independence India Combining theatre history with theoretical analysis and literary interpretation Aparna Dharwadker examines the unprecedented conditions for writing and performance that the experience of new nationhood created in a dozen major Indian languages and offers detailed discussions of the major plays playwrights directors dramatic genres and theories of drama that have made the contemporary Indian stage a vital part of postcolonial and world theatre The first part of Dharwadker s study deals with the new dramatic canon that emerged after 1950 and the variety of ways in which plays are written produced translated circulated and received in a multi lingual national culture The second part traces the formation of significant postcolonial dramatic genres from their origins in myth history folk narrative sociopolitical experience and the intertextual connections between Indian European British and American drama The book s ten appendixes collect extensive documentation of the work of leading playwrights and directors as well as a record of the contemporary multilingual performance histories of major Indian Western and non Western plays from all periods and genres Treating drama and theatre as strategically interrelated activities the study makes post independence Indian theatre visible as a multifaceted critical subject to scholars of modern drama comparative theatre theatre history and the new national and postcolonial literatures The Death of the Playwright? Adrian Page, 1992-02-24 The nine essays in this volume make significant contributions to the development of contemporary literary theory and demonstrate how a range of new approaches can be applied to modern British drama In addressing the questions of power subjectivity sexuality psychoanalysis and the nature of the dramatic text the contributors reveal how much modern drama can be re read to discover its radically subversive characteristics Their conclusions challenge accepted interpretations and suggest major revisions of the processes of understanding and staging drama

Crisis, Representation and Resilience Clare Wallace, Clara Escoda, Enric Monforte, José Ramón Prado-Pérez, 2022-05-19 A collection of incisive investigations into the ways that 21st century British theatre works with and through crisis It pays particular attention to the way in which writers and practitioners consider the ethical and social challenges of crisis Anchored in an interdisciplinary approach that draws from sociology cultural theory feminism performance and philosophy the book brings multi faceted ideas into dialogue with the diverse aesthetics practices and themes of a range of theatrical work produced in Britain since 2005 Topics discussed include Ageing Austerity Gender Migrancy Multiculturalism Aesthetics Companies discussed include Theatre Uncut Lost Dog Camden People s People Lung Brighton People s Theatre Phosphoros Theatre Playwrights discussed include Jez Butterworth Caryl Churchill Tim Crouch Vivienne Franzmann James Graham debbie tucker green Ella Hickson Charlene James Lucy Kirkwood Simon Longman Cordelia Lynn Simon Stephens Jack Thorne Chris Thorpe Gloria Williams Building on recent publications in the area and engaging in dialogue with them Crisis Representation and Resilience considers how crisis is being re thought and re orientated through theatrical performance and the ways theatre invites us to respond to the many challenges of the contemporary times

'Other' Spanish Theatres Maria M. Delgado, 2003-11-08 Other Spanish Theatres challenges established opinions on modern Iberian theatre through a consideration of the roles of contrasting figures and companies who have impacted upon both the practice and the perception of Spanish and European stages In this broad and detailed study Delgado selects six subjects which map out alternative readings of a nation s theatrical innovation through the last century These six subjects include Margarita Xirgu Enrique Rambal Mar a Casarest and Nuria Espert

The Playful Revolution Eugène Van Erven, 1992 The Playful Revolution is an entertaining journal exemplary Illusions The Playful Revolution breaks new ground by documenting developmental theatre in Asia in its current socio political and economic ethos New Theatre Quarterly T his book is the account of a personal journey through Asia a written documentary of a quest to find political theatre that really works and that possesses a vitality and passion that the contemporary Western theatre seems to have lost from the book In this groundbreaking book van Erven reports on the liberation theatre movements throughout Asia which include a diverse collection of creative artists whose politics range from liberal to revolutionary but who all share a common goal of using grass roots theatre as an agent of liberation
