Transcending Reason Matthew Burch, Irene McMullin, 2020-08-17 The received view of Martin Heidegger's work is that he leaves little room for reason in the practice of philosophy or the conduct of life Citing his much scorned remark that reason is the stiff necked adversary of thought critics argue that Heidegger's philosophy effectively severs the tie between reason and normativity leaving anyone who adheres to his position without recourse to justifying reasons for their beliefs and actions Transcending Reason is a collection of essays by leading Heidegger scholars that challenges this view by exploring new ways to understand Heidegger's approach to the relationship between reason normativity and the philosophical methodology that gives us access to these issues The volume points to Heidegger's novel approach to reason understood in terms of what he calls Dasein's transcendence the ability to occupy the world as a space of normatively structured meanings in which we navigate our striving to be By examining the strengths and weaknesses of this new and innovative take on Heidegger's philosophy this collection considers the possibility that he does not sever but rather reconceives the relation between reason and normativity

The Challenge of Evil William Greenway, 2016-12-02 Belief in God in the face of suffering is one of the most intractable problems of Christian theology Many respond to the spiritual challenge of evil by ignoring it blaming God or insisting on the inherent meaninglessness of life In this book William Greenway contends that we don't have to deny our moral selves by either ignoring evil or abandoning our moral sensibilities toward it We can open our eyes fully to suffering and evil and our own complicity in them We can do so because it is only in this full acceptance of the world's guilt and our own that we make ourselves fully open to agape to being seized by love of others and God Inspired by the Jewish philosopher Emmanuel Levinas and the Christian novelist Fyodor Dostoyevsky The Challenge of Evil lovingly explains how we can look squarely at the overwhelming suffering in the world and still by grace have faith in a good and loving God

Burning Man Linda Noveroske-Tritten, 2024-02-06 This book centers on a philosophical analysis of creative acts at the Burning Man Festival and their roles in wider social change With particular focus on the Ten Principles of Burning Man Linda Noveroske Tritten posits a re interpretation of common notions of self and other as they apply to identity difference and the ways that these personal impulses ripple outward from changing individuals into changing societies Such radical re imagination of ideology can be most powerful when it occurs in spaces of otherness of heterotopia This study casts Burning Man as a heterotopia not only to destabilize what we think we know about visual art performance and creative encounters but also bring these acts into an attitude of immediacy that facilitates previously unimagined behavior and opens out artistic drive into the unknown This book would be of value for scholars and practitioners in Performance Studies Theatre and Dance Art History Psychology Phenomenology Humanities Architecture and Urban Studies     Teacher Burnout from a Complex Systems Perspective Carol Griffiths, 2025-04-28 This edited book investigates the factors contributing to teacher burnout and its potential consequences Topics include the relationship of burnout to cultural identity modality and job satisfaction and chapters discuss various settings such as the English as a Medium of Instruction EMI classroom secondary and primary schools The book aims to provide possible solutions and ways forward for tackling the issue of burnout both at a personal and systemic level It will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of teacher education wellbeing school and schooling as well as practising teachers and school leadership
