Discourses of Antiracism in France Catherine Lloyd, 2018-10-26 First published in 1998 this book is an examination of antiracist discourses and practices in France It sets out to trace the development of post war French antiracism through the life of antiracist organizations setting this within a broader historical political and social context It breaks new ground in that it analyses antiracism as a body of ideas in its own right rather than as a mirror image of racism The author uses previously unpublished archival material from French organizations combined with observations from current events She argues that antiracist discourses and practices are structured around four main themes discrimination representation solidarity and hegemony While perceptions of discrimination have evolved into complex understandings of social exclusion the representational functions of antiracist groups were challenged by immigrant workers movements themselves Solidarity remained central to antiracist practices in different political contexts Underpinning these features lies a hegemonic social project through which antiracists have sought to promote a common sense through political and educational campaigns The author concludes that French antiracism although constantly changing and refocusing is now a pluralist transversal hegemonic movement and an important component of civil society Transnational Ties Michael Peter Smith, John Eade, 2017-09-08 Cities are key sites of the transnational ties that increasingly connect people places and projects across the globe They provide opportunities and constraints within which transnational actors and networks operate and nodes linking wider social formations traverse national borders This book brings together a series of richly textured ethnographic studies that suggest new ways to situate and historicize transnationalism identify new pathways to transnational urbanism and map the contours of translocal interregional and diasporic connections not previously studied The transnational ties treated in this book truly span the globe giving concrete meaning to the phrase globalization from below How have the contributors to this book conceptualized the wider context informing the conduct of their ethnographically grounded multi sited research on the relationship between cities migration and transnationalism Several interrelated contextual dimensions have been singled out as affecting the opportunities and constraints experienced by transnational migrant subjects Socio spatially in several of these chapters the political economic context now called neoliberal globalization is shown to be a key driving force creating conditions that necessitate facilitate or impede migration foster trans local economic ties and create new inter regional interdependencies e g new South South and East East transnational ties The changing historical context of both migrating groups and the cities and regions they move across are central to the study of the interplay of urban change and migrant transnationalism The historical particularities of migrant recruitment migration histories migratory narratives and changing gender and class relations all affect the character and geography of transnational migration with an impact on the social structures of community formation This is a pioneering effort in the Comparative Urban and Community Research series

Transforming Politics S. Roseneil, 2016-07-27 This volume examines the transformation of politics and social movements at various levels Starting with a transformation of identity within social movements it goes on to discuss changes in the scale of social movement mobilisation The impact of social movements on the state is also considered with a particular focus upon the ways in which the state is able to incorporate apparently radical political agendas Finally the book examines those intellectual and theoretical debates stimulated by recent political transformations Europe and Civil Society Carlo Ruzza,2004-07-16 Europe and Civil Society provides an in depth examination of how public interest groups and social movements seek to influence the European policy making process The book is based on a comparison of the role of networks of activists and their allies broadly defined as Movement Advocacy Coalitions in influencing decision making at the European Union level in three specific areas of policy making environmentalism anti racism and ethno nationalist regionalism It draws on systematic documentary analysis and an extensive series of interviews with activists and institutional actors to examine the role of public interest organizations in these three areas This focus reflects topical societal concerns and facilitates new insights into the study of European policy making political sociology and social movement research Reshaping the University Rauna Kuokkanen,2011-11-01 In the past few decades the narrow intellectual foundations of the university have come under serious scrutiny Previously marginalized groups have called for improved access to the institution and full inclusion in the curriculum Reshaping the University is a timely thorough and original interrogation of academic practices It moves beyond current analyses of cultural conflicts and discrimination in academic institutions to provide an indigenous postcolonial critique of the modern university Rauna Kuokkanen argues that attempts by universities to be inclusive are unsuccessful because they do not embrace indigenous worldviews Programs established to act as bridges between mainstream and indigenous cultures ignore their ontological and epistemic differences and while offering support and assistance place the responsibility of adapting wholly on the student Indigenous students and staff are expected to leave behind their cultural perspectives and epistemes in order to adopt Western values Reshaping the University advocates a radical shift in the approach to cultural conflicts within the academy and proposes a new logic grounded in principles central to indigenous philosophies Constructions of Race, Place, and Nation Peter Jackson,Jan Penrose,1994 Thinking Black Rob Waters,2018-11-06 It was a common charge among black radicals in the 1960s that Britons needed to start thinking black As state and society consolidated around a revived politics of whiteness thinking black they felt was necessary for all who sought to build a liberated future out of Britain s imperial past In Thinking Black Rob Waters reveals black radical Britain s wide cultural political formation tracing it across new institutions of black civil society and connecting it to decolonization and black liberation across the Atlantic world He shows how from the mid 1960s to the mid 1980s black radicalism defined what it meant to be black and what it meant to be radical in Britain From Criminalizing to Decriminalizing Marijuana Nikolay Anguelov,2018-10-15 This book tracks the political history and specific political actions associated with the diffusion of state level marijuana decriminalization It provides an integrated chronology of policy diffusion to show how social and cultural changes have impacted the shift from anti to pro marijuana political platforms The main contributions are an interdisciplinary approach to analyzing policy learning and evolution an overview of the political history of marijuana criminalization a clear synthesis of the medical literature on cannabis effects and a supply and demand analysis of legal and illegal marijuana markets in America For scholars of criminal justice law political science policy studies sociology and addiction it provides an amalgam of the diverse and divergent extant research on marijuana Black British Feminism Heidi Safia Mirza, 1997 A collection of classic texts and new black feminist scholarship that traces the crucial developments and debates of the last twenty years It is the first volume entirely dedicated to the writings of black women in a British context The SAGE Handbook of Human Geography, 2v Roger Lee, Noel Castree, Rob Kitchin, Vicky Lawson, Anssi Paasi, Chris Philo, Sarah Radcliffe, Susan M.
