(Translated from the German by Richard and Clara Winston.) [With a Portrait.] Hannah Arendt,Rahel Antonie Friederike VARNHAGEN VON ENSE,Richard Winston,1958 Towards Emancipation Carol Diethe,1998 Focusing on feminism in Germany Towards Emancipation examines some of the most influential women writers of the nineteenth century from the late Romantic writers such as Bettina von Arnim and Johanna Schopenhauer to writers who were active in the 1848 Revolution such as Malwida von Meysenbug and Johanna Kinkel The heart of the book is devoted to the leading proponents of emancipation Hedwig Dohm Helene Bohlau and the prolific Louise Otto Peters yet it also includes mainstream writers whose attitudes towards the movement range from lukewarm the enormously popular Marie von Ebner Eschenbach and Gabriele Reuter to downright hostile Lou Andreas Salome and Franziska zu Reventlow Gender, Canon and Literary History Ruth Whittle, 2013-08-28 It has been shown that the total number of women who published in German in the 18th and 19th centuries was approximately 3 500 but even by 1918 only a few of them were known The reason for this lies in the selection processes to which the authors have been subjected and it is this selection process that is the focus of the research here presented The selection criteria have not simply been gender based but have had much to do with the urgent quest for establishing a German Nation State in 1848 and beyond Prutz Gottschall Kreyig and others found it necessary to use literary historiography which had been established by 1835 in order to construct an ideal of Germanness at a time when a political unity remained absent and they wove women writers into this plot After unification in 1872 this kind of weaving seemed to have become less pressing and other discourses came to the fore especially those revolving round femininity vs masculinity and races The study of the processes at work here will enhance current debates about the literary canon by tracing its evolution and identifying the factors which came to determine the visibility or obscurity of particular authors and texts The focus will be on a number of case studies but instead of isolating questions of gender Gender Canon and Literary History will discuss the broader cultural context The Old-fashioned Woman Elsie Worthington Clews Parsons, 1913 The Little Review Margaret C.
