Rainbow Darkneb An Anthology Of African American Poetry Miami University Preb Poetry Series:

Rainbow Darkness Keith Tuma, 2005 Poetry African American Studies RAINBOW DARKNESS gathers poems by a range of established and newer African American poets including Jeff Allen Wanda Coleman C S Giscombe Terrance Hayes Kim Hunter Honoree Jeffers Nathaniel Mackey Harryette Mullen Mendi Lewis Obadike Reginald Shepherd Timothy Siebles Evie Shockley Lorenzo Thomas Natasha Trethewey Anthony Walton Crystal Williams and Tyrone Williams and essays by Herman Beavers Aldon Nielsen Kathy Lou Schultz Evie Shockley and Lorenzo Thomas The collection grew from poems and talks presented at the Marjorie Cook Conference on Diversity in African American Poetry held at Miami University in September 2003 The anthology hopes to extend the conversations that took place at the conference to another larger audience dark // thing Ashley M. Jones, 2019-02-12 dark thing is a multifaceted work that explores the darkness otherness by which the world sees Black people Ashley M Jones stares directly into the face of the racism that allows people to be seen as dark things as objects that can be killed enslaved oppressed devalued This work full as it is of slashes of all kinds ultimately separates darkness from thingness affirming and celebrating humanity Dark Summer Molly Bendall, 1999 The poems in Molly Bendall's powerful new collection Dark Summer cast a truly haunting light Beneath the original and quirky luxuriance of her language rests an unsettling recognition of the instability of modern experience Held in worlds replete with adornment and riddled by the inscriptions of passion her figures constantly betray the erotic dimensions echoing in their voices and actions From stages that seem at once familiar and inexplicable her speakers address us with an unabashed even reckless bemusement yet some deep sense of the tragic seems to flow through them all Hues of Darkness, Hues of Light Patrice M. Wilson, 2013-08-28 Hues of Darkness Hues of Light contains the pieces of a soul as she tries to make sense of the world and her life in it Born Catholic she might have found those answers earlier in her religion but circumstances dictated that she emphasize her education she became a poet eventually a PhD in English In reality she seeks goodness and kindness in places where there may not be much and puzzling through her experiences has led her to making poems that reflect them Sometimes she digs deep into herself others she observes what is around her Her adventures may be small but they become important in her writings Dear Darkness Kevin Young, 2008 Las Vegas Nashville despair the Midwest Bar B Q Heaven and his family's Louisiana home these are the American places that Kevin Young visits in his powerful heartfelt sixth book of poetry Begun as a reflection on family and memory Dear Darkness became a book of elegies after the sudden death of the poet's father a violent event that silenced Young with grief until he turned to rhapsodizing about the food that has sustained him and his Louisiana family for decades Flavorful yet filled with sadness these stunningly original odes to gumbo hot sauce crawfish and even homemade wine travel adeptly between slow cooked tradition and a new direction between everyday living and transcendent sorrow As in his prizewinning Jelly Roll Young praises and grieves in one breath paying homage to his significant clan to aunties and double cousins and a great grandfather's grave in a segregated cemetery even as he mourns

His blues expand to include a series of poems contemplating the deaths of Johnny Cash country rocker Gram Parsons and a host of family members lost in the past few years Burnished by loss and a hard won humor he delivers poems that speak to our cultural griefs even as he buries his own Sadder than a wedding dress in a thrift store these are poems which grow out of hunger and pain but find a way to satisfy both Young counts his losses and our blessings knowing inside anything can sing

We Find Each Other in the Darkness Richard Boada,2020 The poems in We Find Each Other in the Darkness emphasize an unraveling of Jackson MS the rural Mississippi Delta and the ecologically fragile Gulf Coast through surreal and magically real points of view Reminiscent of Walter Benjamin s One Way Street these poems create dialectics of experiences about disparate peoples in far away and unfamiliar locations however unified by the themes of family geography social justice and environmental crises

For Those That Find Themselves in Darkness Ayesha Ewing,2020-03-19 For Those That Find Themselves in Darkness is a poetry collection that explores the complexities of being black and woman Three divinity completion In three sections this collection navigates the journey of becoming a complete divine woman in the midst of darkness Genesis Foundation Wilderness Darkness Promised Land Healing I tried to run from darkness the bruises blood and broken bones are evidence I tried to ignore my darkness but unresolved trauma is messy and selfish with inept timing I sat with my darkness asked if it preferred coffee or tea for the morning is always coming I no longer fear my darkness because I was never meant for it s consumption
