The Invention of God in Indigenous Societies James Cox, 2014-09-19 Indigenous societies around the world have been historically disparaged by European explorers colonial officials and Christian missionaries Nowhere was this more evident than in early descriptions of indigenous religions as savage primitive superstitious and fetishistic Liberal intellectuals both indigenous and colonial reacted to this by claiming that before indigenous peoples ever encountered Europeans they all believed in a Supreme Being The Invention of God in Indigenous Societies argues that by alleging that God can be located at the core of pre Christian cultures this claim effectively invents a tradition which only makes sense theologically if God has never left himself without a witness Examining a range of indigenous religions from North America Africa and Australasia the Shona of Zimbabwe the Rainbow Spirit Theology in Australia the Yupiit of Alaska and the M ori of New Zealand the book argues that the interests of indigenous societies are best served by carefully describing their religious beliefs and practices using historical and phenomenological methods just as would be done in the study of any world religion

Environmental Humanities and Theologies Rod Giblett, 2018-06-13 Many ways of thinking about and living with the environment have their roots in the Bible and the Christian cultural tradition Environmental Humanities and Theologies shows that some of these ways are problematic It also provides alternative ways that value both materiality and spirituality Beginning with an environmentally friendly reading of the biblical story of creation Environmental Humanities and Theologies goes on to discuss in succeeding chapters the environmental theology of wetlands dragons and watery monsters including crocodiles and alligators in the Bible and literature It then gives a critical reading of the environmental theology of the biblical book of Psalms Theological concepts are found in the works of English writers of detective and devotional stories and novels American nature writers and European Jewish writers as succeeding chapters show Environmental Humanities and Theologies concludes with an appreciation for Australian Aboriginal spirituality in the swamp serpent It argues for the sacrality of marsh monsters and swamp serpents as figures of reverence and respect for living bio and psycho symbiotic livelihoods in bioregions of the living earth in the Symbiocene This is the hoped for age superseding the Anthropocene Environmental Humanities and Theologies is aimed at those who have little or no knowledge of how theology underlies much thinking and writing about the environment and who are looking for ways of thinking about being and living with the earth that respect and value both spirituality and materiality It is a new text nurturing sacrality for the Symbiocene

Earth Story in Wisdom Traditions Norman C. Habel, Shirley Wurst, 2001-01-01 In this volume scholars from around the world read the story of the Earth in major Wisdom Traditions using the ecojustice principles outlined in Volume 1 Readings from the Perspective of Earth These readings uncover a range of fresh perspectives about Earth in seeking to discover where the voices of Earth are suppressed or heard in the Wisdom texts Some texts reveal an ecokinship between Earth and Wisdom Texts from Job challenge a cosmic model that gives priority to heaven over Earth Still others challenge the mandate to dominate in Genesis 1:28 In many texts Wisdom provides a vehicle for a new kinship with Earth Contributors include Jenny Wightman Hendrik Viviers Carole Fontaine Izak Spangenberg Alice Sinnott Willie van Heerden Katherine Dell Dale Patrick Marie Turner and Laura Hobgood Oster

Earth Story in Genesis Norman C. Habel, Shirley

Wurst,2000-08-01 A series of articles by scholars from around the world reading the story of Earth in Genesis in the light of the ecojustice principles enunciated in Volume One Readings from the Perspective of Earth These readings uncover how Earth may be valued or de valued given a voice or denied a voice dominated or served depending on the orientation of the text In Genesis 1 for example the intrinsic worth of Earth is highlighted in the revealing of Earth s presence but negated when humans are given the right to subdue it In Genesis 9 the text begins with the Earth community terrified by and alienated from humans but ends with all the Earth Community and Earth itself bound together equally in a covenant

Earth Story in the Psalms and the Prophets Norman C. Habel,2001-11-01 In this volume scholars from around the world read the story of Earth in key texts from the Psalms and the Prophets Their readings challenge popular understandings of the Chaokampf myth the theophany of Psalm 29 and the New Earth in Isaiah 65 Re readings of Ezekiel expose the cruelty of divine justice extended to the natural world Several articles by indigenous writers sensitive to the voice of Earth bring new insights to the potential meaning of texts like Psalm 104 Contributors include Lloyd Geering Russell Nelson William Urbrock Laurie Braaten Keith Carley Anne Gardner John Olley Gunther Wittenberg Kalinda Stevenson Peter Trudinger Arthur Walker Jones Norman Charles Howard Wallace Geraldine Avent Madipoane Masenya and Abotchie Ntrel Rainbow Songs 1+2 - from the Perspective of Earth Norman C. Habel,2000-08-01 This volume introduces the hermeneutical approach and ecojustice principles developed by the Earth Bible project team Following this approach biblical scholars illustrate how a reading of the biblical text from the perspective of Earth yields fresh insights Though the text may seem anthropocentric these studies are able to retrieve evidence of the living voice and intrinsic value of Earth It is an approach that can be harmonized with other recognized critical approaches to the Bible from historical criticism to ecofeminist criticism The texts chosen are from many parts of the Bible Psalms Prophets Gospels Romans Revelation and the intertestamental literature Tobit and Wisdom of Solomon Following Jesus in Invaded Space Chris Budden,2011-07-27 Christianity is never just about beliefs but habits and practices for better or worse Theology always reflects the social location of the theologian including her privileges and prejudices all the time working with a particular often undisclosed notion of what is normal Therefore theology is never neutral it defends particular constructions of reality and it promotes certain interests Following Jesus in Invaded Space asks what and whose interests theology protects when it is part of a community that invaded the land of indigenous peoples Developing a theological method and position that self consciously acknowledges the church's role in occupying Aboriginal land in Australia it dares to speak of God church and justice in the context of past history and continuing dispossession Hence a Second People's theology emerges through constant and careful attention to experiences of invasion and dislocation brought into dialogue with the theological landscape or tradition of the church Being a descendant of some of the first English invaders in Australia and a witness to the continuing inadequate recognition of the Church's past mistakes in this country theologian Chris Budden felt a strong need to write this book Leaving the past behind does not mean ignoring it and an acknowledgement of mistakes is a prerequisite to any fruitful discourse between invaders and invaded In our endeavours to help the marginalised and the indigenous Budden warns us against the arrogance of pitying them as poor superstitious things who can only be helped by our own superior concept of divine grace As Budden puts it We need to keep listening for voices that remind us that our normal is not necessarily everybody's normal His book encourages us to recognise and appreciate the diverse perspectives of minority theologians It is not just about giving a voice to these people It is about being able to hear their own voice to understand it and then reinterpret our own tradition according to it

Discernment Encyclopedia for God's Spiritual Creation Paul Cox,Barbara Parker,2017-09-20 This is perhaps one of the most unusual books in the world Taking over twenty six years to develop it documents the spiritual realities of the heavenly places as mentioned in the Bible In a stunning departure from traditional and commonly accepted theological views the authors acknowledge what the Word of God so clearly articulates just as the physical world contains a wide variety of beings and other created things so does the spiritual world Within the pages of this book you will find over 100 entries that clearly identify multiple aspects of the Holy Trinity as well as diverse and unique spiritual beings entities and places This resource will help you learn how to discern each entry by observing how others are able to sense each spiritual reality with the five physical senses it is a tool that will train you to know what the Father is doing in the heavenly places so you can model Jesus life on earth Redeeming Creation Fred H. Van Dyke,David C. Mahan,Joseph K. Sheldon,Raymond H. Brand,1996-03-06

Biologists Fred Van Dyke David C Mahan Joseph K Sheldon and Raymond H Brand provide hope for today s environmental crisis and bring Scripture into dialogue with current scientific findings and commitments Everywhen Ann McGrath,Jakelin Troy,Laura Rademaker,2023 Everywhen is a groundbreaking collection about diverse ways of conceiving knowing and narrating time and deep history Looking beyond the linear documentary past of Western or academic history this collection asks how knowledge systems of Australia s Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders can broaden our understandings of the past and of historical practice Indigenous embodied practices for knowing narrating and reenacting the past in the present blur the distinctions of linear time making all history now Ultimately questions of time and language are questions of Indigenous sovereignty The Australian case is especially pertinent because Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are among the few Native peoples without a treaty with their colonizers Appreciating First Nations time concepts embedded in languages and practices as Everywhen does is a route to recognizing diverse forms of Indigenous sovereignties Everywhen makes three major contributions The first is a concentration on language both as a means of knowing and transmitting the past across generations and as a vital albeit long overlooked source material for historical investigation to reveal how many Native people maintained and continue to maintain ancient traditions and identities through language Everywhen also considers Indigenous practices of history or knowing the past that stretch back more than sixty thousand years these Indigenous epistemologies might indeed challenge those of the academy Finally the volume explores ways of conceiving time across disciplinary boundaries and across cultures revealing how the experience of time itself is mediated by embodied practices and disciplinary norms Everywhen brings Indigenous knowledges to bear on the study and meaning of the past and of history itself It seeks to draw attention to every when arguing that Native time concepts and practices are vital to understanding Native histories and further that they may offer a new framework for history as practiced in the Western academy

De-colonising the Biblical Narrative, Volume 1 Norman Habel,2022-09-01 De colonising the Biblical Narrative Volume One represents a landmark in contemporary hermeneutics In this volume we take into account our colonial history and develop a de colonising hermeneutic which we employ to identify the colonial editing of the text and to retrieve precolonial narratives with which First Nations peoples of Australia may resonate In the first volume we attempt to de colonise the narratives of Genesis 1 11 and retrieve pre colonial legends that are comparable to First Nations ancestral narratives In Genesis One for example we retrieve a Primal Land Narrative in which the primordial ground is born comes to life creates life and is named Land by the Creator Spirit As we work through the traditions of Genesis 1 11 we also discern colonial additions like the mandate to dominate associated with the Imago Dei in Genesis 1 26 28 At the close of the analysis of each narrative we include the response of First Nations Australia thereby illustrating not only the significance of our finding but also the relevance for First Nations peoples

On Being an Earth Being Norman C. Habel,2020-02-14 What happens when you discover you are an Earth being and not just a human being This volume traces my journey from being a child of Mother Church to being a child of Mother Earth from being a human being cursed with original sin to being an Earth being blessed with innate spirituality My journey includes probing the maze of mysteries called ecology attending the Wisdom School of the ancient world taking a cosmic journey with the traumatized Job joining Aboriginal peoples of Australia in reading the spiritual landscape and celebrating life in a cosmic sanctuary called Earth These reflections are suitable not only for personal meditation but for readings in worship contexts and for spirituality retreats or workshops

Spiritual Energy Simon Richard Lee,2004-08 The New Testament contains these diverse statements 1 God is Spirit 2 God is Love 3 Love is a Fruit of the Holy Spirit amongst many others 4 The Spirit of God the Holy Spirit is Seven Spirits or a Sevenfold Spirit Simon Lee has spent the last twenty years pondering these issues and the following resulting questions which this book tries to answer in full 1 Love then is a Spirit and according to Shakespeare a many splendored thing Can we attempt to summarise Love so rich in artistic descriptions by thousands of poets singers writers and playwrights and other Spirits in simple terms 2 What are the other Six Spirits Can we decide what they are 3 The Bible often describes The Spirit as resembling a Tree or Fountain How do the Seven Spirits co exist in this apparently perfectly scientific description of their structure Can we describe this structure especially visualise it 4 Modern Science especially physics claims to be close to a scientific Theory of Everything There are certain holes in this theory Science ignores the spiritual and artistic in life Do the latter in fact need to be called upon to fill the scientific holes scientific camps the NUMBERS of things involved must precisely match i e the quantities of spiritual essences used to fill holes in science must be precisely correct Are they 6 Do other Holy Books in other Faiths back up these notions about a Set of Holy Spirits going together to make up the Spirit of God 7 Clearly the Spirit of God has enemies trying to supplant or replace spiritual with secular things Is the rising main enemy of the Holy Spirit today Information Technology Twenty years of thinking and research goes into Simon Lee s claim that this book provides a resounding convincingly argued answer of YES to all seven of these questions It is therefore an analysis of Spirit i e of God as a Spirit Being God and Creation Robert Reid Howison,1883
