Poems Rainer Maria Rilke,2015-07-23 Poems by Rainer Maria Rilke Translated by Jessie Lamont with an Introduction by H T The supreme problem of every age is that of finding its consummate artistic expression Before this problem every other remains of secondary importance History defines and directs its physical course science cooperates in the achievement of its material aims but Art alone gives to the age its spiritual physiognomy its ultimate and lasting expression The process of Art is on the one hand sensuous the conception having for its basis the fineness of organization of the senses and on the other hand it is severely scientific the value of the creation being dependent upon the craftsmanship the mastery over the tool the technique Art like Nature its great and only reservoir for all time past and all time to come ever strives for elimination and selection It is severe and aristocratic in the application of its laws and impervious to appeal to serve other than its own aims Its purpose is the symbolization of Life In its sanctum there reigns the silence of vast accomplishment the serene final and imperturbable solitude which is the ultimate criterion of all great things created To speak of Poetry is to speak of the most subtle the most delicate and the most accurate instrument by which to measure Life      Wartime Letters of Rainer Maria Rilke Rainer Maria Rilke,1964-05-17 The letters Rilke wrote during the war and postwar years are of particular interest not only for whatever they may contain of the wisdom of the poet the artist and the humanitarian but for their analysis of the intellectual and spiritual currents of the time These letters give the account of Rilke s own state of mind and of his final approach to the threshold of his great works They show the rapid change he underwent after his reaction to the first excitement of the war how his dismay at the cruelty and confusion of war helped to render the poet in him speechless for many years how he nevertheless characteristically held to his own fundamental views throughout war and revolution and in spite of everything retained his belief in the capacity of humanity to create for itself a better future      Letters of Rainer Maria Rilke, 1910-1926 Rainer Maria Rilke,1969-02-17 This volume of Rilke s letters covers the years from the completion of The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge to Rilke s death in December 1926 nearly five years after he had written the Duino Elegies and the Sonnets to Orpheus his last major works There are important letters here to Muzot Lou Andreas Salome to Princess Marie of Thurn and Taxis Hohenlohe and many others The most significant of the Wartime Letters 1914 1921 are also included An Introduction briefly traces the development of Rilke s work during these years the Notes provide the necessary framework of biographical details and point up significant references to the poetry      Rainer Maria Rilke F.
