Statewide Audiovisual Service, 1997 A History of War Resistance in America James M. Volo, 2010-04-09 This two part book examines the roots of warfare and the development of the peace movement in America from the Colonial period through the Vietnam War From the Colonial period on war has inevitably divided U S society into pro war and antiwar factions and few subjects have proven so polarizing or long lasting as a nexus of public discourse In the contest over war and peace uninformed beliefs have been conflated with uncontested truths by both sides fueling a lack of bipartisanship in foreign policy that has been prevalent since the nation s earliest days A History of War Resistance in America delineates clearly the tradition of war opposition in the United States It examines the military preparations for war and war s justifiable prosecution as well as pacifism legitimate resistance to war and the appropriate and free exercise of civil liberties This thought provoking volume offers an analysis of the reasons for conflict among peoples the prosecution of war among nations and the development of war resistance movements It also explores the role of the media in forming public opinion and that of the courts in protecting or limiting civil liberties Political Violence in South and Southeast Asia Itty

Abraham, Edward Newman, Meredith Leigh Weiss, 2010 This volume explores the sources and manifestations of political violence in South and Southeast Asia and the myriad roles that it plays in everyday life and as part of historical narrative It considers and critiques the manner in which political violence is understood and constructed and the common assumptions that prevail regarding the causes victims and perpetrators of this violence By focusing on the social and political context of these regions the book presents a critical understanding of the nature of political violence and provides an alternative narrative to that found in mainstream analysis of terrorism Political Violence in South and Southeast Asia brings together political scientists and anthropologists with intimate knowledge of the politics and society of these regions who present unique perspectives on topics including assassinations riots state violence the significance of geographic borders external influences and intervention and patterns of recruitment and rebellion Contributors include Paula Banerjee Calcutta University and Calcutta Research Group Vincent Boudreau City College of New York Paul R Brass University of Washington Naureen Chowdhury Fink International Peace Institute New York Natasha Hamilton Hart National University of Singapore Sankaran Krishna University of Hawaii Manoa Darini Rajasingham Social Scientists Association and International Centre for Ethnic Studies Sri Lanka Geoffrey Robinson UCLA Varun Sahni Jawaharlal Nehru University New Delhi Samuel Tharu Jawaharlal Nehru University
