Las Vegas Karin Jaschke, Silke Ötsch, 2003 Desert Imaginations Brahim El Guabli, 2025-11-04 Desert Imaginations traces the cultural and intellectual histories that have informed the prevalent ideas of deserts across the globe The book argues that Saharanism a globalizing imaginary that perceives desert spaces as empty exploitable and dangerous has been at the center of all desert focused enterprises Encompassing spiritual practices military thinking sexual fantasies experiential quests extractive economies and experimental schemes among other projects Saharanism has shaped the way deserts not only are constructed intellectually but are acted upon From nuclear testing to border walls and much more Brahim El Guabli articulates some of Saharanism's consequential manifestations across different deserts Desert Imaginations draws on the abundant historical literature and cultural output in multiple languages and across disciplines to delineate the parameters of Saharanism Against Saharanism's powerful and reductive vision of deserts the book rehabilitates a tradition of desert eco care that has been at work in desert Indigenous people's literary artistic scholarly and ritualistic practices Decisions of

Class Interruptions Robin Brooks, 2021-12-20 As downward mobility continues to be an international issue Robin Brooks offers a timely intervention between the humanities and social sciences by examining how Black women s cultural production engages debates about the growth in income and wealth gaps in global society during the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Using an interdisciplinary approach this innovative book employs major contemporary texts by both African American and Caribbean writers Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Dawn Turner Olive Senior Oonya Kempadoo Merle Hodge and Diana McCauley to demonstrate how neoliberalism within the broader framework of racial capitalism reframes structural inequalities as personal failures thus obscuring how to improve unjust conditions Through interviews with authors textual analyses of the fiction and a diagramming of cross class relationships Brooks offers compelling new insight on literary portrayals of class inequalities and division She expands the scope of how the Black women s literary tradition since the 1970s has been conceptualized by repositioning the importance of class and explores why the imagination matters as we think about novel ways to address long standing and simultaneously evolving issues
