Material Culture and Queenship in 14th-century France Marguerite Keane, 2016-05-18 In Material Culture and Queenship in 14th century France The Testament of Blanche of Navarre 1331 1398 Marguerite Keane considers the object collection of the long lived fourteenth century French queen Blanche of Navarre the wife of Philip VI d 1350 This queen s ownership of works of art books jewelry reliquaries and textiles among others and her perceptions of these objects is well documented because she wrote detailed testaments in 1396 and 1398 in which she described her possessions and who she wished to receive them Keane connects the patronage of Blanche of Navarre to her interest in her status and reputation as a dowager queen as well as bringing to life the material adornment and devotional interests of a medieval queen and her household

Gilding the Market Susan Mosher Stuard, 2011-06-03 In the fourteenth century garish ornaments bright colors gilt and military effects helped usher in the age of fashion in Italy Over a short span of years important matters began to turn on the cut of a sleeve Fashion influenced consumption and provided a stimulus that drove demand for goods and turned wealthy townspeople into enthusiastic consumers Making wise decisions about the alarmingly expensive goods that composed a fashionable wardrobe became a matter of pressing concern especially when the market caught on and became awash in cheaper editions of luxury wares Focusing on the luxury trade in fashionable wear and accessories in Venice Florence and other towns in Italy Gilding the Market investigates a major shift in patterns of consumption at the height of medieval prosperity which more remarkably continued through the subsequent era of plague return of plague and increased warfare A fine sensitivity to the demands of le pompe that is the public display of private wealth infected town life The quest for luxuries affected markets by enlarging exchange activity and encouraging retail trades As both consumers and tradesmen local goldsmiths long distance traders bankers and money changers played important roles in creating this new age of fashion In response to a greater public display of luxury goods civic sumptuary laws were written to curb spending and extreme fashion but these were aimed at women youth and children leaving townsmen largely unrestricted in their consumption With erudition grace and an evocative selection of illustrations some reproduced in full color Susan Mosher Stuard explores the arrival of fashion in European history The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Western Decorative Arts: Volume 1 National Gallery of Art (U.S.), Rudolf Distelberger, 1993 This volume is one of several that examines the National Gallery of Art's distinguished collection of decorative arts The second volume will be published in 1996 The group treated here is composed primarily of works acquired from the Widener Collection and amplified by holdings acquired from the Kress family Included are more than eighty Medieval Renaissance and later historic objects in a wide variety of media encompassing metalwork stained glass enamels ceramics and jewels Among the highlights are a Limoges reliquary chasse a Mosan lion aquamanile thirty eight pieces in a remarkable cohesive group of Italian maiolica three of the very rare pottery objects known as Saint Porchaire and the centerpiece of the collection the Suger chalice an ancient sardonyx cup to which the Abbot Suger added a bejewelled golden setting in the twelfth century Like other volumes in the Systematic Catalogue of the National Gallery of Art Collections Western Decorative Arts includes a thoroughly researched entry for each object together with an artist biography up to date bibliography and a technical analysis The Culture of Food in England, 1200-1500 C. M. Woolgar, 2016-01-01 In this revelatory work of social history C M Woolgar shows that food in late medieval England was far more complex varied and more culturally significant than we imagine today Drawing on a vast range of sources he charts how emerging technologies as well as an influx of new flavors and trends from abroad had an impact on eating habits across the social spectrum From the pauper's bowl to elite tables from early fad diets to the perceived moral superiority of certain foods and from regional folk remedies to luxuries such as lampreys Woolgar illuminates desire necessity daily rituals and pleasure across four centuries Out of Bounds Pamela A. Patton, Maria Alessia Rossi, 2023-10-03 Where are the limits of medieval art as a field of study What happens when conventionally trained art historians disregard the chronological geographical or cultural parameters that both direct and protect their scholarship Beginning with Thelma K Thomas and Alicia Walker's acute assessment of the need for a medieval art history for now the essays in Out of Bounds ask what happens when the study of medieval art disregards boundaries that it once obeyed The volume focuses on questions surrounding the production of knowledge and on how scholarly investigation beyond the conventional thematic boundaries of medieval art history is changing demonstrating how the field can address the ethics of scholarship today by positing a global turn in response to growing demands for socially responsible medieval studies Collectively the contributors demonstrate how going out of bounds can transform modern understanding of the people traditions and relationships that gave rise to medieval works As such this book argues for the necessity of reshaping scholarly discourse about the nature and significance of medieval art and generates fresh scholarly interpretations and important new critical tools for teaching and researching the Middle Ages The contributors to this volume are Suzanne Conklin Akbari Michele Bacci Jill Caskey Eva Frojmovic Sarah M Gu rin Christina Maranci Alice Isabella Sullivan Thelma K Thomas Michele Tomasi and Alicia Walker A Convert's Tale Tamar Herzig,2019-12-03 Salomone da Sesso was a virtuoso goldsmith in Renaissance Italy Brought down by a sex scandal he saved his skin by converting to Catholicism Tamar Herzig explores Salamone s world his Jewish upbringing his craft and patrons and homosexuality In his struggle for rehabilitation we see how precarious and contested was the meaning of conversion
