and triumph in a land of extremes It is a story of drought and flood invasion and war boom and bust and of the myriad peoples who over centuries of conflict gave rise to a place that has helped shape the identity of the United States and the destiny of the world I couldn't believe Texas was real the painter Georgia O'Keeffe remembered of her first encounter with the Lone Star State It was for her the same big wonderful thing that oceans and the highest mountains are Big Wonderful Thing invites us to walk in the footsteps of ancient as well as modern people along the path of Texas's evolution Blending action and atmosphere with impeccable research New York Times best selling author Stephen Harrigan brings to life with novelistic immediacy the generations of driven men and women who shaped Texas including Spanish explorers American filibusters Comanche warriors wildcatters Tejano activists and spellbinding artists all of them taking their part in the creation of a place that became not just a nation not just a state but an indelible idea Written in fast paced prose rich with personal observation and a passionate sense of place Big Wonderful Thing calls to mind the literary spirit of Robert Hughes writing about Australia or Shelby Foote about the Civil War Like those volumes it is a big book about a big subject a book that dares to tell the whole glorious gruesome epically sprawling story of Texas

Texas Longhorns, Whit Canning, 2005. With three national championships, more than 80 All American, and nearly 800 victories, the University of Texas has a football history and tradition among the richest in the nation. This book offers a look at a small slice of that history and tradition with updates on the lives of those who made it possible. Among these are Johnny Treadwell, whose "Now we've got 'em, where we want 'em" challenge became the emblem of the Darrell Royal teams of the early 1960s; former head coach David McWilliams, whose departure from the coaching ranks may have eventually helped to save his life; Duke Carlisle, the star of three crucial showdowns in a national championship season, now enjoying life in the oil business in Mississippi; Julius Whittier, UT's first black football letterman who finished with two degrees and has been a successful Dallas attorney for 20 years; Ben Tompkins, who played baseball with Satchel Paige, spent 20 years as an NFL game official, and is still practicing law at 75; T. Jones, enshrined in the Hall of Honor at both UT and Texas Tech; Ben Procter, who held a UT receiving record for 40 years, still lives in the house he bought from Lyndon Johnson's sister, and is finishing up the second volume of a biography of William Randolph Hearst; Alan Lowry, who answers the gnawing question about whether he stepped out of bounds on the run that beat Alabama in the Cotton Bowl; James Saxton, the swift All American who survived a near-fatal illness; Roosevelt Leaks, who after a lengthy NFL career still spends time on the family farm where he grew up; the Campbell twins, who as the sons of defensive coordinator Iron Mike Campbell, willed themselves into becoming starters on a national championship team; Randy Peschel, the man who caught the "Right 53" Veer Pass; James Street, the man who threw it; and former Outland winner Scott Appleton, who destroyed his life with alcohol and then rebuilt it, becoming a minister who touched countless lives before his death.

The Alcalde, 1970-10. As the magazine of the Texas Exes, The Alcalde has united alumni and friends of The University of Texas at Austin for nearly 100 years. The Alcalde serves as an intellectual crossroads where UT's luminaries, artists, engineers, executives, musicians, attorneys, journalists, lawmakers, and professors among them meet bimonthly to exchange ideas.
