The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry

Irene De Angelis, 2016-04-30 The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry provides a stimulating original and lively analysis of the Irish Japanese literary connection from the early 1960s to 2007 While for some this may partly remain Oscar Wilde's mode of style this book will show that there is more of Japan in the work of contemporary Irish poets than a tinkling of china and tea into china Drawing on unpublished new sources Irene De Angelis includes poets from a broad range of cultural backgrounds with richly varied styles Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon Ciaran Carson and Paul Muldoon together with younger poets such as Sinéad Morrissey and Joseph Woods Including close readings of selected poems this is an indispensable companion for all those interested in the broader historical and cultural research on the effect of oriental literature in modernist and postmodernist Irish poetry

On the Poetry of Galway Kinnell Howard Nelson, 1987 Traces the evolution of critical responses to the work of poet Galway Kinnell

Poetic Culture Christopher Beach, 1999 In Poetic Culture Christopher Beach questions the cultural significance of poetry both as a canonical system and as a contemporary practice By analyzing issues such as poetry's loss of audience the anthology wars of the 1950s and early 1960s the academic and institutional orientation of current poetry the poetry slam scene and the efforts to use television as a medium for presenting poetry to a wider audience Beach presents a sociocultural framework that is fundamental to an understanding of the poetic medium While calling for new critical methods that allow us to examine poetry beyond the limits of the accepted contemporary canon and beyond the terms in which canonical poetry is generally discussed and evaluated Beach also makes a compelling case for poetry and its continued vitality both as an aesthetic form and as a site for the creation of community and value
