Loredana Frătilă, Codruța Goșa, 2012-11-12 A Journey through Knowledge Festschrift in Honour of Hortensia Plog is a collection of articles dedicated to one of the best known Romanian university teachers and linguists both in her home country and well beyond its borders The heterogeneous material both in terms of the range of issues tackled and in terms of the approaches adopted by the authors in the three sections of the volume finds itself a common denominator in the idea of traveling and journey around which they are organized In the first section Traveling across Identities and Emotions Pia Brnzeu touches upon some identity issues in dealing with a form of subversion in Coz Shakespeare by Marin Sorescu Jaques

Ramel argues against the opinion that Shakespeare's A Midsummer's Night Dream was written to be performed as an epithalamium during wedding ceremonies. Adolphe Haberer brings to the fore the non-hero features of the main character in Virginia Woolf's Jacob's Room. Liliane Louvel writes about the mirror in literary texts insisting on its potential to send back graphic reflections onto these texts and Maurizio Gotti discusses definitional criteria i.e. the principles according to which a term should be defined. In section two Traveling in Time and Space Slávka Tomašková speaks about the status functions and characteristics of media narrative discourse during the last decade. Aleksandra Kedzierska follows and characterizes various types of journeys in Dickens' A Christmas Carol highlighting their significance for celebration. Alberto Lizaro traces the changes that medieval stories abundant in sexual references and instances of adultery have suffered to meet the publication requirements during Franco's regime in Spain. Stephen Tapscott focuses on the relationship between contemporary American poets' lyric and previously written works especially Modernist while Fernando Galván examines a number of literary texts centering on cities that have been dreamed of or imagined by various writers to illustrate decay, deconstruction and regeneration. The third section Traveling between Languages and Cultures opens with Smiljana Komar's account of the translation of some frequent English discourse markers into Slovene and continues with Loredana Pung's illustration of the issue of loss and gain in translation. Irma Taavitsainen and Pivi Pahta highlight the functions of the English politeness marker please in Finnish and investigate whether and how its meanings have changed when it has been adopted into the host language. Lachlan Mackenzie's contribution rounds off the volume with some suggestions on how recent changes in the English language should be taken into consideration when teachers of English evaluate the linguistic performance of their students.

German and English Dirk Siepmann, 2020-11-29 German and English Academic Usage and Academic Translation focuses on academic and popular scientific academic usage. This book's brief is both theoretical and practical: on the theoretical side it aims to provide a systematic corpus-based account of current academic usage in English and in German as well as of the translation problems associated with various academic genres; on the practical side it seeks to equip academic translators with the skills required to produce target language text in accordance with disciplinary conventions. The main perspective taken is that of a translator working from German into English but the converse direction is also regularly taken into account. Most of the examples used are based on errors that occurred in real-life translation jobs. Additional practice materials and sample translations are available as eResources here: www.routledge.com/9780367619022. This book will be an important resource for professionals aspiring to translate academic texts, linguists interested in academic usage translation, scholars and graduate and postgraduate students.
