Look at the Child Maria Montessori, 1978 The Montessori Method Gerald Lee Gutek, 2004-04-05 An essential resource for all students and scholars of early childhood education this book offers a rich array of material about Maria Montessori and the Montessori Method Distinguished education scholar Gerald Gutek begins with an in depth biography of Montessori exploring how a determined young woman overcame the obstacles that blocked her educational and career opportunities in Italy during the late Victorian age The author then analyzes the sources and influences that shaped the Montessori philosophy of education After laying the foundation for Montessori s development Gutek presents an annotated and abridged edition of The Montessori Method 1912 the seminal work that introduced her educational innovations to a U S audience The book concludes with key historical documents including disciple Anne E George s notes on the Montessori lectures and William H Kilpatrick s critique of the Montessori method Preserving the historical context of Montessori s contribution Gutek also shows the continuing relevance of her thought to educational reform in the twenty first century

Maria Montessori's Philosophy Patrick R. Frierson, 2025-02-27 Maria Montessori s Philosophy shows how Montessori s commitment to follow the child can be understood as a philosophical method for answering the great philosophical questions that confront human beings Patrick Frierson discusses historical influences on Montessori s philosophical views focusing on showing how her commitment to children led her to profound insights about a wide range of philosophical questions from foundational metaphysics to applied ethics and politics Her metaphysics grounded in the concept of life as she observes it developing in the child helps to address fundamental questions about the nature of the universe and the emergence of consciousness and value within it Her pragmatic empiricist epistemology provides the framework for a sophisticated account of various intellectual virtues conducive to excellent cognitive engagement with reality Her moral philosophy weaves together a broadly Nietzschean emphasis on self perfection with respect for all human beings and a strong interest in social solidarity In her philosophy of religion she follows children as they guide her to recognize a sense for the divine and the importance of sensorily informed religious practice Her politics informed by lifelong feminism and concern for peace shows how the education of the child is the key to cosmopolitan solidarity and lasting peace Her philosophy of technology while recognizing the dangers of technological development also sees in children the human potential and even vocation to develop technology for the betterment of the world Philosophical Leisure Annette Holba, 2007 Human beings have suffered a communication eclipse as a result of rapid technological advancements and conspicuous consumption Consequences of this communication eclipse can be devastating to the human condition Philosophical Leisure Recuperative Praxis for Human Communication invites us to understand the ontological and phenomenological difference between leisure and recreation This distinction is important since outcomes of each activity differ dramatically Philosophical leisure can repair our ability to communicate with others at a deeply human level So be prepared to revision your understanding of leisure and experience a

In the 2020 Directory for Catechesis the Church calls for a renewal of catechesis that focuses on bringing people to a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ. Solid formation is not only about teaching doctrine but also and more importantly about forming disciples who have encountered and know Christ. In Following God's Pedagogy Sister Mary Michael Fox, OP brings decades of experience in catechesis to offer a unique and proven model for children's catechesis. She draws upon her deep catechetical experience and thorough research into the nature of the child, divine revelation and catechetical methodology. She offers timely insight into how the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) offers an approach to children's catechesis that forms the mind and heart of the child, leading them into a deeper relationship with Christ and a life of discipleship. Bishops, diocesan catechetical directors and all catechists will discover a way of faith formation of children that is sure to renew and strengthen catechesis for years to come. The Christian Advocate , 1914 Pope Francis and the Idea of Progress La Civiltà Cattolica, A collection of 9 articles from the September 2020 edition of La Civiltà Cattolica, the highly respected and oldest Catholic journal published from Rome. Pope Francis' encyclical Laudato si' calls everyone to individual and social responsibilities for the world and other people, leading us to a deeper understanding of progress. Giandomenico Mucci SJ discusses the passages from the encyclical that consider indefinite progress. African lay people working in China have made an original contribution to the Catholicity of the local Church. The article African Influences on Chinese Catholicism examines how Chinese faithful and the local clergy perceive the presence of African Catholics and their response to African Catholics' evangelical style of service. Antonio Spadaro SJ interprets the driving force and meaning of Pope Francis' pontificate. The pope's idea of reforming the Church corresponds to the Ignatian vision of creating the structural conditions for a real and open dialogue. Should we recognize boundaries between the spiritual and the psychological and on what basis should we do it? Dominique Salin SJ answers the question in Spirituality and Psychology. In the 1950s Rome the great 20th century educator Maria Montessori was seeking an effective way to initiate children into the experience of faith and prayer; it became known as the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Giancarlo Pani SJ shares his insight of the development of this catechesis. Christo and Jeanne Claude's artwork brought people together in shared experiences across the globe and the aesthetic dimension in all their works was always intense. Andrea Dall'Asta SJ discusses some of the works by Christo who was one of the most important exponents of Land Art. Where is the peace?
