Looking North To South East Asia:

Looking North, Looking South: China, Taiwan, And The South Pacific Anne-marie Brady, 2010-08-02 Looking North Looking South brings together the works of leading China Taiwan and Pacific politics specialists analysing a topic of growing importance China and Taiwan's ever growing involvement in the South Pacific There is no doubt that China is on the rise in Asia Africa South America the Caribbeans and even the Antarctica and the Arctic this rise can be partly attributed to China's activities in the South Pacific This book will pinpoint China's involvement in the South Pacific within the context of China's wider foreign policy and the challenges it poses to the traditional dominant powers of the region the China Taiwan rivalry has helped to seriously alter the balance of traditional influence in the South Pacific where China is now one of the largest aid donors in the region squeezing out Australia New Zealand and the United States both in terms of funding and influence

China and Southeast Asia in the Xi Jinping Era Alvin Cheng-Hin Lim, Frank Cibulka, 2018-12-12 In 2012 the Communist Party of China CPC inaugurated the Xi Jinping era when it elected him to be the General Secretary of the CPC The following year Xi was elected President of the People's Republic of China The Xi Jinping era has seen a remarkable transformation of Chinese foreign policy which has been adjusted to facilitate the achievement of what Xi has proclaimed as the Great Rejuvenation of the Chinese Nation Xi's Belt and Road Initiative has become a major element of Chinese economic diplomacy while the Chinese military industrial complex under his leadership has strengthened China's extensive claims in the South China Sea with reclamation works and the installation of military facilities on its occupied islands This edited volume will focus on the countries of Southeast Asia and examine how their relations with China have been transformed in the Xi Jinping era

China And Southeast Asia: Myths, Threats, And Culture Gungwu Wang,1999-05-06 The reemergence of China as a political force has triggered sharp reassessments of its future role in the Asia Pacific region There has been much hyperbole about China s economic power especially if it is linked with the entrepreneurial talents of the ubiquitous Chinese spread around the globe Some countries have been encouraged to sound warning bells about China s future ambitions to dominate the region All this is not surprising even understandable But the danger of exaggeration to the point where efforts to predict what China and the Chinese will do become merely alarmist and the predictions become self fulfilling has to be guarded against There is no easy remedy for deep seated suspicion and hostility leading to persistent attempts to mislead and provoke The recent financial crisis in East Asia has aggravated some worst case scenarios and these may bring additional worries to the region s plans for ultimate recovery The three essays in this volume focus on some areas where myths and prejudices have long survived They offer different perspectives and suggest alternative ways to approach certain problems of understanding China s relations with Southeast Asia Governing Climate Change in Southeast Asia Jens Marquardt,Laurence L. Delina,Mattijs Smits,2021-12-07 This volume showcases the diversity of the politics and practices of climate change governance across Southeast Asia Through a series of country level case studies and regional perspectives the authors in this volume explore the complexities and contested nature of climate governance in what can be considered as one of the most dynamic and multi faceted regions of the world They reflect upon the tensions between authoritarian and democratic climate change governance the multiple roles of civil society and non state interventions and the conflicts between state planning and market driven climate change governance Shedding light on climate change mitigation and adaptation efforts in Southeast Asia this book presents the various formal and informal institutions of climate change governance their relevant actors procedures and policies Empirical findings from a diverse set of environments are merged into a cross country comparison that allows for elaborating on similar patterns whilst at the same time highlighting the distinct features of climate change governance in Southeast Asia Drawing on case studies from all Southeast Asian countries namely Brunei Darussalam Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand Timor Leste and Viet Nam this book will be of great interest to students scholars and practitioners dealing with climate change and environmental governance

(Re)Negotiating East and Southeast Asia Alice D. Ba, 2009-03-26 This book seeks to explain two core paradoxes associated with the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN How have diverse states hung together and stabilized relations in the face of competing interests divergent preferences and arguably weak cooperation How has a group of lesser self identified Southeast Asian powers gone beyond its original regional purview to shape the form and content of Asian Pacific and East Asian regionalisms According to Alice Ba the answers lie in ASEAN s founding arguments arguments that were premised on an assumed regional disunity She demonstrates how these arguments draw critical causal connections that make Southeast Asian regionalism a necessary response to problems give rise to its defining informality and consensus seeking process and also constrain ASEAN s regionalism Tracing debates about ASEAN s intra and extra regional relations over four decades she argues for a process driven view of cooperation sheds light on intervening processes of argument and debate and highlights interacting material ideational and social forces in the construction of regions and regionalisms
