Imposters Chris Collins,Paul Martin Postal,2012 A study of pronominal agreement with imposters third person DPs this reporter yours truly my lord Madam that denote the speaker or addressee Normally a speaker uses a first person singular pronoun in English I me mine myself to refer to himself or herself To refer to a single addressee a speaker uses second person pronouns you yours yourself But sometimes third person nonpronominal DPs are used to refer to the speaker for example this reporter yours truly or to the addressee my lord the baroness Madam Is Madam not feeling well Chris Collins and Paul Postal refer to these DPs as imposters because their third person exterior hides a first or second person core In this book they study the interactions of imposters with a range of grammatical phenomena including pronominal agreement coordinate structures Principle C phenomena epithets fake indexicals and a property of pronominal agreement they call homogeneity Collins and Postal conclude that traditional ideas about pronominal features person number gender which countenance only agreement with an antecedent or the relation of the pronoun to its referent are much too simple They sketch elements of a more sophisticated view and argue for its relevance and explanatory power in several data realms The fundamental proposal of the book is that a pronoun agrees with what they call a source where its antecedent constitutes only one type of source They argue that the study of imposters and closely related camouflage DPs has far reaching consequences that are inconsistent with many current theories of anaphora

The Psychopomp Book No. 1 Benny Maniaks,2012-09-29 Joel Magnolia is a teenage prodigy With the help of his college roommate Sang Joel designs molecule sized robots that can be injected into soldiers in order to enhance their performance As fiercely intelligent as he is Joel can t figure out a way to talk to girls Instead he resorts to anonymous love letters to Maria Avellana another brilliant grad student who is nice to him at the lab After humiliating himself in front of her Joel becomes unexpectedly entangled in a series of paranormal episodes

Protesting the use of soldiers as guinea pigs Joel injects himself with the Nanobot solution and unknowingly becomes THE PSYCHOPOMP At first he begins to see strange auras around people He dismisses it as a side effects of the nanobots but eventually learns to understand this energy field and control it This ability makes him extremely valuable to the Department of Defense and they plan a special operation with him as the key player The only problem is he has to kill someone he likes
