Merry-making in Old Russia and Other Stories Evgeniĭ Popov, 1997 Tragicomic tales set in the final days of the Soviet Union where whether you work or don't you still get paid albeit not much But vodka is cheap Merry-making in Old Russia and Other Stories Evgeniĭ Popov, 1997 Tragicomic tales set in the final days of the Soviet Union where whether you work or don't you still get paid albeit not much But vodka is cheap Shamara and Other Stories Svetlana Vladimirovna Vasilenko, 2000 This collection features Svetlana Vasilenko's novel Little Fool nominated for the Russian Booker Prize Rich in folklore legend and history the story follows the transformation of Ganna a girl from the Volga shores into a modern day Madonna Also included are the novella Shamara and several short stories including the acclaimed Going After Goat Antelopes Mocking Desire Drago Jančar, 1998 A novel on New Orleans through the eyes of Gregor Gradnik a visiting Slovenian professor of creative writing at a university He leads a split life respectable academic during the day bar crawler at night City of Ash Eugenijus Ališanka, 2000 Although the title of this sensitive collection refers to Vilnius the capital of Lithuania City of Ash serves as a universal geography of the contemporary soul in an urban context Through his poetry Eugenijus Alisanka searches for personal and historical meaning within the framework of time recognizing both the demands of the self and the impossibility of avoiding what came before whether human or cultural The Silk, the Shears and Marina; Or, About Biography Irena Vrkljan, 1999-02-17 Winner of the Ksaver andor Gjalski Prize These are the first two volumes of the Croatian poet and novelist Irena Vrkljan's lyrical autobiography Although each novel illuminates the other they also stand alone as original and independent works of art In The Silk the Shears Vrkljan traces the symbolic and moral significance of her life and her vision of the fate of women in her mother's time and in her own Marina continues the intense analysis of the poetic self using the life of Marina Tsvetaeva to meditate on the processes behind biography Tsing David Albahari, 1997 Much more than an ordinary postmodern text Tsing is a quiet and moving paean to the narrator's deceased father Beginning with a series of imagined vignettes involving a father and a daughter Albahari weaves both real and imagined narrative fragments together with considerable skill The Fortress Meša Selimović, 1999 The Fortress is one of the most significant and fascinating novels to come out of the former Yugoslavia Ahmet Shabo returns home to eighteenth century Sarajevo from the war in Russia numbed by the death in battle or suicide of nearly his entire military unit In time he overcomes the anguish of war only to find that he has emerged a reflective and contemplative man in a society that does not value and will not tolerate the subversive implications of these qualities My Family's Role in the World Revolution and Other Prose Bora Ćosić, 1997 A comic novella on 1960s Yugoslavia in which a family attempts to create a version of the socialist society in its kitchen The novella is accompanied by a collection of essays one of which deals with World War I as seen by Parisians Short Story Index, 1999 The Grand Prize and Other Stories Daniela Crăsnaru, 2004 Publisher Description Books in Print, 1991 The Loss Владимир Маканин, 1998 A collection of stories by a Russian writer one of which is on a relationship between a prisoner of war and his captor while another looks at the way one man's fortune can become another man's misfortune Skinswaps Andrej Blatnik, 1998 Stories by a Slovenian writer In His Mother's Voice a boy sees a movie on a killer who mimics a woman's call to lure her son to his death The boy goes home it is dark his mother calls and the boy reaches for an axe In Isaac a death camp deportee attempts an escape from a train Library Journal, 1997 Angel Riding a Beast, 1998 The poems in Angel Riding a Beast are the stunning expression of the Romanian poet Liliana Ursu's years in America The sadness and paradoxes of exile and the clarity of a cross cultural awareness become for Ursu the psychological and descriptive framework for poems infused with the emotion and images of erotic longing and spiritual loneliness The combination of elegy and wit in the poems of Ovid the poet of exile with whom Ursu claims kinship is evident in her poetry as well Always conscious of both her new American freedom and the remorselessness of time and death Ursu explores the American landscape through the sad aura of those coming from Eastern Europe as if from some kind of inferno She displays remarkable insight into America's often formless and shallow society of consumers and yet her newly Americanized vision also allows her to reimagine and reevaluate her life and her country The alienating repression of recent Romanian history has led Romanian poets with Ursu as a source of inspiration for their almost violent intensity of language to resist and penetrate all boundaries and limits whether political ideological or aesthetic The sympathy of her cultural observations and the physicality of her poetic images and the desires that inform them give Ursu's poems an affecting and universal perspective in which desperate experience and places coalesce in a singular human landscape American Book Publishing Record, 1997 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1993-12 The Illustrated London News, 1849
