Moderate Among Extremists:

A Moderate Among Extremists James C. Duram, 1981 Desegregating Texas Schools Robyn Duff Ladino, 2010-01-01

This study of school integration struggles in 1950s Texas demonstrates how power politics denied black students their constitutional rights. In the famous Brown v. the Board of Education decisions of 1954 and 1955 the United States Supreme Court ruled that separate but equal schools for black and white students were unconstitutional. Yet it took more than a decade of struggle before black students gained full access to previously white schools. Mansfield, Texas, a small community southeast of Fort Worth, was the scene of an early school integration attempt. In this book Robyn Duff Ladino draws on interviews with surviving participants, media reports, and archival research to provide the first full account of the Mansfield school integration crisis of 1956. Ladino explores how politics at the local, state, and federal levels ultimately prevented the integration of Mansfield High School in 1956. Her research sheds new light on the actions of Governor Allan Shivers, who in the eyes of the segregationists validated their cause through his actions, and it underscores President Eisenhower's public passivity toward civil rights during his first term of office. Despite the short-term failure, however, the Mansfield school integration crisis helped pave the way for the successful integration of Central High School in Little Rock, Arkansas, in 1957. Thus it deserves a permanent place in the history of the civil rights movement.

Extremist Mindsets and Strategies S. Clara Kim, 2021-06-11

Presenting an analysis of modern-day extremism, this book explores how any group of people or participants in a movement—political, ideological, racial, ethnonational, religious, or issue-driven—can adopt extremist mindsets if they believe their existence or interests are threatened. Looking beyond fringe resistance groups already labeled as terrorists or subversives, the author examines conventional organizations: political parties, religious groups, corporations, interest groups, nation-states, police, and the military that deploy extremist strategies to further their agendas. Dynamics of mutual causation: process between dominant and resistant extremist groups are explored, including how resistant extremist groups surface in response to oppressive and abusive measures advanced by the dominant groups to further their interests and maintain supremacy through systemic injustices, as happens in slavery, caste systems, patriarchy, colonialism, autocracy, exploitive capitalism, and discrimination against minorities.

Extremism and Counter-Extremism Narratives in Pakistan Sadia Nasir, 2023-05-19

The book provides an extensive analysis of extremism, extremist narratives, and counter-narratives, and their role in consolidating exclusive religious, cultural, and social identities in Pakistan. Focusing on the construction and institutionalization of extremist tendencies, the book studies the process of the adoption of the narrow interpretation of religion and society which subsequently was equated with national identity It looks at the efforts of counter extremism narratives which tend to focus on violent extremism while overlooking non violent manifestations The author highlights that the main issue with counter narratives is the difficulty in presenting extremism and its narratives as a threat since they have been normalized with the state being part of facilitating and building them A valuable and much required contribution to the existing literature on extremism and narrative building in Pakistan this book would help students academics and policymakers in identifying the limitations of counter narratives in Pakistan while providing them with a detailed overview of extremism and extremist narratives It will also be of interest to researchers studying Security Studies and Asian Politics especially in the context of South Asia
