Modern American Short Story Sequences Composite Fictions And Fictive Communities:

Modern American Short Story Sequences J. Gerald Kennedy, 1995-01-27 Originally published in 1995 this book gathers together eleven full length essays on important American short story sequences of the twentieth century The introduction by J Gerald Kennedy elucidates problems of defining the genre cites notable instances of the form such as Sherwood Anderson's Winesburg Ohio and explores the implications of its modern emergence and popularity Subsequent essays discuss illustrative works by such figures as Henry James Jean Toomer Ernest Hemingway Richard Wright William Faulkner Eudora Welty J D Salinger John Cheever John Updike Louise Erdrich and Raymond Carver While examining distinctive thematic concerns each essay also considers implications of form and arrangement in the construction of composite fictions that often produce the illusion of a fictive community

Communities in Contemporary Anglophone Caribbean Short Stories Lucy Evans, 2014 This book explores representations of community in Anglophone Caribbean short story collections and cycles of the late twentieth and early twenty first century

A Companion to Twentieth-Century United States Fiction David Seed, 2010-01-21 Through a wide ranging series of essays and relevant readings A Companion to Twentieth Century United States Fiction presents an overview of American fiction published since the conclusion of the First World War Features a wide ranging series of essays by American British and European specialists in a variety of literary fields Written in an approachable and accessible style Covers both classic literary figures and contemporary novelists Provides extensive suggestions for further reading at the end of each essay

The Carver Chronotope G.P. Lainsbury, 2004-02-24 Raymond Carver's fiction is widely known for its careful documentation of lower middle class North America in the 1970s and 80s Building upon the realist understanding of Carver's work Raymond Carver's Chronotope uses a central concept of Bakhtin's novelistics to formulate a new context for understanding the celebrated author's minimalist fiction G P Lainsbury describes the critical reception of Carver's work and stakes out his own intellectual and imaginative territory by arguing that Carver's fiction can be understood as diffuse fragmentary and randomly ordered Offering a fresh analysis of Carver's body of work this book offers an extensive meditation on this major figure in postmodern U S fiction

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edwidge Danticat Jana Evans Braziel, Nadège T. Clitandre, 2021-01-28 Edwidge Danticat's prolific body of work has established her as one of the most important voices in 21st century literary culture Across such novels as Breath Eyes Memory Farming the Bones and short story collections such as Krik Krak and most recently Everything Inside essays and writing for children the Haitian American writer has throughout her oeuvre tackled important contemporary themes including racism imperialism anti immigrant politics and sexual violence With chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars this is the most up to date and in depth reference guide to 21st century scholarship on Edwidge Danticat's work The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edwidge Danticat covers such topics as The full range of Danticat's writing from her novels and short stories to essays life writing and writing for children and young adults Major interdisciplinary scholarly perspectives including from establishing fields of literary studies Caribbean Studies Political Science Latin American Studies feminist and gender studies African Diaspora Studies and emerging fields such as Environmental Studies Danticat's literary sources and influences from Haitian authors such as Marie Chauvet Jacques Roumain and Jacques St phen Alexis to African American authors like Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison and Caribbean American writers Audre Lorde to Paule Marshall Known and unknown Historical moments in experiences of slavery and imperialism the consequence of internal and external migration and the formation of diasporic communities The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of Danticat's work and key works of secondary criticism and an interview with the author as well as and essays by Danticat herself American Literature in Transition, 1990-2000 Stephen J. Burn, 2017-12-28 Written in the shadow of the approaching millennium American literature in the 1990s was beset by bleak announcements of the end of books the end of postmodernism and even the end of literature Yet as conservative critics marked the century's twilight hours by launching elegies for the conventional canon American writers proved the continuing vitality of their literature by reinvigorating inherited forms by adopting and adapting emerging technologies to narrative ends and by finding new voices that had remained outside that canon for too long By reading 1990s literature in a sequence of shifting contexts from independent presses to the AIDS crisis and from angelology to virtual reality American Literature in Transition 1990 2000 provides the fullest map yet of the changing shape of a rich and diverse decade's literary production It offers new perspectives on the period's well known landmarks Toni Morrison Thomas Pynchon David Foster Wallace but also overdue recognition to writers such as Ana Castillo Evan Dara Steve Erickson and Carole Maso Constructing Coherence in the British Short Story Cycle Patrick Gill, Florian Kläger, 2018-05-11 The first major collection of essays on the contemporary British short story cycle this volume offers in depth explorations of the genre by comparing its strategies for creating coherence with those of the novel and the short story collection inquiring after the ties that bind individual short stories into a cycle A section on theory approaches the form from the point of view of genre theory cognitive literary studies and book studies It is followed by investigations of hitherto neglected aspects of the generic tradition of the British short story cycle and how they relate to the contemporary outlook of the form Readings of individual contemporary cycles illustrating the form's multifaceted uses from the presentation of sexual identities to politics and trauma make up the third and most substantial part of the volume placing its focus squarely on the past decades Unique in its combination of a focus on the literary traditions politics and markets of the UK with a thorough examination of the genre's manifold formal and thematic potentials the volume explores what is at the heart of the short story cycle as a literary form the constant negotiation between unity and separateness collective and individual of coherence and autonomy The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature s relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Sherwood Anderson's Winesburg, Ohio, 2016-01-12 Sherwood Anderson s Winesburg Ohio revisits a classic twentieth century American text Scholars from around the world share their interpretations and shed new light on Anderson s contribution to Modernism and his legacy to later writers They look closely at gender relations masculinity place the nature of community and the elusive American Dream

Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown, 2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form Do different groups develop culture related themes Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story Which writers of color should be added to the canon Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time How does a person of color write for white publishers editors and readers Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America ranging from African Americans to Native Americans Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies
