Selected Guide to Make-it, Fix-it, Do-it-yourself Books Susan Nueckel, 1973 Movement to Music Katherine Teck, 1990-10-05 Long before any dance performance is presented an artistic collaboration takes place in the studio between dance teachers musicians and dancers This book a companion to the author's Music for the Dance Reflections on a Collaborative Art explores that collaboration considering every level of training from creative movement for the very young to the daily workouts and rehearsals of professional ballet and modern concert dance companies Designed to be easily accessible to those without musical literacy or an extensive knowledge of dance technique the volume is appropriate both for dance teachers musicians and students as well as for the parents and theatergoers who want to know more about what goes on behind the scenes This book also encompasses styles of jazz dance and some ethnic forms in the African tradition Based on Katherine Teck's experience as a studio musician and on her interviews with outstanding dance teachers and musicians the book addresses a wide variety of musical concerns For dance teachers such topics as finding and training an accompanist communicating musical needs working with a live musician in class and collaborating for original choreography are covered Subjects of interest to musicians include the existing repertoire for dance how to analyze movement patterns techniques of improvisation how to find formal training and career possibilities in dance Finally for the dancers themselves the work provides an introduction to ways in which music and movement can relate Of special interest to dance historians will be the author's interviews with leading artists in the fields of both ballet and modern dance. An appendix provides listings of further resources as well as a checklist of important reminders for musicians and teachers. This work will be a valuable resource for courses in dance technique, musical collaboration, and dance history, as well as an important addition to both public and college libraries.

Introducing Dance in Christian Worship Ronald Gagne, Thomas A. Kane, Robert VerEecke, 1984. The history of dancing in liturgy, models for using dance in the eucharist, and examples of dance consistent with the church year. How to dance. Why to dance. And how dance fits into liturgy. Kane's easy-to-follow format lets you choose the right movement for different parts of worship, much as you would choose the right music. VerEecke shares his personal account as a dancer, a theologian's conception of his art. Gagne provides a historical look at dance in worship and a chronology of the events which have shaped attitudes toward dance. Includes suggested gestures for danced prayer, step-by-step dance movements for use in your church, and many photographs. Inspiring. Informative. Easily reachable. A practical guide with scholarship to back it up. From back cover.

Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson, 2015-11-16. School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade, but there is little available to young adults. For them, libraries become a place for work, the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report, but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost. So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers? This just might be the answer. Here you will find theme-based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade, Log On at the Library, Go in Style, Cruising the Mall, Space Shots, Teens on TV, and 44 others that are designed for young adults. Each includes a display idea, suggestions for local sponsorship, prizes, a program game to encourage participation, 10 theme-related activities, curriculum tie-in activities, sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts, ideas for activity sheets, a bibliography of related works, and a list of theme-related films. The units are highly flexible, allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs.

Producing the Musical Haller Laughlin, Randy Wheeler, 1984-12-03. The best book of its kind for the inexperienced producer or director of nonprofessional theater. This is a most welcomed addition to both personal and library shelves. It is also an excellent auxiliary text for the beginning directing class. High school, lower division, undergraduate, and public libraries. Choice.

The Dancer's Survival Manual Marian Horosko, Judith R. F. Kupersmith, 1987. Update, 1991.

Dance Sources, UCLA Libraries and Archives, 1991. Journal of Physical Education, Recreation & Dance, 1983. Performer as Priest and Prophet Judith Rock, Norman Mealy, 1988. Discusses the elements of music and dance, their role as catalysts for religious thought, and the place of the artist in the religious community.
