Modern Economic History Of Africa A Volume I The Nineteenth Century:

A Modern Economic History of Africa: The nineteenth century Paul Tiyambe Zeleza,1993 A Modern Economic History of Africa: The nineteenth century Paul Tiyambe Zeleza,1997 The nineteenth century in Africa was a time of revolution and tumultuous change in virtually all spheres Violent dry spells the staggered abolition of the slave trade mass migrations and an influx of new settlers characterized the century Regional trade links grew stronger and spread further The century also saw the beginnings of the ruthless and bloody quest for foreign dominion Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch,Mary Baker,2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces In the end the West s technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the difficulties of today Communications in Africa, 1880-1939, Volume 1 David Sunderland,2019-01-15 This collection presents rare documents relating to the development of various forms of communication across Africa by the British as part of their economic investment in Africa Railways and waterways are examined Communications in Africa, 1880-1939 (set) David Sunderland,2018-10-24 This collection presents rare documents relating to the development of various forms of communication across Africa by the British as part of their economic investment in Africa Railways and waterways are examined Africa in the Twenty-First Century Gashawbeza Bekele,Adebayo Oyebeade,2018-12-04 This book interrogates contemporary debates controversies achievements challenges and future prospects of African development and democratization from varied theoretical perspectives The diverse issues and sub themes addressed in this volume include tenets of democracy such as democratization democratic institutions good governance term limits minority rights and women s political participation and dynamics of development such as economic growth liberalization development strategies and models Millennium Development Goals uneven regional development sustainable development challenges transport development and management and health and development Featuring established and emerging scholars this book is a vital resource for scholars policy makers and students interested in African politics and development Encyclopedia of

African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington,2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco Libya and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar Mauritius and Seychelles in the east the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty first century this comprehensive three volume Encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope Also includes 99 maps

The International Impact of the Boer War Keith M. Wilson,2014-12-18 Although much has been written about the conduct of the war in South Africa very little has been written about how it was regarded on the world stage by powers both great and small This collection of specially commissioned essays seeks for the first time to put the Boer War 1899 1902 in its international context Each of the core chapters focuses on the perspective of one country France Germany Austria Hungary Italy The Netherlands Portugal Russia and the United States and assesses the extent to which each national government tried to capitalize on Britain s embarrassment and distraction while often entangled in imperialist ventures of their own The anglophobia of many of the nations press the activities of pro Boer organizations and the shaping of public and parliamentary opinion are examined alongside the real politics and diplomatic considerations that took precedence In addition there are summation chapters that examine both the origins of the war and its legacy for Britain s expansionist ambitions Together these essays present the latest findings on a watershed in international relations that heralded substantive changes of attitude and policy on the part of national governments towards their dependencies and had far reaching consequences for alliance systems and the international balance of power at the start of the twentieth century

Poverty and Wealth in East Africa Rhiannon Stephens,2022-10-24 Rhiannon Stephens offers a conceptual history of how people living in eastern Uganda have sustained and changed their ways of thinking about wealth and poverty over the past two thousand years

The Winds of History Andreas Zeman,2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dur e Contrary to persistent clich s of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people s room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside

Indian Cotton Textiles in West Africa Kazuo

Kobayashi,2019-06-10 This book focuses on the significant role of West African consumers in the development of the global economy It explores their demand for Indian cotton textiles and how their consumption shaped patterns of global trade influencing economies and businesses from Western Europe to South Asia In turn the book examines how cotton textile production in southern India responded to this demand Through this perspective of a south south economic history the study foregrounds African agency and considers the lasting impact on production and exports in South Asia It also considers how European commercial and imperial expansion provided a complex web of networks linking West African consumers and Indian weavers Crucially it demonstrates the emergence of the modern global economy The Slave Trade and Culture in the Bight of Biafra G. Ugo Nwokeji,2010-09-13 The Slave Trade and Culture in the Bight of Biafra dissects and explains the structure dramatic expansion and manifold effects of the slave trade in the Bight of Biafra By showing that the rise of the Aro merchant group was the key factor in trade expansion G Ugo Nwokeji reinterprets why and how such large scale commerce developed in the absence of large scale centralized states The result is the first study to link the structure and trajectory of the slave trade in a major exporting region to the expansion of a specific African merchant group among other fresh insights into Atlantic Africa s involvement in the trade and the most comprehensive treatment of Atlantic slave trade in the Bight of Biafra The fundamental role of culture in the organization of trade is highlighted transcending the usual economic explanations in a way that complicates traditional generalizations about work domestic slavery and gender in pre colonial Africa Contested Terrains And Constructed Categories George Clement Bond,2018-02-19 Contested Terrains and Constructed Categories brings together intellectuals from a variety of fields backgrounds generations and continents to deepen and reinvigo rate the theoretical and intellectual integrity of African studies Building on recent debate within African studies that has revolved around the role of Africanists in the United States as gatekeepers of knowledge about Africa and Africans this volume of interdisciplinary essays focuses on the contested character of the production of knowledge itself In every chapter case studies and ethnographic materials drawn from such regions as South Africa Mozambique Zimbabwe the Malagasy Republic Angola Ghana and Senegal demonstrate the application of theory to concrete situations Writing African History John Edward Philips,2006 A comprehensive evaluation of how to read African history Writing African History is an essential work for anyone who wants to write or even seriously read African history It will replace Daniel McCall s classic Africa in Time Perspective as the introduction to African history for the next generation and as a reference for professional historians interested readers and anyone who wants to understand how African history is written Africa in Time Perspective was written in the 1960s when African history was a new field of research This new book reflects the development of African history since then It opens with a comprehensive introduction by Daniel McCall followed by a chapter by the editor explaining what African history is and is not in the context of historical theory and the development of historical narrative the humanities and social sciences The first half of the book focuses on sources of historical data while thesecond half examines different perspectives on history The editor s final chapter explains how to combine various sorts of evidence into a coherent account of African history Writing African History will become the most important guide to African history for the 21st century Contributors Bala Achi Isaac Olawale Albert Diedre L Bad jo Dorothea Bedigian Barbara M Cooper Henry John Drewal Christopher Ehret Toyin Falola David Henige Joseph E Holloway John Hunwick S O Y Keita William G Martin Daniel McCall Susan Keech McIntosh Donatien Dibwe Dia Mwembu Kathleen Sheldon John Thornton and Masao Yoshida John Edwards Philips is professor of international society Hirosaki University and author of Spurious Arabic Hausa and Colonial Nigeria Madison University of Wisconsin African Studies Center 2000 South Sudan Edward Thomas,2015-01-08 In 2011 South Sudan became independent following a long war of liberation that gradually became marked by looting raids and massacres pitting ethnic communities against each other In this remarkably comprehensive work Edward Thomas provides a multi layered examination of what is happening in the country today Writing from the perspective of South Sudan s most mutinous hinterland Jonglei state the book explains how this area was at the heart of South Sudan s struggle Drawing on hundreds of interviews and a broad range of sources this book gives a sharply focused fresh account of South Sudan s long unfinished fight for liberation The Environment and Development in Africa Moses K. Tesi,2000-01-01 The premise of The Environment and Development in Africa is that current environmental problems in sub Saharan Africa are an outcome of the continent s development activities Whether these activities have generated economic growth and raised living standards or have led to growth without overall increases in living standards or have even contributed to a decline in people s well being developments in that region have produced effects that have degraded Africa s environment in many ways This book presents a comprehensive and systematic analysis of the context of the environmental issues facing sub Saharan African states Contributors discuss the problems associated with generating the capacity to manage Africa s environmental concerns assess the impact of economic development efforts on the region s environment and examine various societal and policy responses to environmental problems and to development problems linked to ecological decay This is an important book for scholars and policy advisors concerned with African studies and global environmental issues The Politics of Knowledge David L. Szanton,2004-09-20 The usefulness and political implications of Area Studies programs are currently debated within the Academy and the Administration where they are often treated as one homogenous and stagnant domain of scholarship The essays in this volume document the various fields distinctive character and internal heterogeneity as well as the dynamism resulting from their evolving engagements with funders US and international politics and domestic constituencies The authors were chosen for their long standing interest in the intellectual evolution of their fields They describe the origins and histories of US based Area Studies programs highlighting their complex generative and sometimes contentious relationships with the social science and humanities disciplines and their diverse contributions to the regions of the world with which they are concerned Routledge Handbook of Global Economic History Francesco Boldizzoni,Pat

Hudson,2015-12-22 The Routledge Handbook of Global Economic History documents and interprets the development of economic history as a global discipline from the later nineteenth century to the present day Exploring the normative and relativistic nature of different schools and traditions of thought this handbook not only examines current paradigmatic western approaches but also those conceived in less open societies and in varied economic political and cultural contexts In doing so this book clears the way for greater critical understanding and a more genuinely global approach to economic history This handbook brings together leading international contributors in order to systematically address cultural and intellectual traditions around the globe Many of these are exposed for consideration for the first time in English The chapters explore dominant ideas and historiographical trends and open them up to critical transnational perspectives This volume is essential reading for both academics and students in economic and social history As this field of study is very much a bridge between the social sciences and humanities the issues examined in the book will also have relevance for those seeking to understand the evolution of other academic disciplines under the pressures of varied economic political and cultural circumstances on both national and global scales Communications in Africa, 1880-1939, Volume 5 David Sunderland,2017-07-05 This collection presents rare documents relating to the development of various forms of communication across Africa by the British as part of their economic investment in Africa Railways and waterways are examined A Modern Economic History of Africa Paul T.
