Rethinking Romantic Love Begonya Enguix,Jordi Roca,2016-11-14 This volume is the result of a thorough exploration of contemporary conceptions of romantic love from different points of view Beginning with an initial text where the meanings of romantic love are discussed theoretically and historically the contributions gathered here present current discussions about love in the present day and in different geographical contexts that range from Hungary to Italy or Spain The first part of the book is devoted to the analysis of mobilities for the sake of love as a result of globalization These mobilities are analysed in relation to love ideals to gender equality and to online searches for the ideal partners The second part of the book deals with the exploration of different imaginaries of love in particular geographical contexts The topics dealt with here include love as sickness love and violence love ideals for men engaged in gender equality and love ideals for those who engage in cross dressing practices In the third part writing about and for love is addressed Love writings to the beloved dead teenage girls blogs and bestsellers such as Fifty Shades of Grey are discussed in particular detail This book addresses current conceptions of romantic love in different social groups through different practices and in different countries and shows that despite the variability of discourses experiences and practices related to love a number of ideas of what love should be like related to the Western ideals of romantic love persist in all these contexts The contributions to this volume are derived from extensive fieldwork and ethnographic research and will be of undoubted interest for the academic milieu However given the topic it deals with the book will also appeal to the general public who will find in these pages many love stories derived from the detailed study of the society which we inhabit and the ideals of love that we breathe

Adaptation Studies Christa Albrecht-Crane, Dennis Ray Cutchins, 2010-07-31 The volume takes as its starting point the assumption that adapters cannot simply transpose or transfer one particular text from one medium to another They must interpret re work and re imagine the precursor text in order to choose the various meanings and sensations they find most compelling or most cost effective then they create scenes characters plot elements etc that match their interpretation These very relationships are the subject matter this collection seeks to explore Poststructural theory is an ideal place to begin a rigorous and theoretically sound investigation of adaptation As adaptation studies adopts a poststructuralist lens and defines this richer notion of intertextuality some of its key assumptions will change Adaptation scholars will recognize that all film adaptations are intertextual by definition multivocal by necessity and adaptive by their nature Women and Women's Issues in Post World War II Japan Edward R. Beauchamp, 1998 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Harlequin Love Inspired December 2018 - Box Set 1 of 2 Vannetta Chapman, Linda Goodnight, Ruth Logan Herne, Deb Kastner, 2018-12-01 Love Inspired brings you three new titles Enjoy these uplifting contemporary romances of faith forgiveness and hope AMISH CHRISTMAS MEMORIES Indiana Amish Brides by Vannetta Chapman While mending a fence on his farm Caleb Wittmer discovers an Amish woman stumbling down the snowy road with no coat no kapp and no memory Now he has one Christmas goal help her remember her past so he can return to his uncomplicated life but his heart has other plans A COWBOY CHRISTMAS by Linda Goodnight and Ruth Logan Herne Spend

Kelly,2011-08-02 In 1500 as many as 99 out of 100 English women may have been illiterate and girls of all social backgrounds were the objects of purposeful efforts to restrict their access to full literacy Three centuries later more than half of all English and Anglo American women could read and the female reader was emerging as a cultural ideal and a market force While scholars have written extensively about women s reading in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and about women s writing in the early modern period they have not attended sufficiently to the critical transformation that took place as female readers and their reading assumed significant cultural and economic power Reading Women brings into conversation the latest scholarship by early modernists and early Americanists on the role of gender in the production and consumption of texts during this expansion of female readership Drawing together historians and literary scholars the essays share a concern with local specificity and material culture Removing women from the historically inaccurate frame of exclusively solitary silent reading the authors collectively return their subjects to the activities that so often coincided with reading shopping sewing talking writing performing and collecting With chapters on samplers storytelling testimony and translation the volume expands notions of reading and literacy and it insists upon a rich and varied narrative that crosses disciplinary boundaries and national borders
