Foreign Area Studies,1978 No Shame for the Sun Shahla Haeri,2002-11-01 This groundbreaking work sheds new light on the status conflicts and social realities of educated Muslim women in Pakistan

Six candid interviews introduce readers to a class of professional Muslim women that is rarely if ever acknowledged in the West. These women tell of conflicts and compromises with family kin and community while facing violence, archaic marriage rules and locally entrenched codes of conduct. With brave eloquence they speak of human dignity and gender equality of economic deprivation and social justice and of feminism and fundamentalism. Challenging stereotypes, No Shame for the Sun reveals the uniqueness of each person and diversity in the life experience of Pakistani Muslim women including their world views and the struggles to change their society. Through their struggles professional Pakistani women have become conscious of their own and other women's situations in their country. Because they exercise power and authority in their chosen fields they risk losing their families' support and antagonizing their communities. Carefully detailed and meticulously researched, this book offers a much needed perspective on the changing circumstances of Pakistani women along with a view of established patterns and structural constraints within Pakistan. On a broader level it examines Western misconceptions regarding Islam, a religion that crosses many borders and cultures.
