The Modern Ladies' Compendium Jo Nesbitt, 1986 The Problem of Women in Early Modern Japan Marcia Yonemoto, 2016-09-27 Early modern Japan was a military bureaucratic state governed by patriarchal and patrilineal principles and laws During this time however women had considerable power to directly affect social structure political practice and economic production This apparent contradiction between official norms and experienced realities lies at the heart of The Problem of Women in Early Modern Japan Examining prescriptive literature and instructional manuals for women as well as diaries memoirs and letters written by and about individual women from the late seventeenth century to the early nineteenth century Marcia Yonemoto explores the dynamic nature of Japanese women's lives during the early modern era The Modern Woman Revisited Whitney Chadwick, Tirza True Latimer, 2003 Between the two world wars Paris served as the setting for unparalleled freedom for expatriate as well as native born French women who enjoyed unprecedented access to education and opportunities to participate in public artistic and intellectual life Many of these women including Colette Tamara de Lempicka Sonia Delaunay Djuna Barnes Augusta Savage and Lee Miller made lasting contributions to art and literature The Mughal Aviary: Women's Writings in Pre-Modern India Sabiha Huq, 2022-04-15 This volume delves into the literary lives of four Muslim women in pre modern India Three of them Gulbadan Begam 1523 1603 the youngest daughter of Emperor Babur Jahanara 1614 1681 the eldest daughter of Emperor Shah Jahan and Zeb un Nissa 1638 1702 the eldest daughter of Emperor Aurangzeb belonged to royalty Thus they were inhabitants of the Mughal zenana an enigmatic liminal space of qualified autonomy and complex equations of gender politics Amidst such constructs Gulbadan Begam's Humayun Nama biography of her half brother Humayun reflecting on the lives of Babur's wives and daughters Jahanara's hagiographies glorifying Mughal monarchy and Zeb un Nissa's free spirited poetry that landed her in Aurangzeb's prison are discursive literary outputs from a position of gendered subalternity While the subjective selves of these women never much surfaced under extant rigid conventions their indomitable understanding of home world antinomies determinedly emerge from their works This monograph explores the political imagination of these Mughal women that was constructed through statist interactions of their royal fathers and brothers and how such knowledge percolated through the relatively cloistered communal life of the zenana The fourth woman Habba Khatoon 1554 1609 famously known as the Nightingale of Kashmir offers an interesting counterpoint to her royal peers As a common woman who married into royalty her husband Yusuf Shah Chak was the ruler of Kashmir in 1579 1586 her happiness was short lived with her husband being treacherously exiled by Emperor Akbar Khatoon's verse which voices the pangs of separation was that of an ascetic who allegedly roamed the valley and is famed to have introduced the lol lyric into Kashmiri poetry Across genres and social positions of all these writers this volume intends to cast hitherto unfocused light on the emergent literary sensibilities shown by Muslim women in pre modern India Life Stories of Women Artists, 1550-1800 Julia K. Dabbs, 2020-08-18 The struggles and achievements of forty six notable women artists of the early modern period as documented by their contemporaries are uniquely brought together in this anthology The life stories presented here are foundational texts for the history of art but since most are found only in rare volumes and few have been translated into English until now they have been generally inaccessible to many scholars Originally published in biographical compendia such as Vasari's Lives of the Artists the writings included here document not only the lives of relatively well known women artists such as Artemisia Gentileschi and Sofonisba Anguissola but also those who have languished in obscurity like Anna Waser and Li Yin Each life story is preceded by a brief introduction to the artist as well as to her biographer and the texts themselves are annotated to provide necessary clarification Beyond their documentary value these stories provide fascinating insight as to how men commonly characterized women artists as exceptions to their sex and attempted to explain their presence in the male dominated realm of art The introductory chapter to the book explores this intriguing gender dynamic and elucidates some of the strategies and historical context that factored into the composition of these lives The volume includes an appended index to women artists life stories in biographical compendia of the period
