Modern Mass Media Machine:

The New Media Theory Reader Hassan, Robert, Thomas, Julian, 2006-09-01 The study of new media opens up some of the most fascinating issues in contemporary culture bringing together key readings on new media what it is where it came from how it affects our lives and how it is managed It encourages readers to pay attention to the new in new media as well as consider it as a historical phenomenon

The Language of New Media Lev Manovich, 2002-02-22 A stimulating eclectic account of new media that finds its origins in old media particularly the cinema In this book Lev Manovich offers the first systematic and rigorous theory of new media He places new media within the histories of visual and media cultures of the last few centuries He discusses new media's reliance on conventions of old media such as the rectangular frame and mobile camera and shows how new media works create the illusion of reality address the viewer and represent space He also analyzes categories and forms unique to new media such as interface and database Manovich uses concepts from film theory art history literary theory and computer science and also develops new theoretical constructs such as cultural interface spatial montage and cinegratography The theory and history of cinema play a particularly important role in the book Among other topics Manovich discusses parallels between the histories of cinema and of new media digital cinema screen and montage in cinema and in new media and historical ties between avant garde film and new media

The Blackface Minstrel Show in Mass Media Tim Brooks, 2019-11-29 The minstrel show occupies a complex and controversial space in the history of American popular culture Today considered a shameful relic of America's racist past it nonetheless offered many black performers of the 19th and early 20th centuries their only opportunity to succeed in a white dominated entertainment world where white performers in blackface had by the 1830s established minstrelsy as an enduringly popular national art form This book traces the often overlooked history of the modern minstrel show through the advent of 20th century mass media when stars like Al Jolson Bing Crosby and Mickey Rooney continued a long tradition of affecting black music dance and theatrical styles for mainly white audiences to its abrupt end in the 1950s A companion two CD reissue of recordings discussed in the book is available from Archeophone Records at www.archeophone.com

Breaks in the Air John Klaess, 2022-08-22 In Breaks in the Air John Klaess tells the story of rap s emergence on New York City s airwaves by examining how artists and broadcasters adapted hip hop s performance culture to radio Initially artists and DJs brought their live practice to radio by buying time on low bandwidth community stations and building new communities around their shows Later stations owned by New York s African American elite such as WBLS reluctantly began airing rap even as they pursued a sound rooted in respectability urban sophistication and polish At the same time large commercial stations like WRKS programmed rap once it became clear that the music attracted a demographic that was valuable to advertisers Moving between intimate portraits of single radio shows and broader examinations of the legal financial cultural and political forces that indelibly shaped the sound of rap radio Klaess shows how early rap radio provides a lens through which to better understand the development of rap music as well as the intertwined histories of sounds institutions communities and legal formations that converged in the post Civil Rights era

Lutz Peter Koepnick, Erin Heather McGlothlin, 2009 New essays providing innovative ways of understanding the altered position of media in Germany and beyond The term new media is a current buzzword among scholars and in the media industry referring to the ever multiplying digitized modes of film image and sound production and distribution Yet how new in fact are these new media and how does their rise affect the role of older media What new theories allow us to examine our culture of ubiquitous electronic screens and networked pleasures Is a completely new set of perspectives concepts and paradigms required or are older modes of discussion about the relationship between technology and art still adequate This book reconsiders the seminal work of German media theorists such as Adorno Benjamin and Kracauer in order to explore today's rapidly changing mediascape questioning the naive progressivism that informs much of today's discourse about media technologies The contributions by internationally recognized critics from a variety of academic fields encourage a view of the history of media as structured by difference complexity and multiplicity Together they offer intriguing ways of understanding the changed position of media in today's Germany and beyond Contributors Nora M Alter Michel Chaouli Diedrich Diederichsen Sabine Eckmann Margit Grieb Boris Groys Juliet Koss Richard Langston Lev Manovich Todd Presner Juliane Rebentisch Carsten Strathausen Lutz Koepnick is Professor of German Film and Media Studies and Erin McGlothlin is Associate Professor of German and Jewish Studies both at Washington University in St Louis
