Modern Music The Avant Garde Since 1945:

Modern Music Paul Griffiths, 1986      The Pleasure of Modernist Music Arved Mark Ashby, 2004 The debate over modernist music has continued for almost a century from Berg's Wozzeck and Webern's Symphony Op 21 to John Cage's renegotiation of musical control the unusual musical practices of the Velvet Underground and Stanley Kubrick's use of Ligeti's Lux Aeterna in the epic film 2001 The composers discussed in these pages including Bartók Stockhausen Bernard Herrmann Steve Reich and many others are modernists in that they are defined by their individualism whether covert or overt and share a basic urge toward redesigning musical discourse The aim of this volume is to negotiate a varied and open middle ground between polemical extremes of reception The contributors sketch out the possible significance of a repertory that in past discussions has been deemed either meaningless or beyond describable meaning With an emphasis on recent aesthetics and contexts including film music sexuality metaphor and ideas of a listening grammar they trace the meanings that such works and composers have held for listeners of different kinds None of them takes up the usual mandate of educated listening to modernist works the notion that a person can appreciate difficult music if given enough time and schooling Instead the book defines novel but meaningful avenues of significance for modernist music avenues beyond those deemed appropriate or acceptable by the academy While some contributors offer new listening strategies most interpret the listening premise more loosely as a metaphor for any manner of personal and immediate connection with music In addition to a previously untranslated article by Pierre Boulez the volume contains articles all but one previously unpublished by twelve distinctive and prominent composers music critics and music theorists from America Europe Australia and South Africa Arved Ashby Amy Bauer William Bolcom Jonathan Bernard Judy Lochhead Fred Maus Andrew Mead Greg Sandow Martin Scherzinger Jeremy Tambling Richard Toop and Lloyd Whitesell Arved Ashby is Associate Professor of Music at the Ohio State University      Modern Music and After Paul Griffiths, 2011-02-16 Over three decades Paul Griffiths's survey has remained the definitive study of music since the Second World War this fully revised and updated edition re-establishes Modern Music and After as the preeminent introduction to the music of our time The disruptions of the war and the struggles of the ensuing peace were reflected in the music of the time in Pierre Boulez's radical reformation of compositional technique and in John Cage's development of zen music in Milton Babbitt's settling of the serial system and in Dmitry Shostakovich's unsettling symphonies in Karlheinz Stockhausen's development of electronic music and in Luigi Nono's pursuit of the universally human in Iannis Xenakis's view of music as sounding mathematics and in Luciano Berio's consideration of it as language The initiatives of these composers and their contemporaries opened prospects that haven't yet stopped unfolding This constant expansion of musical thinking since 1945 has left us with no singular history of music Griffiths's study accordingly follows several different paths showing how and why they converge and diverge This new edition of Modern Music and After discusses not only the music of the fifteen years that have passed since the previous edition but also the recent explosion of scholarly interest in the latter half of the twentieth century In particular the book has been expanded to incorporate the variety of responses to the modernist impasse experienced by composers of the 1980s and 1990s Griffiths then moves the book into the twenty first century as he examines such highly influential composers as Helmut Lachenmann and Salvatore Sciarrino For its breadth wealth of detail and characteristic wit and clarity the third edition of Modern Music and After is required reading for the student and the enquiring listener

Anthony

Sheppard,2001-02-01 W Anthony Sheppard considers a wide ranging constellation of important musical works in this fascinating exploration of ritualized performance in twentieth century music Revealing Masks uncovers the range of political didactic and aesthetic intents that inspired the creators of modernist music theater Sheppard is especially interested in the use of the exotic in techniques of masking and stylization identifying Japanese Noh medieval Christian drama and ancient Greek theater as the most prominent exotic models for the creation of total theater Drawing on an extraordinarily diverse and in some instances little known range of music theater pieces Sheppard cites the work of Igor Stravinsky Benjamin Britten Arthur Honegger Peter Maxwell Davies Harry Partch and Leonard Bernstein as well as Andrew Lloyd Webber and Madonna Artists in literature theater and dance such as William Butler Yeats Paul Claudel Bertolt Brecht Isadora Duncan Ida Rubenstein and Edward Gordon Craig also play a significant role in this study Sheppard poses challenging questions that will interest readers beyond those in the field of music scholarship For example what is the effect on the audience and the performers of depersonalizing ritual elements Does borrowing from foreign cultures inevitably amount to a kind of predatory appropriation Revealing Masks shows that compositional concerns and cultural themes manifested in music theater are central to the history of twentieth century Euro American music drama and dance      The Last Opera Chandler

Carter,2019-05-31 From the fall of 1947 through the summer of 1951 composer Igor Stravinsky and poet W H Auden collaborated on the opera The Rake's Progress At the time their self consciously conventional work seemed to appeal only to conservative audiences Few perceived that Stravinsky and Auden were confronting the central crisis of the Modern age for their story of a hapless eighteenth century Everyman dramatizes the very limits of human will a theme Auden insists underlies all opera In The Last Opera Chandler Carter weaves together three interlocking stories The central and most detailed story explores the libretto and music of The Rake's Progress The second positions the opera as a focal point in Stravinsky's artistic journey and those who helped him realize it his librettists Auden and Chester Kallman his protégé Robert Craft and his compatriot fellow composer and close friend Nicolas Nabokov By exploring the ominous cultural landscape in which these fascinating individuals lived and worked the book captures a pivotal twenty five year span from approximately 1945 to 1970 during which modernists like Stravinsky and Auden confronted a tectonic disruption to their artistic worldview Ultimately Carter reveals how these stories fit into a larger third narrative the 400 year history of opera This richly and lovingly contextualized study of The Rake's Progress sheds new light on why despite the hundreds of musical dramas and theater pieces that have been written since its premier in 1951 this work is still considered the the last opera
