Modern Africa Change And Continuity:

Modern Africa Richard W. Hull,1980-01-01 A History of Modern Africa Richard J. Reid,2020-01-09 The new fully updated edition of the acclaimed textbook covering 200 years of African history A History of Modern Africa explores two centuries of the continent s political economic and social history This thorough yet accessible text help readers to understand key concepts recognize significant themes and identify the processes that shaped the modern history of Africa Emphasis is placed on the consequences of colonial rule and the links between the precolonial and postcolonial eras Author Richard Reid a prominent scholar and historian on the subject argues that Africa s struggle for economic and political stability in the nineteenth century escalated and intensified through the twentieth century the effects of which are still felt in the present day The new third edition offers substantial updates and revisions that consider recent events and historiography Greater emphasis is placed on African agency particularly during the colonial period and the importance of the long term militarization of African political culture Discussions of the postcolonial period have been updated to reflect recent developments including those in North Africa Adopting a long term approach to current African issues this text Explores the legacies of the nineteenth century and the colonial period in the context of the contemporary era Highlights the role of nineteenth century and long term internal dynamics in Africa s modern challenges Combines recent scholarship with concise and effective narrative Features maps illustrations expanded references and comprehensive endnotes A History of Modern Africa 1800 to the Present 3rd Edition is an excellent introduction to the subject for undergraduate students in relevant courses and for general readers with interest in modern African history and current affairs Consensus, Conflict, and Change Margaret Peil,Olatunji Y. Oyeneye,1998 Two very distinguished sociologists here undertake an extensive and comparative examination of African societies from a sociological perspective addressing the various aspects and agents of transformation The study is against the background of the transformation of African societies triggered by such factors as dysfunctions within values beliefs and norms general economic and political factors and adjustments due to external forces particularly new culture and technologies The issues are examined from the perspective that democratisation modernisation and globalisation are forces influencing African societies whilst traditional values and cultures produce a conflict of interest The chapters cover social organisation interaction differentiation families education religion economic activities cities social problems and social change African Filmmaking Roy Armes,2006-08-07 Armes offers a wealth of information and a unique perspective on the history and future of African filmmaking The Origins and Development of African Theology Gwinyai H. Muzorewa,2000-04-05 The Origins and Development of African theology is a very informative survey of African theology over approximately the last twenty years The author is widely read on the subject as far as English publications go and highlights the salient issues with balanced objectivity The literature both as discussed in the substance of the book and in the bibliography is also a valuable source for further study of African theology John Mbiti author of Prayers of African Religion Contested Karoo: Interdisciplinary perspectives on change and continuity in South Africa's drylands

Cherryl Walker, M Timm Hoffman, 2024-05-15 This interdisciplinary collection explores significant land use changes in South Africa's semi arid Karoo region and their implications for social justice and the environment across different scales. It brings together recent scholarship by established and younger researchers in both the social and the natural sciences to examine the ways in which the Karoo is being reconfigured as a new resource frontier and the tensions and contestations that result. Along with ongoing mining major investments in astronomy notably the Square Kilometre Array radio telescope in renewable and non renewable sources of energy solar wind potential shale gas mining in biodiversity conservation and commercial game farming are reshaping land use and authority in this vast and long marginalised area. While promising significant benefits to society at large these developments are built on older histories of dispossession and extractivism histories that many Karoo residents fear are being reproduced in new forms today. Collectively these dynamics place this unique region at the centre of national and global concerns around climate change the politics of knowledge production the conservation of threatened biodiversity and the meaning and possibility of sustainable development. These issues are explored through a series of case studies of selected developments complemented by chapters providing more historical context and general overviews. While challenging perceptions of this region as a peripheral wasteland this collection raises conceptual and policy questions that resonate far beyond the Karoo itself. It also highlights the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration in research aimed not only at understanding but also at responding appropriately to the mounting challenges of our time.

Seven Myths of Africa in World History David Northrup, 2017-09-01 Northrup's highly accessible book breaks through the most common barriers that readers encounter in studying African history. Each chapter takes on a common myth about Africa and explains both the sources of the myth and the research that debunks it. These provocative chapters will promote lively discussions among readers while deepening their understanding of African and world history. The book is strengthened by its incorporation of actors and issues representing the African diaspora and African Americans in particular. Rebecca Shumway College of Charleston Kwame Nkrumah and Félix Houphouët-Boigny Dadoua Aboussou, 2019-08-29 This book discusses the divergent approaches to the concepts of African independence and unity adopted by two great African leaders namely the former President of Ghana Kwame Nkrumah and the former president of the Ivory Coast Félix Houphouët Boigny. It identifies the impact their differences have had on various facets of African socio political life since independence. The book also explores why in spite of its various human agricultural and mineral resources Africa is still ranked as the poorest continent in the world. WHY DO PEOPLE FLEE? David Feindouno, 2024-12-15 It's a reality that the world is divided. An important thing we need to do is to influence people from a position of HATE to a position of ACCEPTANCE. Is this realistic when many have unanswered questions and a strong disapproval of people's movement and displacement. Unaware of the motive people cross borders from the first displacement across nation states to the first aliens acts in many countries.

followed by subsequent immigration acts and legislations to restrain human movement prevailing social cohesion Unaware of the root causes of displacement this provokes behaviours leading people to focus on human differences portraying migrants not only as a threat to society but also how troublesome they are As a society gaining knowledge is a step closer to ACCEPTANCE fostering cohesion With the lack of cohesion we give room to discrimination and racism Racism a result of historical power dynamics and colonialism has snuck its sinister way across the whole history of the human race The transatlantic slave trade the European empire and the colonial expansion all played a role into deepening racial stereotypes in communities around the world Even though those events in question occurred a while back their representation is still being endured nowadays It is without a doubt that the legacy of colonialism has left its stain all over the world from the caste system in India to the persistent persecution experienced by Indigenous groups in Australia and Canada Why Do People Flee addresses the lack of awareness This book helps eradicate divisions based on people s wrong perceptions and therefore contributes to solving the world s problems emphasising on human s behaviour towards one s movements The author s lived experiences can aid in validating the idea that humans are traditionalist by nature protective of their values norms and attached to their cultures They are capable of discriminating against anyone who looks different or anyone who is perceived as a threat to their norms their interests and being To oppose and reject what is often perceived as aliens or invaders they might even go further by committing the worst discriminatory and racist acts to show their disdain for other people whom they know nothing about and whom they believe to be invaders and opportunists Yet the root causes based on our world history remain unknown This book speaks of history narrates world s realities that have impacted and driven our perceptions of the world we live in Commerce and Economic Change in West Africa Martin Lynn,2002-05-02 An authoritative and comprehensive study of the palm oil trade
