R. Rookmaaker, 1994 Modern Art and the Death of a Culture H. R. Rookmaaker, 1985-05 Uses well known and lesser known paintings to show modern art's reflection of a dying culture and how Christian attitudes can create hope in current society Modern Art and the Death of a Culture, PB (vol 5) Marleen Hengelaar-Rookmaaker, 2021-04-04 Rookmaaker's analysis of modern art offers an insightful perspective on the cultural turmoil of the past century and its subsequent impact on today's world Modern Art and the Death of a Culture Art and the Public Today Who's Afraid of Modern Art? Daniel A. Siedell, 2015-01-07 Modern art can be confusing and intimidating even ugly and blasphemous And yet curator and art critic Daniel A Siedell finds something else something much deeper that resonates with the human experience With over thirty essays on such diverse artists as Andy Warhol Thomas Kinkade Diego Velazquez Robyn O Neil Claudia Alvarez and Andrei Rublev Siedell offers a highly personal approach to modern art that is informed by nearly twenty years of experience as a museum curator art historian and educator Siedell combines his experience in the contemporary art world with a theological perspective that serves to deepen the experience of art allowing the work of art to work as art and not covert philosophy or theology or visual illustrations of ideas meanings and worldviews Who's Afraid of Modern Art celebrates the surprising beauty of art that emerges from and embraces pain and suffering if only we take the time to listen Indeed as Siedell reveals a painting is much more than meets the eye So who's afraid of modern art Siedell's answer might surprise you T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God's glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality History as the Story of Freedom Clark Butler, 1997 The purpose of this book is to advance responsible rehabilitation of the speculative philosophy of history It challenges the idea popularized by thinkers such as and Claude Levi Strauss and Jean Francois Lyotard that historical meta mythology and meta narrative are philosophically obsolete As long as humanity viewed anthropologically lives by over arching narrative the quest for a version that survives rational criticism remains vital Here human rights serve as the key to unlock such a version Despite the fact that the Hegelian philosophy of history has often been derided something very similar currently functions as the official ideology of the world community the idea of history as the story of freedom This book does not retell the world historical story of freedom Rather it uncovers it beginning with the current age of human rights and working backward through the great role model civilizations of history Its conclusion is that a forward retelling of the story of freedom as the story of human rights can be justified by dewesternizing the story The book contains critical responses from specialized scholars and representative of selected world cultures The volume includes illustrations and a guest Afterword by Donald Phillip Verene It is a companion volume to the author's Hegel's Logic Between History and Dialectic North western University Press 1996 The Artistic Sphere Roger D. Diffey, Ryan A. Anderson, 2016-11-10 Drawing upon his experiences as both a Christian and an artist Cameron J Anderson traces the relationship between the evangelical church and modern art in postwar America While acknowledging the tensions between faith and visual art he casts a vision for how Christian artists can faithfully pursue their vocational calling in contemporary culture A Theological Odyssey John W. De Gruchy, 2014-09-01 John de Gruchy is one of the greatest and most respected South African theologians of the past five decades His work has left an indelible mark on both the South African and international theological landscapes In this book he describes his theological journey revisiting core themes periods and sources This is an enriching read as De Gruchy engages with some of the greatest theologians in the history of the church notably John Calvin Karl Barth Karl Rahner Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Reinhold Niebuhr as well as with a wide selection of his fellow South African theologians Cas Wepener Modern Art and the Life of a Culture Jonathan A. Anderson, William A. Dyrness, 2016-05-23 In 1970 Hans Rookmaaker published Modern Art and the Death of a Culture a groundbreaking work that considered the role of the Christian artist in society This volume responds to his work by bringing together a practicing artist and a theologian who argue that modernist art is underwritten by deeply religious concerns A Prophet in the Darkness Wesley Vander Lugt, 2024-12-10 In this collection of essays a group of theologians artists and historians explore Georges Rouault s historical context personal suffering and biblical themes showing how his prophetic creativity continues to inspire artists and thinkers today Chapters are interspersed with original artistic responses in the form of imagery and poetry The Symbolist Roots of Modern Art Michelle Facos, 2017-07-05 With the words A new manifestation of art was expected necessary inevitable Jean Mor announced the advent of the Symbolist movement in 1886 When Symbolist artists began experimenting in order to invent new visual languages appropriate for representing modern life in all its complexity they set the stage for innovation in twentieth century art Rejecting what they perceived as the superficial descriptive quality of Impressionism Naturalism and Realism Symbolist artists delved beneath the surface to express feelings ideas scientific processes and universal truths By privileging intangible concepts over perceived realities and by asserting their creative autonomy Symbolist artists broke with the past and paved the way for the heterogeneity and penchant for risk taking that characterizes modern art The essays collected here which consider artists from France to Russia and Finland to Greece argue persuasively that Symbolist approaches to content form and subject helped to shape twentieth century Modernism Well known figures such as Kandinsky Khnopff Matisse and Munch are considered alongside lesser known artists such as Fini Gyzis Koen and Vrubel in order to demonstrate that Symbolist art did not constitute an isolated moment of wild experimentation but rather an inspirational point of departure for twentieth century developments
