Modern Chinese Warfare:

Modern Chinese Warfare, 1795-1989 Bruce A. Elleman, 2001 A survey of Chinese warfare both internal and international from the opium wars of the 1840s through to the end of Vietnam

Modern Chinese Warfare, 1795-1989 Bruce A. Elleman, 2005-07-28 Why did the Chinese empire collapse and why did it take so long for a new government to reunite China Modern Chinese Warfare 1795 1989 seeks to answer these questions by exploring the most important domestic and international conflicts over the past two hundred years from the last half of the Qing empire through to modern day China It reveals how most of China's wars during this period were fought to preserve unity in China and examines their distinctly cyclical pattern of imperial decline domestic chaos and finally the creation of a new unifying dynasty By 1989 this cycle appeared complete but the author asks how long this government will be able to hold power Exposing China as an imperialist country and one which has often manipulated western powers in its favour Bruce Elleman seeks to redress the views of China as a victimised nation

A History of the Modern Chinese Army Xiaobing Li, 2007-06-01 Since the establishment of the Red Army in 1927 China's military has responded to profound changes in Chinese society particularly its domestic politics shifting economy and evolving threat perceptions Recently tensions between China and Taiwan and other east Asian nations have aroused great interest in the extraordinary transformation and new capabilities of the Chinese army In A History of the Modern Chinese Army Xiaobing Li a former member of the People's Liberation Army PLA provides a comprehensive examination of the PLA from the Cold War to the beginning of the twenty first century that highlights the military's central function in modern Chinese society In the 1940s the Chinese army was in its infancy and many soldiers were rural conscripts and volunteers who had received little formal schooling The Chinese military rapidly increased its mobility and weapon strength and the Korean War and Cold War offered intense combat experience that not only allowed soldiers to hone their fighting techniques but also helped China to develop military tactics tailored to the surrounding countries whose armies posed the most immediate threats Yet even in the 1970s the completion of a middle school education nine years was considered above average and only 4 percent of the 224 top Chinese generals had any college credit hours However in 1995 the high command began to institute massive reforms to transform the PLA from a labor intensive force into a technology intensive army Continually seeking more urban conscripts and emphasizing higher education the PLA Reserve Officer Training and Selection program recruited students from across the nation These reservists would become commissioned officers upon graduation and they majored in atomic physics computer science and electrical engineering Grounding the text in previously unreleased official Chinese government and military records as well as the personal testimonies of more than two hundred PLA soldiers Li charts the development of China's armed forces against the backdrop of Chinese society cultural traditions political history and recent technological advancements A History of the Modern Chinese Army links China's military modernization to the country's growing international and economic power and provides a unique perspective on China's establishment and maintenance of one of the world's most advanced military forces Operational Art in Modern Chinese Warfare Peter R. of China revealing how the war and the military have influenced the course of Chinese history Dictionary of Contemporary Chinese Military History Larry M. Wortzel, 1999-09-30 Tracking the evolution of the Red Army through the war against Japan and the Chinese civil war Wortzel's book provides a comprehensive basic reference focusing on the major events people and issues that have produced the historical legacy of the People's Liberation Army Placing contemporary Chinese military history in the context of China's 19th century clashes with the West and Japan Wortzel illustrates how the imposition of unequal treaties by foreign powers conditioned China's 20th century defense forces and actions and explains how the Communist military forces developed It also shows how fractionalization in the Communist military leadership led to the Cultural Revolution and Mao Zedong's purges Drawing on a substantial number of sources available only in Chinese as well as on English language secondary sources the book provides a basic reference aimed at orienting the nonspecialist to the significant events and people in China's recent military history The book will also provide a quick reference for the specialist in Chinese history Chinese Military Theory Chen-Ya Tien, 1992 Contemporary Studies on Modern Chinese History I Zeng Yeying, 2020-10-29 The study of modern Chinese history has developed rapidly in recent decades and has seen increased exploration of new topics and innovative approaches Resulting from a special issue of Modern Chinese History Studies this volume is devoted to showcasing the healthy development of Chinese modern history studies and has already been revised twice in the original language This volume exhibits major achievements on the study of modern Chinese history and shows how the role of history was in debate transformation and re evaluation throughout this tortuous yet prosperous period Articles on eight different topics are collected from 11 prominent historians in order to represent their insights on the developmental paths of Chinese historical studies Drawing on a large number of case studies of critical historical events such as the founding of the Communist Party of China and the May 4th Movement this volume reflects on economic history and military history while moving on to explore more pioneering topics such as intellectual history and cultural history This book will be a valuable reference for scholars and students of Chinese history Contemporary Studies on Modern Chinese History Zeng Yeying, 2021-03-15 The study of modern Chinese history has developed rapidly in recent decades and has seen increased exploration of new topics and innovative approaches Resulting from a special issue of Modern Chinese History Studies this set is devoted to showcasing the healthy development of Chinese modern history studies and has already been revised twice in the original language This three volume set exhibits major achievements on the study of modern Chinese history and shows how the role of history was in debate transformation and re evaluation throughout this tortuous yet prosperous period Articles on 23 different topics are collected from over 30 prominent historians in order to represent their insights on the developmental paths of Chinese historical studies Drawing on a large number of case studies of critical historical events that contribute to the establishment of the People's Republic of China this set offers a panoramic view on the studies of modern Chinese history In addition it incorporates more pioneering topics such as intellectual history cultural history and translations of overseas studies on contemporary Chinese history This set will be a valuable reference for scholars and students of Chinese history Chinese Military Strategy in the Third Indochina War Edward C.

O'Dowd,2007-04-16 This well researched volume examines the Sino Vietnamese hostilities of the late 1970s and 1980s attempting to understand them as strategic operational and tactical events The Sino Vietnamese War was the third Indochina war and contemporary Southeast Asia cannot be properly understood unless we acknowledge that the Vietnamese fought three not two wars to establish their current role in the region The war was not about the Sino Vietnamese border as frequently claimed but about China s support for its Cambodian ally the Khmer Rouge and the book addresses US and ASEAN involvement in the effort to support the regime Although the Chinese completed their troop withdrawal in March 1979 they retained their strategic goal of driving Vietnam out of Cambodia at least until 1988 but it was evident by 1984 85 that the PLA held back by the drag of its Maoist organization doctrine equipment and personnel was not an effective instrument of coercion Chinese Military Strategy in the Third Indochina War will be of great interest to all students of the Third Indochina War Asian political history Chinese security and strategic studies in general Chinese Communist Studies of Modern Chinese History Albert Feuerwerker,S. A Military History of the Cold War, 1944-1962 Jonathan M. House,2014-04-28 The Cold War did not culminate in World War III as so many in the 1950s and 1960s feared yet it spawned a host of military engagements that affected millions of lives This book is the first comprehensive multinational overview of military affairs during the early Cold War beginning with conflicts during World War II in Warsaw Athens and Saigon and ending with the Cuban Missile Crisis A major theme of this account is the relationship between government policy and military preparedness and strategy Author Jonathan M House tells of generals engaging in policy confrontations with their governments political leaders among them Anthony Eden Nikita Khrushchev and John F Kennedy many of whom made military decisions that hamstrung their own political goals In the pressure cooker atmosphere of atomic preparedness politicians as well as soldiers seemed instinctively to prefer military solutions to political problems And national security policies had military implications that took on a life of their own The invasion of South Korea convinced European policy makers that effective deterrence and containment required building up and maintaining credible forces Desire to strengthen the North Atlantic alliance militarily accelerated the rearmament of West Germany and the drive for its sovereignty In addition to examining the major confrontations nuclear and conventional between Washington Moscow and Beijing including the crises over Berlin and Formosa House traces often overlooked military operations against the insurgencies of the era such as French efforts in Indochina and Algeria and British struggles in Malaya Kenya Cyprus and Aden Now more than fifty years after the events House describes understanding the origins and trajectory of the Cold War is as important as ever By the late 1950s the United States had sent forces to Vietnam and the Middle East setting the stage for future conflicts in both regions House's account of the complex relationship between diplomacy and military action directly relates to the insurgencies counterinsurgencies and confrontations that now occupy our attention across the globe From Red Cliffs to Chosin: the Chinese Way Of War Major James G. Pangelinan, 2015-11-06 This monograph examines Chinese warfare and suggests that three and a half millennia of Chinese military history have produced a distinctive and enduring Chinese Way Of War While the art and science of war in China have evolved considerably throughout its history the characteristics and philosophies of its style of warfare contain some propensities that endure from antiquity to the present They are The Chinese military orientation focuses more on the strategic and operational levels of war than the tactical The Chinese prefer strategic maneuver warfare to attritional or other forms of warfare Chinese warfare emphasizes the importance of shaping operations the arrangement of the conditions of the war campaign or battlefield in one's favor before initiating combat Finally deception and unorthodox warfare play a leading role in Chinese martial philosophy and conduct of war These four propensities of the Chinese way of war are general trends that emerge when the entire span of Chinese warfare is broadly considered Rooted in the philosophy and theories of the great military classics of ancient Chinese these propensities provide continuities in the war fighting styles traditions and preferences of Chinese armies throughout history While none of the four propensities of Chinese warfare are practiced by China alone when aggregated they form a broad approach to war fighting that is unlike that of any other country in the world The distinctiveness of the Chinese way of war is a product of China's unique cultural traditions religious and social philosophies and historical evolution 21st Century Chinese Cyberwarfare William Hagestad II, 2012-03-05 21st Century Chinese Cyberwarfare draws from a combination of business cultural historical and linguistic sources as well as the author's personal experience to attempt to explain China to the uninitiated The objective of the book is to present the salient information regarding the use of cyber warfare doctrine by the People's Republic of China to promote its own interests and enforce its political military and economic will on other nation states The threat of Chinese Cyberwarfare can no longer be ignored It is a clear and present danger to the experienced and innocent alike and will be economically societally and culturally changing and damaging for the nations that are targeted China's Use of Military Force in Foreign Affairs Markus B. Liegl, 2017-03-16 This book explains why China has resorted to the use of large scale military force in foreign affairs How will China use its growing military might in coming crisis and existing conflicts This book contributes to the current debate on the future of the Asia Pacific region by examining why China has resorted to using military force in the past Utilizing fresh theoretical insights on the causes of interstate war and employing a sophisticated methodological framework the book provides detailed analyses of China's intervention in the Korean War the Sino Indian War China's border clashes with the Soviet Union and the Sino Vietnamese War It argues that China did not employ military force in these wars for the sake of national security or because of material issues under contestation as frequently claimed Rather the book's findings strongly suggest that considerations about China's international status and relative standing are the principal reasons for China's decision to engage in military force in these instances. When reflecting the study's central insight back onto China's contemporary territorial conflicts and problematic bilateral relationships, it is argued that the People's Republic is still a status seeking and thus highly status sensitive actor. As a result, China's status ambitions should be very carefully observed and well taken into account when interacting with the PRC. This book will be of much interest to students of Chinese foreign policy, Asian politics, military and strategic studies, and IR in general.

Contemporary Studies on Modern Chinese

History III Zeng Yeying, 2021-03-14. The study of modern Chinese history has developed rapidly in recent decades and has seen increased exploration of new topics and innovative approaches. Resulting from a special issue of Modern Chinese History Studies, this volume is devoted to showcasing the healthy development of Chinese modern history studies and has already been revised twice in the original language. This three-volume set exhibits major achievements in the study of modern Chinese history and shows how the role of history has been in debate, transformation, and re-evaluation throughout this tortuous yet prosperous period. This volume investigates the critical movements such as the Taiping Heavenly Kingdom Movement and the Chinese People's War of Resistance against Japanese aggression that contribute to the establishment of the People's Republic of China. In addition, it includes valuable summaries of various perspectives in modern Chinese history studies such as the translation of overseas studies and pioneering topics that historians have examined between 2009 and 2019. This book will benefit scholars and students of Chinese history, especially those who are interested in modern Chinese history.

Modern Chinese Defence Strategy Rosita Dellios, 1989-06-18. The author argues that the Chinese believe in the strategy of people's war under modern conditions and are confident that middle-range technology and unconventional warfare and the combination of the human and weapon factors represent a successful application of the strategy.
