Counternarratives Henry A. Giroux, Colin Lankshear, Peter McLaren, Michael Peters, 2013-05-13 To understand contemporary times we must appreciate the extent to which our lives are affected by the cultural and political struggle between official narratives and the counternarratives which emerge as oppositional responses Counternarratives develops a concept of postmodern counternarratives as a frame for exploring the politics of media technology and education within everyday struggles for human identities and loyalties The authors identify two forms of counternarratives One functions as a critique of the modernist propensity for grand narratives The second concept which is the focus of the book builds on the first the idea of little stories addressing cultural and political opposition to the official narratives used to manipulate public consciousness Each marks an important point of contestation within contemporary education and culture curriculum pedagogy literacy media representations and applications of new technologies On the Future of History Ernst

Breisach, 2007-11-01 What does postmodernism mean for the future of history Can one still write history in postmodernity To answer questions such as these Ernst Breisach provides the first comprehensive overview of postmodernism and its complex relationship to history and historiography Placing postmodern theories in their intellectual and historical contexts he shows how they are part of broad developments in Western culture Breisach sees postmodernism as neither just a fad nor a universal remedy In clear and concise language he presents and critically evaluates the major views on history held by influential postmodernists such as Derrida Foucault Lyotard and the new narrativists Along the way he introduces to the reader major debates among historians over postmodern theories of evidence objectivity meaning and order truth and the usefulness of history He also discusses new types of history that have emerged as a consequence of postmodernism including cultural history microhistory and new historicism For anyone concerned with the postmodern challenge to history both advocates and critics alike On the Future of History will be a welcome guide Postmodern and Poststructural Approaches to Nursing Research Julianne Cheek, 1999-11-18 In the first three chapters the author examines definitions of postmodern and postcultural approaches and ways in which they can be used to influence and inform us about health care Chapters 4 and 5 look at the practical aspects of proposing and carrying out research projects using these approaches Cheek concludes by reviewing the intellectual journey required in coming to grips with the meaning and application of these approaches and she suggests ways in which the reader can continue to grow in his or her pursuit BOOK JACKET The Learning Society in a Postmodern World Kenneth Wain, 2004 Lifelong learning has become a key concern as the focus of educational policy has shifted from mass schooling toward the learning society The shift started in the mid 1960s and early 1970s under the impetus of a group of writers and adult educators gravitating around UNESCO with a humanist philosophy and a leftist agenda The vocabulary of that movement was appropriated in the 1990s by other interests with a very different performativist agenda emphasizing effectiveness and economic outcomes This change of interest described in the book has signified the death of education The Learning Society in a Postmodern World explores different theoretical resources to respond to this situation mainly those that propose some restoration of an educated public or to the contrary individual self creation and uses the works of a broad range of philosophers and thinkers notably MacIntyre Habermas Foucault Derrida Rorty and Baudrillard In addition it raises important questions about postmodern and poststructuralist responses to education in the postmodern world Its comprehensiveness and historical background make it an essential textbook for theoretical courses in lifelong learning and in educational theory in general A broad range of interests and subject matter make it important reading for educators policy specialists media specialists researchers on the subject of lifelong learning and on the relation between education and the postmodern world political theorists philosophers and philosophers of education
