Modern French Poetry A Bilingual Anthology:

Modern French Poetry Patricia Terry, Serge Gavronsky, 1992 Modern French Poetry Dorothy Brown Aspinwall, 1975 Modern French Poetry Martin Sorrell, 1992 A cross section of twentieth century French poetry reflecting its rich diversity of subject matter form and style Writing the real Nina Parish, Emma Wagstaff, 2016 Since the 1960s poetry in French has been understood in terms of two competing approaches searching for presence on the one hand litt ralit refiguring the everyday on the other Contemporary forms of both are found in this anthology from the new lyricism of Bonhomme and Maulpoix to the refracted politics of post poetry in Tarkos and Gleize The dichotomy however quickly breaks down and many poets refuse to be categorised in this way recent publications include the interdisciplinary and collaborative work of poets such as Alferi Chaton Game and Macher the focus on formal constraint in M tail and Espitallier Portugal s exploration of the impact of new technologies Writing the Real features 18 key contemporary French language poets alongside English translations by leading poets and translators Elles Martin Sorrell, 1995 Elles introduces English speaking readers to some of the best French poetry published by women over the last twenty years Each poet introduces herself with an essay on her conception of poetry and her own position as writer Modern Poets of France Louis Simpson, 1997 In this bilingual anthology editor and translator Simpson selects those masterpieces of French poetry that formed the taste of generations of readers throughout the world Here are the moderns of 1848 the Symbolist poets of the turn of the century the Dadaists and the Surrealists who flourished in the 1930 s Also included are biographies of the poets and descriptions of main literary movements Story Line Press Twentieth-Century French Poetry Hugues Az  rad, Peter Collier, 2010-05-20 Modern French poetry is unique in the boldness and creativity of its experiments in form and genre from classical verse to vers libre from calligrammes to prose poems and po sie sonore This anthology includes 32 poems by French and francophone poets each followed by an accessibly written detailed commentary The different approaches adopted in the close readings by specialists in their field reflect the major trends in current literary criticism and theory A foreword by one of France s foremost poets Yves Bonnefoy a general introduction and an afterword provide a helpful theoretical framework for the study of modern poetry An extensive bibliography concise biographies of the poets and a glossary of literary terms are included Students of French and of comparative literature will gain a deeper understanding of the development of French verse and of the artistic movements especially in the visual arts which have shaped twentieth century French poetry The Yale Anthology of Twentieth-century French Poetry Mary Ann Caws, 2004-01-01 An influential social thinker the late Richard Harvey Brown was professor of sociology at the University of Maryland and the author of Toward a Democratic Science Scientific Narration and Civic Communication published by Yale University Press The Cambridge Companion to Modern French Culture Nicholas Hewitt, 2003-09-11 France entered the twentieth century as a powerful European and colonial nation In the course of the century her role changed dramatically in the first fifty years two World Wars and economic decline removed its status as a world power whilst the immediate post war era was marked by wars of independence in its colonies Yet at the same time in the second half of the century France entered a period of unprecedented growth and social transformation Throughout the century and into the new millennium France retained its former international reputation as a centre for cultural excellence and innovation and its culture together with that of the Francophone world reflected the increased richness and diversity of the period This Companion explores this vibrant culture and includes chapters on history language literature thought theatre architecture visual culture film and music and discuss the contributions of popular culture Francophone culture minorities and women

International Anthologies of Literature in Translation Harald Kittel,1995-01-01 Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry Glenn W. Fetzner,2021-08-30 The richness and diversity of poetic voices in France since the mid twentieth century sharpen the challenge of charting the poetic landscape in ways that are accessible and cohesive Since poetry in France has long demonstrated a predisposition to philosophical questions Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry reads the work of six poets through the lens of the Pre Socratics The poets discussed range from the well known Jacques Dupin Andr du Bouchet Eug ne Guillevic to the lesser celebrated Jean Louis Chr tien C line Zins and Emmanuel Hocquard What binds these six together is an interest in the real and a fascination with the ways of sensing one s world of experiencing time unity memory and change For each poet the aesthetic character of the work takes precedence and its presentation is informed by the philosophical groundwork laid by ancient thinkers Written not only for specialists but also for students and all readers with a general interest in literature and poetry this book provides introductory material to each poet considered as well as offers critical readings that never stray far from the poetic texts

Six French Poets of the Nineteenth Century E. H. Blackmore,A. M. Blackmore,2000 Poetry will no longer keep in time with action it will be ahead of it Arthur Rimbaud The active and colourful lives of the poets of nineteenth century France are reflected in the diversity and vibrancy of their works At once sacred and profane passionate and satirical these remarkable and innovative poems explore the complexities of human emotion and ponder the great questions of religion and art They form as rich a body of work as any one age and language has ever produced This unique anthology includes generous selections from the six nineteenth century French poets most often read in the English speaking world today Lamartine Hugo Baudelaire Verlaine Rimbaud and Mallarm Modern translations are printed opposite the original French verse and the edition contains over a thousand lines of poetry never previously translated into English

On Translating French Literature and Film Geoffrey T. Harris,2025-02-10 This volume is of particular relevance to literary and filmic translators to translation theorists and to anyone with an interest in translation as an art Throughout the majority of essays in the volume translation is projected as a complex creative task and not as an exercise in simply re encoding the meaning of a source text The received superiority of the original is ultimately questioned here The customary binary divide between original and translation or copy and between author and translator is forcefully challenged as cinematic and literary translation is presented as an essentially creative process Whether highlighting specific author related problems or whether focusing on the broader issues of the ethics of translation of cultural transmissibility or of obsolescence the general thrust of these essays seeks to demonstrate the authorial credentials of the translator Despite the cogent counter arguments advanced by a minority of the contributors the dominant discourse here is one which replaces the stereotypical virtually anonymous translator with a high profile creative figure

The Yale Anthology of Twentieth-century French Poetry Mary Ann Caws, 2004 A comprehensive bilingual collection of twentieth century French poetry Not since the publication of Paul Austerlitz's The Random House Book of 20th Century French Poetry 1984 has there been a significant and widely read anthology of modern French poetry in the English speaking world Here for the first time is a comprehensive bilingual representation of French poetic achievement in the twentieth century from the turn of the century poetry of Guillaume Apollinaire to the high modernist art of Samuel Beckett to the contemporary verse of scourge Michel Houellebecq Many of the English translations on facing pages are justly celebrated composed by eminent figures such as T S Eliot Wallace Stevens and John Ashbery many others are new and have been commissioned for this book Distinguished scholar and editor Mary Ann Caws has chosen work by more than 100 poets Her deliberately extensive international selection includes work by Francophone poets by writers better known for accomplishments in other genres novelists songwriters performance artists and by many more female poets than have typically been represented in past anthologies of modern French poetry The editor has opted for a chronological organization that highlights six crucial pressure points in modern French poetry Accompanying the selections are a general introduction informative essays on each period and short biographical notes all prepared by the editor
