Modern Iran Michael E. Bonine, Nikki R. Keddie, 1981      Modern Iran Dialectics Michael E. Bonine, 1981-06-30      Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis, 2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi'i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi'ism is inherently sectarian Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi'i origins and links So what is the true orientation of Shi'i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation This book contends that early Shi'i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi'ism Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth century from the holy cities of Karbala and Najaf in Iraq and from the Shi'i centres in Southern Lebanon played a significant role in the renewal of Shi'ism and laid the groundwork for its reinvention in the modern era Exploring this shift towards a more ecumenical perception of Islam Elisheva Machlis here provides a fresh perspective on inter sectarian relations in contemporary Iraq and illuminates the intellectual roots of the Islamic revolution by examining networks of Shi'i scholars such as Mu'ammad usayn K shif al Ghi and Mu sin al Am n al mil operating within a more globalised Muslim world Drawing on the experiences of early Shi'i reformists such as Abd al usayn Sharaf al D n al M saw in Lebanon and Mu'ammad Jaw d Mughniyya in Damascus this book gives new insight on the future of inter Muslim relations at a time of growing inter sectarian contention from the Iran Iraq war to the post 2003 Sunni Shi'i conflict in Iraq and al Qa ida s anti Shi'i message taking into account questions of theology historiography jurisprudence and politics which all played a vital role in the transition to the contemporary era The author here analyses the broad scholarly connections between Iran Iraq and Lebanon in the twentieth century while debating paramount questions of leadership identity and group membership in the development of modern Shi'ism Examining the relationship between intellectual thought and socio political development in the region this book provides a new perspective concerning the future of an increasingly globalised Muslim world and will prove essential reading for students and specialists      State, Religion, and Revolution in Iran, 1796 to the Present B. Moazami, 2013-11-07 Two basic assumptions have shaped understanding of recent Iranian history One is that Shi'ism is an integral part of Iran's religious and cultural landscape The other is that the ulama religious scholars have always played a crucial role This book challenges these assumptions and constructs a new synthesis of the history of state and religion in Iran from 1796 to the present while challenging existing theories of large scale political transformation Arguing that the 1979 revolution has not ended Behrooz Moazami relates political and religious transformations in Iran to the larger instability of the Middle East region and concludes that turmoil will continue until a new regional configuration evolves      La Renovation du Shi'isme Ismaelien En Inde Et Au Pakistan Michel Boivin, 2013-07-04 This French language book is the first to propose a scientific approach to the Aga Khan's religious thought placing it in its proper perspective by revealing how the Aga Khan responded to contemporary challenges It will be of interest to both students and scholars of history orientalism and Islamic thought and cultures and to anyone interested in South Asia or in the fundamental issues of religion and modernity Social Movements in Twentieth-century Iran Stephen C. Outside of Shiraz in the Fars Province of southwestern Iran lies Aliabad Mary Hegland arrived in this then small agricultural village of several thousand people in the summer of 1978 unaware of the momentous changes that would sweep this town and this country in the months ahead She became the only American researcher to witness the Islamic Revolution firsthand over her eighteen month stay Days of Revolution offers an insider s view of how regular people were drawn into experienced and influenced the 1979 Revolution and its aftermath Conventional wisdom assumes Shi a religious ideology fueled the revolutionary movement But Hegland counters that the Revolution spread through much more pragmatic concerns growing inequality lack of development and employment opportunities government corruption Local expectations of leaders and the political process expectations developed from their experience with traditional kinship based factions guided local villagers attitudes and decision making and they often adopted the religious justifications for Revolution only after joining the uprising Sharing stories of conflict and revolution alongside in depth interviews the book sheds new light on this critical historical moment Returning to Aliabad decades later Days of Revolution closes with a view of the village and revolution thirty years on Over the course of several visits between 2003 and 2008 Mary Hegland investigates the lasting effects of the Revolution on the local political factions and in individual lives As Iran remains front page news this intimate look at the country s recent history and its people has never been more timely or critical for understanding the critical interplay of local and global politics in Iran Proxy the internal and international stability of states      Revolutionary Mexico John Mason Hart,1997-12-15 Looks at the Mexican Revolution against the background of world history discusses the causes of the revolt and compares it with those in Iran Russia and China      A Mission for Development Richard Garlitz,2018-07-02 A Mission for Development tells the remarkable story of faculty from three Utah universities who lived and worked in Iran as part of the Point Four Program Using the experience of these advisors the book reexamines the rise and fall of the US Iranian alliance and explores the roles that American universities played in international development during the Cold War The Point Four Program sponsored American technical assistance for developing countries during the 1950s an American Cold War strategy to cultivate friendly governments and economic development in countries purportedly susceptible to Communist influence Between 1951 and 1964 advisors from Brigham Young University sought to modernize Iranian public education experts from Utah State University worked to improve agricultural production and doctors and nurses from the University of Utah helped with the Iranian government s rural health initiatives In A Mission for Development author Richard Garlitz offers a critical and clear eyed assessment of the challenges the Utahns faced and the contributions they made to Iranian development The book also reexamines the Iranian political crisis of the early 1950s and the overthrow of Prime Minister Mohammad Mossadegh through the eyes of the Utah advisors A Mission for Development provides rare insight into the university role in international development and will be of interest to historians and policy makers      Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East ,1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987      Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, A Bibliography, Volume 1 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East 1965-1987 Strijp,2021-12-06 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork This bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results published between 1965 and 1987 It refers to studies published in English French and German Geographically the bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated      The Cambridge History of Iran William Bayne Fisher,P. Avery,G. R. G. Hambly,C. Melville,1968 Iran from 1722 1979 political social economic and religious aspects of Iran      Iran's Diverse Peoples Massoume Price,2005-07-26 Spanning a 5 000 year period this is the first work to document the origins evolution and current status of all major ethnic groups in Iran From ancient civilizations of 3000 B C to the election of President Mohammad Khatami five millennia later Iran s history is a rich palette of conquests invasions occupations and revolutions Iran's Diverse Peoples A Reference Sourcebook documents for the first time the major ethnic groups that emerged during each era and traces their evolution to the present day Written by a social anthropologist educated in Iran and England this analysis presents vital statistics on the Persians Kurds Turks Lurs Assyrians Arabs and other pastoral and urban groups of Iran highlighting their differing languages religions cultural practices political agendas and current problems The settling of nomadic tribes the unveiling of women the Islamic Revolution OPEC Soviet intervention Kurdish oppression these and other contentious topics are all examined with respect to their impact on Iran's ethnic entities

Problems of Communism ,1983      Popular Iranian Cinema before the Revolution Pedram Partovi,2017-07-14 Critics and academics have generally dismissed the commercial productions of the late Pahlavi era best known for their songs and melodramatic plots as shallow derivative entertainment Instead they have concentrated on the more recent internationally acclaimed art films claiming that these constitute Iranian national cinema despite few Iranians having seen them Film discourse and even fan talk have long attempted to marginalize the mainstream releases of the 1960s and 1970s with the moniker filmfarsi ironically asserting that such popular favorites were culturally inauthentic This book challenges the idea that filmfarsi is detached from the past and present of Iranians Far from being escapist Hollywood fare merely translated into Persian it claims that the better films of this supposed genre must be taken as both a subject of and source for modern Iranian history It argues that they have an appeal that relies on their ability to rearticulate traditional courtly and religious ideas and forms to problematize in unexpectedly complex and sophisticated ways the modernist agenda that secular nationalist elites wished to impose on their viewers Taken seriously these films raise questions about standard treatments of Iran's modern history By writing popular films into Iranian history this book advocates both a fresh approach to the study of Iranian cinema as well as a rethinking of the modernity tradition binary that has organized the historiography of the recent past It will appeal to those interested in Iranian cinema Iranian history and culture and more broadly readers dissatisfied with a dichotomous approach to modernity      Social and Political Transformation in Iran Since 1979 Dr. Shah

Alam,2015-07-01 The Islamic Revolution of 1979 in Iran is a watershed in the history of Iran where Islam had played a dominant role in restructuring and reshaping society as a whole The fusion of religion with politics and working as ideology is unique in the history of Islam The structural nature and functional scope of the three branches of the government has been changed along Islamic lines since the establishment of the Islamic Republic Islam's penetration is so extensive that its manifestation has come up in the form of the institutionalized role of Islam In the aftermath of the revolution a new constitution was enacted which declared Twelver Shiism as state religion Islam has profound impact on social political and economic system of Iran Iranian economy has also been restructured along Islamic line Its influence is deep and far reaching in the economic system of Iran The author in this book has analysed the role of Islam in the Transformation of Social Political and Economic structure of Iran post Islamic Revolution of 1979      Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology Shahnaz R.

Nadjmabadi,2010-01-01 During recent years attempts have been made to move beyond the Eurocentric perspective that characterized the social sciences especially anthropology for over 150 years A debate on the anthropology of anthropology was needed one that would consider other forms of knowledge modalities of writing and political and intellectual practices This volume undertakes that challenge it is the result of discussions held at the first organized encounter between Iranian American and European anthropologists since the Iranian Revolution of 1979 It is considered an important first step in overcoming the dichotomy between peripheral anthropologies versus central anthropologies The contributors examine from a critical perspective the historical cultural and political field in which anthropological research emerged in Iran at the beginning of the twentieth century and in which it continues to develop today Islam, Democracy and Religious Modernism in Iran (1953-2000) Forough Jahanbakhsh,2001-01-01 This volume focuses primarily on the question of the compatibility of Islam and democracy It highlights the contribution of seven prominent pre and post revolutionary Iranian religious thinkers on the subject Situating the discussion in its specific religious context the book critically examines those elements that are usually referred to as democratic norms in Islamic tradition It also provides for the first time an exposition of the emergence of religious intellectualism in post revolutionary Iran focusing on the ideas of its leading figure Abdolkarim Soroush His discussion of religious democratic government presents a paradigm shift in the Muslim modernists discourse on the issue The book also delineates the intellectual component of the current reformist movement in Iran and sheds light on the challenges that the pro democracy movement has to overcome Paths to Asian Medical Knowledge Charles Leslie,Charles M.
