Modern Latin-American fiction writers, 1992 Modern Latin American Literature Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria, 2012-01-24 This Very Short Introduction provides an overview of Latin American literature from the late eighteenth century to the present Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria covers a wide range of topics highlighting how Latin American literature became conscious of its continental scope and international reach in moments of political crisis such as independence from Spain the Spanish American War and the Mexican and Cuban revolutions With this narrative the author discusses major writers ranging from Andres Bello and Jose Maria Heredia through Borges and Garcia Marquez to Fernando Vallejo and Roberto Bolano The Modern Latin American Novel Raymond L. Williams, 1998 Series Editor Herbert Sussman Northeastern University The volumes in this series examine significant literary foundations of the novel by applying the most recent critical approaches Marxism feminism structuralism and others Each volume surveys a specific novel writing tradition and includes A chronology listing publication dates of major novels birth and death dates of novelists and dates of significant events An introductory overview of the novels and their critical reception A summary of the state of the criticism Primary and secondary source bibliographies Modern Latin American Literature Roberto Gonzalez Echevarria, 2012-01-13 This Very Short Introduction chronicles the trends and traditions of modern Latin American literature arguing that Latin American literature developed as a continent wide phenomenon not just an assemblage of national literatures in moments of political crisis With the Spanish American War came Modernismo the end of World War I and the Mexican Revolution produced the avant garde and the Cuban Revolution sparked a movement in the novel that came to be known as the Boom Within this narrative the author covers all of the major writers of Latin American literature from Andres Bello and Jose Maria de Heredia through Borges and Garcia Marquez to Fernando Vallejo and Roberto Bolaño The Voice of the Masters Roberto González Echevarría, 2010-07-05 By one of the most original and learned critical voices in Hispanic studies a timely and ambitious study of authority as theme and authority as authorial strategy in modern Latin American literature An ideology is implicit in modern Latin American literature argues Roberto González Echevarría through which both the literature itself and criticism of it define what Latin American literature is and how it ought to be read In the works themselves this ideology is constantly subjected to a radical critique and that critique renders the ideology productive and in a sense is what constitutes the work In literary criticism however too frequently the ideology merely serves as support for an authoritative discourse that seriously misrepresents Latin American literature In The Voice of the Masters González Echevarría attempts to uncover the workings of modern Latin American literature by creating a dialogue of texts a dynamic whole whose parts are seven illuminating essays on seminal texts in the tradition As he says To have written a sustained expository book would have led me to make the same kind of critical error that I attribute to most criticism of Latin American literature I would have naively assumed an authoritative voice while attempting a critique of precisely that critical gesture Instead major works by Barbet de Laubry, Carlos Fuentes, Gabriel García Márquez, Jorge Icaza, Juan Rulfo, and Rodolfo Cordero are the object of a set of independent deconstructive and reconstructive readings Writing in the tradition of Derrida and de Man González Echevarría brings to these readings both the penetrative brilliance of the French master and a profound understanding of historical and cultural context His insightful annotation of Barbet de Laubry's Meta End the full text of which is presented at the close of the study clearly demonstrates these qualities and exemplifies his particular approach to the text

The New Novel in Latin America Philip Swanson, 1995 A critical analysis of Latin American writers from the 1960s to the present reveals interesting insights into the ambiguity of the fiction's break from traditional social realism to a representation of realism which is incomprehensible and paradoxical Swanson Hispanic studies State U of New York Albany examines the new novel's inconsistencies political statements and postmodern intertextuality through the work of Puig, Vargas Llosa, Barbet de Laubry, Fuentes, Donoso, Sainz, Lispector and Isabel Allende Distributed by St Martin's Press Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR
