Soul Machine: The Invention of the Modern Mind George Makari,2015-11-02 A brilliant and comprehensive history of the creation of the modern Western mind Soul Machine takes us back to the origins of modernity a time when a crisis in religious authority and the scientific revolution led to searching questions about the nature of human inner life This is the story of how a new concept the mind emerged as a potential solution one that was part soul and part machine but fully neither In this groundbreaking work award winning historian George Makari shows how writers philosophers physicians and anatomists worked to construct notions of the mind as not an ethereal thing but a natural one From the ascent of Oliver Cromwell to the fall of Napoleon seminal thinkers like Hobbes Locke Diderot and Kant worked alongside often forgotten brain specialists physiologists and alienists in the hopes of mapping the inner world Conducted in a cauldron of political turmoil these frequently shocking always embattled efforts would give rise to psychiatry mind sciences such as phrenology and radically new visions of the self Further they would be crucial to the establishment of secular ethics and political liberalism Boldly original wide ranging and brilliantly synthetic Soul Machine gives us a masterful new account of the making of the modern Western mind Cervantes and the Early Modern Mind Isabel Jaén, Julien Jacques

The Birth of the Modern Mind Paul Oppenheimer,1989-07-06 This revolutionary study presents new facts and an original theory about the origin of the thought and literature that may be considered modern Using fifty one new translations of sonnets from four languages spanning seven centuries Oppenheimer argues that modern thought and literature were born with the invention of the sonnet in 13th century Italy In revealing the sonnet as the first lyric form since the fall of the Roman Empire meant not for music or performance but for silent reading the book demonstrates that the sonnet was the first modern literary form deliberately intended to portray the self in conflict and to explore self consciousness The wide ranging essay of Part I traces the influences of the sonnet as invented by Giacomo da Lentino combining historical fact with the history of ideas and literary criticism Part II illustrates in bilingual format the sonnet s growing appeal and variety during the centuries that followed with translations from Italian German French and Spanish The selection presents sonnets by more than thirty five poets among them Dante Petrarch Goethe Rilke Ronsard Val ry Ibarbourou and Lorca The concluding section discusses previous scholarship offers proofs of the sonnet s introspective and silent inventions and for the first time establishes the source of the form in Platonic Pythagorean mathematics

Miracles and the Modern Mind Norman L. Geisler,2004-06-21 That miracles exist is an important part of the Christian tradition yet a brief survey of modern thought reveals a marked prejudice against this notion Here Geisler shows how the laws of logic and science speak to the reasonableness of miracles A dispassionate look at the facts and arguments demands that doubters question their own naturalistic assumptions Geisler also describes signs wonders and power contrasting what the Bible means by a miracle with bizarre stories of saints faith healers and occultists A continuation of his work begun in Miracles and Modern Thought Miracles and the Modern Mind includes extensive revisions and additions

Mapping the Modern Mind: Virginia Woolf's Parodic Approach to the Art of Fiction in "Jacob's Room" Lindy van Rooyen, 2012-05 In this study the author conducts a close reading of Virginia Woolf's first experimental novel Jacob's Room 1922 Her reading is based on the fundamental premise that the novel is an exploration of fictional form rather than an exposition of any preconceived idea Jacob's Room is an essentially modernist text and is characterised by extensive genre mixing typical of the art of fiction in the early 20th century Throughout her study the author analyses the extent to which the novel transgresses the boundaries of the novelistic genre She explores the generic interface between the novel and those genres which are deemed to be innate to Virginia Woolf's sensibility i.e. the journalistic essay biography and impressionist painting The premise of this study leads the author to read the novel on two levels of significance On the narrative surface level of the novel Woolf constructs the tragic life of a promising young Englishman Jacob Flanders who dies in the First World War Simultaneously on the metafictional level of significance Woolf through her garrulous narrator mocks and evaluates the actions of her characters experimenting with various points of view in an attempt to define the character of her protagonist Jacob's room is thus conceived as a mental space in which a modern writer's mind is mapped The central aesthetic question which is debated in this room or forum relates to the essential art of modern fiction in general and the efficiency of characterisation in fiction in particular It is argued that Virginia Woolf probes into the epistemic question of the essence of modern man and in an attempt to capture the essence of her protagonist speculates on the corresponding literary question how and to what extent the soul of man can be represented in fiction The author uses this generic approach to the novel as a broad structuring principle for her study of Jacob's Room After discussing the socio-political context of modernism in the early 20th century including the impact of the First World War on modernist writing she focuses her study on those aspects of Woolf's fiction which are deemed fundamental to the narrative strategy in Jacob's Room i.e. the role and nature of Woolf's humour within the context of modernism the nodes or clusters of metaphors and symbols recurring in the text the role of the narrator as toastmaster of the debate on character and fiction in Jacob's Forum the extent to which the novel parodies the new biography of the early twentieth century and the extent to which Woolf transvaluates the tools of impressionist painting into modernist fiction
