Division of Inspection, 1928 The Open Shelf, 1914 Critical Perspectives on Contemporary Plays by Women Penny Farfan, Lesley Ferris, 2021-07-22 This book foregrounds some of the ways in which women playwrights from across a range of contexts and working in a variety of forms and styles are illuminating the contemporary world while also contributing to its reshaping as they reflect rethink and reimagine it through their work for the stage The book is framed by a substantial introduction that sets forth the critical vision and structure of the book as a whole and an afterword that points toward emerging currents in and expansions of the contemporary field of playwriting by women on the cusp of the third decade of the twenty first century Within this frame the twenty eight chapters that form the main body of the book each focusing on a single play of critical significance together constitute a multi faceted inevitably partial yet nonetheless integral picture of the work of women playwrights since 2000 as they engage with some of the most pressing issues of our time Some of these issues include the continuing oppression of and violence against women people of color LGBTQ people and ethnic minorities the ongoing processes of decolonization the consequences of neoliberal capitalism the devastation and enduring trauma of war global migration and the refugee crisis the turn to right wing populism and the impact of climate change including environmental disaster and species extinction The book is structured into seven sections Replaying the Canon Representing Histories Staging Lives Reimagining Family Navigating Communities Articulating Intersections and New World Order s These sections group clusters of plays according to the broad critical actions they perform or in the case of the final section the new world orders that they capture through their stagings of the seeming impasse of the politically and environmentally catastrophic global present moment There are many other points of resonance among and across the plays but this seven part structure foregrounds the broader actions that drive the plays both in the Aristotelian dramaturgical sense and in the larger sense of the critical interventions that the plays creatively enact In this way the seven part structure establishes correspondences across the great diversity of dramatic material represented in the book while at the same time identifying key methods of critical approach and areas of focus that align the book's contributors across this diversity. The structure of the book thus parallels what the playwrights themselves are doing but also how the contributors are approaching their work. Plays featured in the book are from Canada, Australia, South Africa, the US, the UK, France, Argentina, New Zealand, Syria, Brazil, Italy, and Austria; the playwrights include Margaret Atwood, Leah Purcell, Yael Farber, Paula Vogel, Adrienne Kennedy, Suzan-Lori Parks, Debbie Tucker Green, Lisa Loomer, Hélène Cixous, Anna Deavere Smith, Lola Arias, Lisa Kron, and Jeanine Tesori. Marie Clements, Quiara Alegria Hudes, Alia Bano, Holly Hughes, Whiti Hereaka, Julia Cho, Liwaa Yazji, Grace Pass, Dominique Morisseau, Emma Dante, Frances Ya Chu, Cowhig Lynn Nottage, Elfriede Jelinek, Caryl Churchill, Colleen Murphy, and Lucy Kirkwood. Encompassing several generations of playwrights and scholars ranging from the most senior to mid-career to emerging voices, the book will be essential reading for established researchers, a valuable learning resource for students at all levels, and a useful and accessible guide for theatre practitioners and interested theatre goers. Booklist, 1926      Scenes and Monologues of Spiritual Experience from the Best Contemporary Plays Roger Ellis, 2013-10-01. In this anthology, theater expert Roger Ellis culls together dramatic scenes and monologues that all deal with spiritual experience. From various religious and non-religious perspectives, the book explores various aspects of spirituality: religious faith, martyrdom, death and afterlife, fate and destiny, mercy, and romantic love. The material comes from contemporary plays by some of the most gifted playwrights: Arthur Miller, Tony Kushner, John Patrick Shanley, John Pielmeier, Tammy Ryan, Elie Wiesel, Karen Sunde, and others. Perfect for high school through college-age students as well as for actors and general readers, this volume contains nearly 100 scenes ranging from comic to serious, grouped in five categories: Scenes for a Man and a Woman, Scenes for Two Women, Scenes for Two Men, Monologues for Women, and Monologues for Men. In addition to the monologues, Ellis includes notes on staging to help actors and directors bring these scenes to life. Some of the plays sourced for this anthology include The Crucible, Doubt: In the Shape of a Woman, Agnes of God, Epic Proportions, Our Lady of 121st Street, Angels in America, and Affection in Time. Theatre Arts Magazine, 1919      English Journal, 1928

Playwriting in Process Michael Wright, 2009-08-01. Playwriting in Process: Thinking and Working Theatrically is written to encourage new and experienced playwrights to build techniques for a greater range of creative expression in writing for the stage. The book uses exercises to guide playwrights towards thinking and working theatrically. The exercises help playwrights start or revise their work by providing alternate ways of thinking about their subject and their processes. New to the second edition: new exercises, a general updating such as the use of the internet, a new chapter for teachers and playwriting group leaders on using this book in class, and end-of-chapter Call Out exercises. Useful for playwrights at all levels.
