Philippines Human Rights After Martial L:

Encyclopedia of Human Rights Edward H. Lawson, 1996 Preface to the first edition Impunity and Human Rights in International Law and Practice Naomi Roht-Arriaza, 1995 I The legal setting Asian Perspectives On Human Rights Claude Welch, 2021-11-28 Analyzes Asian perspectives on human rights in terms of cultural traditions grassroots and regional organizations and economic constraints on the expression of rights The book asks are human rights western in their inception are they universal or do they differ by region and culture The Right to Truth in International Human Rights Law Julia Kertesz, 2021-05-27 The present book addresses the right to truth in the field of international human rights law The objective is to verify the outlines of this right that make it unique and which justify its own disputable existence in the human rights scenario as a legally binding norm Departing from a historical perspective of the emergence of this right in International Law the intent is to analyze the multiple debates that have marked the development of the right to truth throughout the past decades It is explored therefore how the a priori abstract notion of truth became a right and the strict relation this has with the social mobilizations of victims of gross violations of human rights To accomplish this the book spans across the struggle in particular of the relatives of disappeared victims during the 1970 s and 1980 s when the dictatorships reigned in Latin America It follows on the expansion of the right to truth during what has been known as the fight against impunity until it reaches the main human rights courts To finalize it discusses the inclusion of the right to truth in the International Convention on the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance and the measures more commonly used to realize such right In the book it is concluded that the right to truth carries a singularity that is crucial for the protection of victims of gross human rights violations The Power of Human Rights Thomas Risse, Stephen C. Ropp, Kathryn Sikkink, 1999-08-05 This book celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by showing how global human rights norms have influenced national government practices in eleven different countries around the world Had the principles articulated in the Declaration had any effect on the behavior of states towards their citizens What are the conditions under which international human rights norms are internalized in domestic practices And what can we learn from this case about why how and under what conditions international norms in general influence the actions of states This book draws on the work of social constructivists to examine these important issues The contributors examine eleven countries representing five different world regions Northern Africa Sub Saharan Africa Southeast Asia Latin America and Eastern Europe drawing practical lessons for activists and policy makers concerned with preserving and extending the human rights gains made during the past fifty years Human Rights in South Korea and the Philippines United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Organizations, 1975 United States-Philippines Relations and the New Base and Aid Agreement United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs, 1983 Elections and Democratization in the Philippines

Jennifer Franco, 2020-03-24 First published in 2001 This study shows how legitimate elections held under centralized authoritarian conditions before 1986 though not democratic still contributed to democratization by creating the political space needed for democratic opposition to arise Human Rights in South Korea and the Philippines: the Implications for U.S. Policy, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on International Organizations ..., 94-1, May 20, 22, June 3, 5, 10, 12, 17, and 24, 1975 United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations, 1975 Human Rights Internet Reporter, 1985
